Index to the Oral History of Captain Frank A. Manson, U.S. Navy (Retired)

Acheson, Dean

As Secretary of State in January 1950, made a speech in which he suggested the United States was not interested in Korean security, 152-153

Agadir, Morocco

Site of a devastating earthquake in February 1960, 253-254

Air Force, U.S.

Role in the inter-service unification squabbles in the late 1940s, 28-30, 203

Air Reconnaissance Squadron Two (VQ-2)

A VW-2 Super Constellation from the squadron crashed in Germany in May 1962 with the loss of all 26 crew members, 214-216

Air Warfare

Effect of U.S. aircraft during the early stages of the Korean Warfare, 53, 63-64

Alcohol

Distribution of whiskey to crew members of the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) during a kamikaze attack in 1945, 18

Drinking on board the aircraft carrier Philippine Sea (CV-47) during the Korean War, 63-64

All Hands

Magazine published in the mid-1950s by the Bureau of Naval Personnel, 103-104

Almond, Lieutenant General Edward Mallory, USA

Commanded the Army's X Corps during the early stages of the Korean War, 56-57

Amen, Lieutenant Commander William T., USN

Commanded Fighter Squadron 111 (VF-111) during the Korean War, shot down a MiG, 64

American Legion

Cultivated in the mid-1950s by the OpNav Office of Progress Analysis, 170 Manson's post-Navy activities on behalf of the organization in the area of foreign relations, 355-359

Amphibious Warfare

Successful United Nations amphibious assault on Inchon, Korea, in September 1950, 49, 53-54

Anderson, Admiral George W. Jr. USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1927)

In the late 1970s was part of a group of senior officers who sought to retain the Panama Canal for the United States, 321-322

Anderson, Jack

Journalist who assisted muckraking columnist Drew Pearson in the late 1940s, 205-206

Anderson, Robert B.

As Deputy Secretary of Defense in the mid-1950s, reviewed a speech to be delivered by Chief of Naval Operations Robert Carney, 112-113

Army, U.S.

Role in the early stages of the Korean War, 56-57

Attlee, Earl Clement R.

British politician who discussed Manson's "White Fleet" concept with him in the early 1960s, 256-257

Aurand, Captain Evan P., USN (USNA, 1938)

Served as President Dwight Eisenhower's naval aide from 1957 to 1961, 74, 140, 192

Awards, Naval

During World War II Rear Admiral Jocko Clark handed out medals soon after successful operations, 281

Paucity of medals for U.S. Navy personnel in the early stages of the Korean War, 53-56

Baldwin, Hanson W. (USNA, 1924)

Served for many years as military editor for The New York Times, 207, 210

Barb, USS (SS-220)

In 1949 was the subject of an article in The Saturday Evening Post, 33-34

Bates, Rear Admiral Richard W., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1915)

Served as chief of staff to Vice Admiral Jesse Oldendorf in the Philippine campaign in 1945, 198-199

Did analytical work at the Naval War College in the late 1950s, 198

Bates, William H.

As a member of the House of Representatives in the late 1950s, advocated Manson's "White Fleet" concept, 188, 191, 195

Battle Report

A series of commercial books published in the 1940s and 1950s on the U.S. Navy's role in World War II and the Korean War, 31-41, 50-70

Bay of Pigs

Vice Admiral Claude V. Ricketts, as Commander Second Fleet, was disappointed that the U.S. Navy did not intervene in the April 1961 invasion, 269-270

Becton, Commander F. Julian, USN (USNA, 1931)

Commanded the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) in 1944-45, 7-25, 40 Combat operations in the Pacific in 1944-45, 8, 12-25, 40

Beecher, Rear Admiral William G., USN (USNA, 1925)

Served 1954-55 as the Navy's Chief of Information, 115-116

Beecher, William M.

New York Times reporter who broke the story in October 1967 that the Soviet Navy was operating its first helicopter carrier, the Moskva, 307-309, 312-313

Bergen, Rear Admiral John J., USNR

In 1957 was part of a barnstorming tour to promote the Navy League and sea power, 157-158

Bertrand, General Rene, French Army

In the early 1950s served as a special assistant to CinCSouth, the commander in chief of NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe, 71-73

Boston Navy Yard

During World War II, Destroyer Force, Atlantic Fleet had a representative in Boston to prepare ships for combat service, 4-9

Pre-deployment service to the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) in 1944, 9-10

Bradley, General of the Army Omar N., USA (USMA, 1915)

Served 1949-53 as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, 45-46, 82, 119-120

Brazier, Captain Donald G., USNR

Reserve officer who was recalled to active duty to provide public information support for the 1964 NATO Exercise Team Work, 328, 333

Bright, Captain Cooper B., USN

Served as commanding officer of the ammunition ship Wrangell (AE-12) from 1956 to 1958, 146

In the late 1950s served in OP-09D, the Office of Progress Analysis, on the OpNav staff, 147-149

Tried unsuccessfully to sell the idea of inflatable rubber airplanes, 148-149

Briscoe, Vice Admiral Robert P., USN (USNA, 1919)

Served 1954-56 as OP-03, Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Operations and Readiness), 115, 122-123

Brown, Vice Admiral Charles R., USN (USNA, 1921)

Enjoyed action while commanding the Sixth Fleet, 1956-58, 145-146

Bruce, David E. K.

As U.S. ambassador to Great Britain in the early 1960s, was involved with a dinner to promote Manson's "White Fleet" concept, 272-275

Burke, Admiral Arleigh A., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1923)

Wife Roberta, 122, 129-131

Recalled anecdote from his junior officer duty in a battleship, 142

Service with Vice Admiral Marc Mitscher in 1944, 133-134

In 1949 headed OP-23, which was a pro-Navy organization in the unification battle against the other U.S. armed services, 29, 210-211

In the late 1940s was originally left off the promotion list for rear admiral, later restored, 325-326

In the early part of the Korean War was on the staff of Commander U.S. Naval Forces Far East, 65-67

In the early 1950s Chief of Naval Operations Robert Carney considered him as a possible successor, 115, 127

Served as Chief of Naval Operations from 1955 to 1961, 95, 100-102, 106-109, 113-119, 121-133, 135-150, 159, 164-164, 173, 190-191, 226, 243

Delivered a fake reprimand to Captain John McCain for exceeding authority, 164-165

In the late 1970s was part of a group of senior officers who sought to retain the Panama Canal for the United States, 321-322

Caine Mutiny, The

World War II Navy novel that was made into a movie in the 1950s, 25-26, 38

Cagle, Commander Malcolm W., USN (USNA, 1941)

In the 1950s coauthored books on the U.S. Navy's role in the Korean War, 41, 50-51, 69-70, 78, 98, 150-157

In the mid-1950s was speechwriter for Secretary of the Navy Charles Thomas, 78, 97-98, 103, 171

In the early 1960s was stationed in Europe, 220

Writing projects in the 1960s, 350

Carney, Admiral Robert B., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1916)

Wife Grace, 72, 99, 129

As a midshipman in the 1910s, 79

Personality, including his wit and intelligence, 23, 78-79, 84, 113, 116-119

In 1944-45 was chief of staff to Admiral William F. Halsey, Commander Third Fleet, 74-75, 79-80

Served as Commander in Chief Allied Forces Southern Europe, 1951-53, 70-75, 84-90, 292

In Manson's view would have been excellent as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, 73-74, 117

As Chief of Naval Operations, 1953-55, 75-79, 95-100, 103-105, 110-121, 126-128, 132, 141, 143, 155-156, 277-278, 319

In the early 1950s, as CNO, supported nuclear power for U.S. surface warships, 75-77

In the late 1970s was part of a group of senior officers who sought to retain the Panama Canal for the United States, 321-323

Central Intelligence Agency

Rejected as a possible source of support for Manson's "White Fleet" concept in the early 1960s, 197, 294

Chaplains

In the early 1960s the chaplain's office at CinCNELM in London tried to forbid the marriage of a U.S. enlisted man to a young British woman, 282

China, People's Republic of

In 1950 sent troops into North Korea as part of the Korean War, 57

Chippendale, Captain Burton W., USN (USNA, 1915)

During World War II commanded the Cornell Naval Training School, Ithaca, New York, 3-4

Churchill, Sir Winston S.

Clement Attlee's joke in the early 1960s about how Churchill would react to Manson's "White Fleet" proposal, 256-257

CinCNELM (Commander in Chief U.S. Naval Forces Eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean)

In the early 1960s the commander in chief, Admiral Harold Page Smith, received a gag order from Defense Department officials, 167-168

In the early 1960s the chaplain's office at CinCNELM in London tried to forbid the marriage of a U.S. enlisted man to a young British woman, 282-283

A VW-2 Super Constellation crashed in Germany in May 1962 with the loss of all 26 crew members, 214-216

Concern with naval events in the European theater in the late 1950s-early 1960s, 167-168, 214-259

Events at CinCNELM headquarters in London while the Cuban Missile Crisis was taking place in October 1962, 266-269

Relationship with NATO on annual exercises in the 1960s, 257

CinCSouth

Formation of NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe, 1951-53, 70-73, 84-90

Clark, Admiral Joseph J., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1918)

Hard-charging personality, 280

As an aircraft carrier task group commander in 1944-45, 280-281

In 1948 was in charge of swordsmen for a Navy wedding, 261-263

In 1957 was part of a barnstorming tour to promote the Navy League and sea power, 157-158

Claude V. Ricketts, USS (DDG-5)

Destroyer originally renamed Biddle, used for multi-national manning experiment, 290-293

Clifton, Lieutenant Colonel Chester V. Jr., USA

Around 1950 tried unsuccessfully to persuade Manson to collaborate on an article for Reader's Digest, 45-46

Close, Commander Robert H., USN (USNA, 1934)

Commanded the destroyer Collett (DD-730) during the Korean War, 55

Colbert, Rear Admiral Richard G., USN (USNA, 1937)

In the mid-1960s worked on concepts such as the Standing Naval Force Atlantic and the Iberian Atlantic Command while on the staff of SACLant, 197, 293-300, 341 In the early 1970s, as CinCSouth, asked Manson to return to active duty, 298

Collett, USS (DD-730)

Supported the September 1950 landing at Inchon, Korea, 55

Combs, Vice Admiral Thomas S., USN (USNA, 1920)

Served 1956-58 as Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Operations and Readiness), 148-149, 190

Communications

In the mid-1960s NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic sent the first message via the new Telstar satellite, 309-311

Congress, U.S.

Role in the late 1940s in the inter-service battles over unification, 30 Congressional hearings in 1946 on the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, 36-37 Messy scandal involving a Navy liaison officer to Congress, 1948, 261-266 Support for the Navy's nuclear power program in the 1950s, 106-107 Cultivated in the mid-1950s by the OpNav Office of Progress Analysis, 162-164, 179-180

In the late 1950s, several congressmen advocated Manson's "White Fleet" concept, 162, 185, 187, 191-192, 195, 273, 302-303

In the mid-1960s congressmen visited the SACLant and CinCLantFlt headquarters in Norfolk, 341-343

In the early 1970s Representative Dante Fascell urged Manson to pursue inter-American relations, 357

Connally, John B. Jr.

Served as Secretary of the Navy through most of 1961, 316

Conolly, Admiral Richard L., USN (USNA, 1914)

In 1949 declined to be considered as a replacement for Admiral Louis Denfeld as CNO, 82

In 1950 was downgraded from four stars to three when he became president of the Naval War College, 44-45

Consolation (AH-15)

Former Navy hospital ship that became the centerpiece of Project Hope, founded in 1958, 193-194, 274

Cornell Naval Training School, Ithaca, New York

Provided training for new Naval Reserve officers in 1942, 3-4, 25

Counihan, Captain John L. Jr., USN (USNA, 1932)

Served as Commander Naval Activities, Port Luaytey, Morocco, from 1957 to 1961, 243-245, 254

Crommelin, Commander John G., Jr., USN (USNA, 1923)

Had outstanding skills as an aviator, 145-146

Contact with the CNO's office in the late 1940s, 202

Crommelin, Captain Quentin C., USN (USNA, 1941)

In the mid-1950s was aide to the Chief of Naval Personnel, 103

Cuba

Vice Admiral Claude V. Ricketts, as Commander Second Fleet, was disappointed that the U.S. Navy did not intervene in the April 1961 invasion at the Bay of Pigs, 269-270

Cuban Missile Crisis

Events at CinCNELM headquarters in London while the crisis was taking place in October 1962, 266-269

Cullinane, Leo P.

New York Herald Tribune reporter with whom Manson tangled in the late 1940s, 211-212

Darnell, Lieutenant (junior grade) Matthew C., Medical Corps, USNR

Served on board the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) in World War II, 15, 18

Deacon, Commander Edward T., USN

Commanded Fighter Squadron 114 (VF-114) during the Korean War, 63

Defense Department

In the early 1960s, as Assistant Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs), issued a gag order to Admiral Harold Page Smith, 167-168

In 1968 Manson headed the book and magazine section of the office of the Deputy Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs), 346-355

Denfeld, Admiral Louis E., USN (USNA, 1912)

Wife, 129

Served as Chief of Naval Operations from 1947 until 1949, when he was fired by Secretary of the Navy Francis Matthews, 30-31, 41-42, 44, 46-48, 50, 82-83, 129, 204, 260-261, 266

Dennison, Admiral Robert L., USN (USNA, 1923)

Served in 1959-60 as Commander in Chief Allied Forces Eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean (CinCNELM), 193, 225-227, 242, 244, 255-256

After retirement talked to Manson about a possible book on the Cuban Missile Crisis, 269

Destroyer Force, Atlantic Fleet

During World War II had a representative in Boston to prepare ships for combat service, 4-9

Dowdell, Captain James S., USN

In the early 1960s served as deputy to the Navy's Chief of Information (Chinfo), 284-285, 327

Doyle, Vice Admiral Austin K., USN (USNA, 1920)

Served 1954-57 as Chief of Naval Air Training, 133

Dovle, Rear Admiral James H., USN (USNA, 1920)

Amphibious commander during the early stages of the Korean War, 53-56

Dulles, John Foster

Controversy in the mid-1950s over a speech made by Chief of Naval Operations Robert Carney, 110-111

Duncan, Admiral Donald B., USN (USNA, 1917)

In the early 1950s, as Vice Chief of Naval Operations, opposed nuclear power for U.S. surface warships, 75-77

Concern in the mid-1950s about the reluctance of the Naval History Division to make records available for research, 155-156

Dunoon, Scotland

Shopping and liberty location for crew members of Polaris missile submarines deployed to Holy Loch in 1961, 236-237

Durgin, Commander Calvin T. Jr., USN (USNA, 1941)

In the 1956 argued for Navy seaplanes, to the detriment of his career, 42, 132

DuVal, Captain Miles P. Jr., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1919)

In the late 1970s was part of a group of senior officers who sought to retain the Panama Canal for the United States, 321-322

Eccles, Rear Admiral Henry E., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1922)

Taught logistics at the Naval War College in the 1950s, 198

Edmondson, Edmond E.

As a member of the House of Representatives in the 1950s and 1960s, advocated Manson's "White Fleet" concept, 187-188, 191, 302-304

Eisenhower, President Dwight D. (USMA, 1915)

In the early 1950s was NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Europe, 73, 93 Served as President from 1953 to 1961, 73-74, 111-112, 192, 214

Eisenhower, Lieutenant Colonel John S. D., USAR (USMA, 1944)

In the late 1960s wrote a book titled Bitter Woods about the Battle of the Bulge, later became ambassador to Belgium, 350-352

Son David married Julie Nixon, daughter of future President Richard Nixon, 351-352

Eldorado, USS (AGC-11)

As flagship for Vice Admiral Richmond Kelly Turner, was the site of a press conference for Manson in April 1945, 19-21

Elizabeth II, Queen

In the early 1960s hosted a garden party in London that Manson and his wife attended, 270-272

Ellis, Vice Admiral William E., USN (USNA, 1930)

In the mid-1960s served as chief of staff to NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic, 295, 307-309, 312-313

In October 1967 told a reporter that the Soviet Navy was operating its first helicopter carrier, the Moskva, 307-309, 312-313

Enlisted Personnel

Crew members of the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) in World War II, 12-13, 18

In 1959 a young U.S. sailor in London had a very young wife, 225 In the late 1950s and early 1960s a number of U.S. enlisted men married British women, 282-283

F-4 Phantom II

Photo of an American F-4 fighter shadowing a Soviet Bear reconnaissance aircraft was released to the media as part of the 1964 NATO Exercise Team Work, 330-332, 335-336

Fairbanks, Captain Douglas E. Jr., USNR

Actor who introduced Manson and his wife to Princess Margaret and her husband at a garden party in London in the early 1960s, 271-272

Fascell, Representative Dante B.

In the early 1970s urged Manson to pursue inter-American relations, 357

Fechteler, Admiral William M., USN (USNA, 1916)

Served as Chief of Naval Operations, 1951-53, 26, 49-50

Felt, Admiral Harry Don, USN (USNA, 1923)

In the 1950s strongly favored carrier aircraft over seaplanes, 42, 132, 173 Intimidating personality as Vice Chief of Naval Operations, 1956-58, 171-173

Flatley, Vice Admiral James H., Jr., USN (USNA, 1929)

In the mid-1950s described his leadership techniques in commanding aircraft carriers, 143-144

Fleck, Lieutenant Commander Richard W., USN

Commanded Attack Squadron 115 (VA-115) during the Korean War, 63

Fluckey, Commander Eugene B., USN (USNA, 1935)

In the late 1940s provided material for an article in The Saturday Evening Post, 33-34

Food

Adjustments by the Manson family to food available in London in the late 1950s-early 1960s, 216-220

France

In the early 1950s contributed members to the staff of CinCSouth, NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe, 92

Question in 1954 on whether the United States should support the French military effort in Indochina, 114. 141-142

In the early 1960s, as U.S. ambassador to France, Lieutenant General James Galvin tried to persuade the U.S. Navy to provide nuclear power technology to France, 93-95

Franke, William B.

Served as Secretary of the Navy, 1959-61, 183-184

Gallery, Rear Admiral Daniel V. Jr., USN (USNA, 1921)

In the late 1940 headed the Navy's guided missile program, 42, 200 Was the author of humorous stories with Navy themes, 39, 279

Garrick Commander Robert M., USNR

Reserve officer who was recalled to active duty to provide public information support for the 1964 NATO Exercise Team Work, 327-328

Gates, Thomas S. Jr.

Served as Secretary of the Navy, 1957-59, 182-183

Gavin, Lieutenant General James M., USA (Ret.) (USMA, 1929)

In the early 1950s served as chief of staff to Commander in Chief, NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe (CinCSouth), 93

In the early 1960s, as U.S. ambassador to France, tried to persuade the U.S. Navy to provide nuclear power technology to France, 93-95

Great Britain

Adjustments by the Manson family to living conditions in London in the late 1950s-early 1960s, 216-224

In the late 1950s the U.S. Navy placed a marker in Yorkshire, England, to commemorate John Paul Jones's victory over the British in the 1779 Battle of Flamborough Head, 281-282

In the late 1950s and early 1960s a number of U.S. enlisted men married British women, 282-283

In 1961 the Navy deployed opened a support base for deployed Polaris submarines at Holy Loch, Scotland, 227-242

Impact on the British defense program when the Skybolt missile was cancelled in 1962, 242

Decline of the Royal Navy in the early 1960s, 250-251

Use of U.S. Marines as extras on British television in the early 1960s, 251-253

During the Cuban Missile Crisis in October 1962, 267-269

In the early 1960s Queen Elizabeth II hosted a garden party in London that Manson and his wife attended, 270-272

Unsuccessful discussions in the early 1960s on turning an American ship over to the British to implement Manson's "White Fleet" concept, 272

Headquarters in London for the NATO Exercise Team Work in the autumn of 1964, 327-336

Greece

In the early 1950s contributed members to the staff of CinCSouth, NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe, 73, 84-85, 87-88, 91-92

Groves, Major General Leslie R., USA

In the late 1940s had a dismissive view of naval power because of nuclear weapons, 203

Gunnery-Naval

Effect of U.S. naval gunfire support of troops in Korea in 1950, 67-68

Halsey, Admiral William F. Jr., USN (USNA, 1904)

As Commander Third Fleet in 1944-45, valued having Rear Admiral Robert Carney as his chief of staff, 74-75, 79-80, 114-115

Harlow, Bryce N.

In the late 1940s was on the staff of the House Armed Services Committee, 30 In the 1950s was a speechwriter for President Dwight Eisenhower, 111

Harrill, Rear Admiral William K., USN (USNA, 1914)

As Commander Task Group 58.4 in June 1944, was criticized by Rear Admiral Jocko Clark for lack of aggressiveness, 280-281

Harris, Lieutenant Commander Russell L., USNR

In the late 1940s was a coauthor of part of the Battle Report series on World War II, 35, 37, 261

In 1948 was one of the swordsmen at a Navy wedding in New York, 261-263

Heffernan, Rear Admiral John B., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1917)

Served as Director of Naval History from 1946 to 1956, 151, 154-155

Hogle, Rear Admiral Reynold D., USN (USNA, 1929)

In the mid-1960s was chief of staff to NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic, 337-340

Holloway, Vice Admiral James L., Jr., USN (USNA, 1919)

Served from 1953 to 1958 as Chief of Naval Personnel, 103-103, 181-182

Holovak, Lieutenant Charles, USN (USNA, 1939)

Served as executive officer of the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) in World War II, 10-11

Holy Loch, Scotland

In 1961 the Navy opened a support base for Polaris submarines at Holy Loch, 227-237

During the Cuban Missile Crisis in October 1962, 267-269

Holmes, Admiral Ephraim P., USN (USNA, 1930)

Served from 1967 to 1970 as NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic, 306-311

Hope, SS

Former Navy hospital ship Consolation (AH-15) that in 1958 became the centerpiece of a humanitarian organization, Project Hope, 193-194, 274

Hughes, USS (DD-410)

Badly damaged by a kamikaze hit in the Philippines in December 1944, 13-14

Huie, William Bradford

In the late 1940s wrote pro-Air Force, anti-Navy magazine articles and an anti-Navy book, 28-29, 203-204, 210

Humphrey, Hubert H.

As a senator in the late 1950s and early 1960s, advocated Manson's "White Fleet" concept, 162, 185, 187, 191, 273

Iberian-Atlantic Command (IberLant)

Established in Portugal in 1967 as part of NATO, 296-298

Inchon, South Korea

Site of a successful United Nations amphibious assault in September 1950, 49, 53-54

Indochina, French

Question in 1954 on whether the United States should support the French military effort in Indochina, 114, 141-142

Information, Navy Office of (Chinfo)

Activities in 1963-64, 284-286

Ingersoll, Vice Admiral Stuart H., USN (USNA, 1921)

While president of the Naval War College in the late 1950s, declined to present a medal to Manson, 199

Italy

In the early 1950s contributed members to the staff of CinCSouth, NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe, 73, 84-85, 87-92

Naples as the site of the headquarters for NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe in the early 1950s, 70-73, 84-92

Jackson, Senator Henry M.

In the mid-1960s arranged for the son of his law partner to work on the staff of NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic in Norfolk, 341-343

Japan

Kamikaze attacks on U.S. warships in 1944-45, 8, 12-16

U.S. Naval Forces Far East had headquarters in Tokyo during the Korean War, 65-66 Supplied commercial minesweepers to support U.S. efforts in Korea in 1950, 69

Jones, Captain John Paul, Continental Navy

In the late 1950s the U.S. Navy placed a marker in Yorkshire, England, to commemorate Jones's victory over the British in the 1779 Battle of Flamborough Head, 281-282

Joy, Vice Admiral C. Turner, USN (USNA, 1916)

Served as Commander U.S. Naval Forces Far East during the early stages of the Korean War, 65-66

Negotiations with North Koreans, 66-67

Kamikazes

Attacks on U.S. warships in 1944-45, 8, 13-20

Karig, Captain Walter, USNR

In the 1940s and 1950s wrote about naval history and worked in Navy public relations, 25, 28, 29-34, 39-40, 44, 50-51, 82, 121-123, 166, 200, 208-209, 260-261, 325-326, 347, 353

Kennedy, President John F.

During his administration in the early 1960s favored the idea of a multi-lateral naval force, 291-293

Establishment of the Peace Corps by his administration, 257

During the Cuban Missile Crisis in 1962, 266-269

Kerama Retto

Group of islands used as an anchorage and logistics base during the Okinawa campaign in 1945, 19-20

Kidd, Captain Isaac C. Jr., USN (USNA, 1942)

Capable officer who was executive assistant to Chief of Naval Operations David McDonald in the early 1960s, 317-319

Kimmel, Rear Admiral Husband E., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1904)

At the 1946 congressional hearings about the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941, 36-37

Kinkaid, Vice Admiral Thomas C., USN (USNA, 1908)

Post-World War II discontent on Admiral William Halsey's role in the 1944 Battle of Leyte Gulf, 35, 80

Kirkpatrick, Rear Admiral Charles C., USN (USNA, 1931)

Headed the Navy's Office of Information in the late 1950s, 164, 190-191, 256

Korea, North

Manson's assessment of it as an untrustworthy nation, 52-53 U.S. minesweeping operations at Wonsan in 1950, 59, 68-69, 154

United Nations armistice negotiations with North Koreans in 1950, 66-67

Korean War

As Secretary of State in January 1950, Dean Acheson made a speech in which he suggested the United States was not interested in Korean security, 152-153

Successful United Nations amphibious assault on Inchon, Korea, in September 1950, 49, 53-54

Paucity of medals for U.S. Navy personnel in the early stages of the war, 53-56

Role of the U.S. Army in the early stages of the Korean War, 56-57

Effect of U.S. aircraft during the early stages of the Korean War, 53, 63-64

Effect of naval gunfire support in 1950, 67-68

U.S. minesweeping operations at Wonsan in 1950, 59, 68-69, 154

Books published in the 1950s on the U.S. Navy's role in the war, 41, 50-70, 150-157

Kuczma, Julius E.

In the mid-1950s served as labor relations advisor on the staff of the Office of Naval Material, 160

Labor Unions

Cultivated in the mid-1950s by the OpNav Office of Progress Analysis, 160-162

Laffey, USS (DD-724)

Pre-deployment preparations and training in 1944, 7-12

Combat operations in the Pacific in 1944-45, 8, 12-23

Enlisted crew members in World War II, 12-13, 18

In November 1944, rescued a Japanese pilot from the ocean, and Manson interrogated him, 15-16

Survived a heavy attack by kamikazes in April 1945, 16-20

Post-attack repairs in Seattle in the summer of 1945, 22-23

Laning, Captain Richard B., USN (USNA, 1940)

Commanded the submarine tender Proteus (AS-19), which deployed to Holy Loch, Scotland, in 1961, 227-237

Latta-Lawrence, Captain Harold A. L., USNR

Staff officer for congressional liaison for Chief of Naval Operations Louis Denfeld in 1948, 260-261, 266

Involved in messy marriage and divorce, 1948-50, 261-266

Lederer, Captain William J., Jr., USN (USNA, 1936)

Navy public information officer who coauthored the influential 1958 book The Ugly American, 186-187

Leo, Stephen F.

Served as the first public relations director for the newly formed Air Force in the late 1940s, 28, 205

Libby, Rear Admiral Ruthven E., USN (USNA, 1922)

In the early 1950s Chief of Naval Operations Robert Carney considered him as a possible successor, 115, 127

Liberty, USS (AGTR-5)

Controversial attack on the ship by Israeli forces in June 1967, 313-315

Life Magazine

In July 1959, promoted Manson's "White Fleet" concept in a cover story, 187-194, 217, 272

London, England

Adjustments by the Manson family to living conditions in the city in the late 1950s-early 1960s, 216-224

In the early 1960s Queen Elizabeth II hosted a garden party in London that Manson and his wife attended, 270-272

Headquarters in London for the NATO Exercise Team Work in the autumn of 1964, 327-336

Long, Commander Robert L. J., USN (USNA, 1944)

In 1961 commanded the ballistic missile submarine Patrick Henry (SSBN-599) deployed to Holy Loch, Scotland, 233, 237-240

Lucas, Jim G.

Scripps-Howard newspaper reporter who wrote about Navy topics in the late 1940s, 200, 210-211

Lumpkin, Captain Pickett, USN

In 1968, as the Navy's Deputy Chief of Information, arranged for Manson to get a billet in the book and magazine section of the office of the Deputy Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs), 346-347

MacArthur, General of the Army Douglas, USA (USMA, 1903)

Commanded the successful United Nations amphibious assault on Inchon, Korea, in September 1950, 49, 57

Manson, Captain Frank A. USN (Ret.)

Parents, 1

Wife Lee, 33, 63, 217-219, 221, 261, 263, 270-272, 337-338, 345

Children, 63, 130, 157-158, 169, 174, 201-202, 217-219, 221, 258, 345

Boyhood in Oklahoma in the 1920s and 1930, 1

Graduated from Northeastern State Teachers' College in Oklahoma in 1941 and began his civilian employment, 1-2

Joined the Naval Reserve in 1942 and went through the naval training school at Ithaca, New York, 2-3

In 1943-44 was part of the staff of the Boston Representative of Commander Destroyers Atlantic Fleet, 4-7

Served in the crew of the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) in 1944-45, 7-25

Shortly after World War II was selected as a public information specialist and augmented into the regular Navy, 39-40

Served in the late 1940s on the Secretary of the Navy's Committee on Research on Reorganization (SCOROR) and participated in the writing of volumes of Battle Report about the Navy's combat operations in World War II, 27-38

In the late 1940s-early 1950s served as speechwriter to CNOs Louis Denfeld and Forrest Sherman, 38, 44-50, 56, 82-84, 200-211, 260-266

From 1951 to 1953 was historian at the foundation of NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe (CinCSouth), 70-75, 84-95

From 1953 to 1956 served as speechwriter for two Chiefs of Naval Operations, Robert Carney and Arleigh Burke, 75-80, 95-110, 171-173

Served from 1956 to 1958 as head of Plans and Policies Analysis, Office of Progress Analysis, in OpNav, 107, 147-148, 157-165, 169-170, 173-184

Coauthor, with Commander Malcolm Cagle of the 1957 book The Sea War in Korea, 38, 150-157

As a student at the Naval War College, 1958-59, 149, 184-190

In 1959 Life magazine published a cover story on his "White Fleet" concept, 187-194, 217, 272

From 1959 to 1963 served as public information officer for CinCNELM in London, 167-168, 214-259, 266-284

In 1963-64 served in the Navy's Office of Information (Chinfo), 284-293

Served 1964-68 as public affairs officer for NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic (SACLant), 166-167, 293-330

In the 1960s operated a marina and seafood restaurant in the Norfolk area, 345-346 In 1968 headed the book and magazine section of the office of the Deputy Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs), 346-355

Post-retirement activities in the foreign relations field on behalf of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, 355-359

Margaret, HRH Princess

Recently married and pregnant, the British princess met the Mansons at a garden party in London in the early 1960s, 271-272

Marine Corps, U.S.

Use of U.S. Marines as extras on British television in the early 1960s, 251-253

Maritime Commission, U.S.

In the early 1960s argued against turning an American ship over to Britain to implement Manson's "white fleet" concept, 273-274

Martin, Vice Admiral William I., USN (USNA, 1934)

In 1956-57 served as CNO Arleigh Burke's executive assistant, 140

From 1964 to 1967, while on the OpNav staff, asked Manson to come to Washington to evaluate the Navy's role in the Vietnam War, 300-301

Served 1967-70 as Deputy Commander in Chief Atlantic Fleet, 305-306

Matthews, Francis P.

Served as Secretary of the Navy 1949-51, fired CNO Louis Denfeld, 31, 82-83, 183, 325-326

McCain, Admiral John S. Jr., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1931)

Wife Roberta, 174-175

Working style and personality, 127, 173-182, 325

From 1955 to 1957 headed the Office of Progress Analysis in OpNav, OP-09D, 140, 157, 159-164, 169-170, 173-184

In 1957 was part of a barnstorming tour to promote the Navy League and sea power, 157-158

Received a fake reprimand from CNO Arleigh Burke for exceeding authority, 164 Attention-getting outfit when he played tennis in England in the early 1960s, 258-259

Served 1962-63 as the Navy's Chief of Information, 284-290

In the late 1960s advised Manson to work for the Veterans of Foreign Wars, 355-356 In the late 1970 hosted a group of senior officers who sought to retain the Panama Canal for the United States, 320-321

McDonald, Admiral David L., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1928)

Working style and priorities during his tenure as Chief of Naval Operations from 1963 to 1967, 316-320

In the late 1970s, after he was retired, declined to sign a letter in favor of keeping the Panama Canal for the United States, 320-322

McLean, Rear Admiral Heber H., USN (USNA, 1921)

Unpleasant encounter with Vice Admiral Arthur D. Struble while serving in OP-03 in the late 1940s, 58

Medical Problems

Methods of combating venereal disease on board aircraft carriers in the 1950s, 143-145

Former child movie star Shirley Temple had an infection following the delivery of her baby in the naval hospital in Bethesda, Maryland, in the late 1940s, 353

Mehle, Captain Roger W., Jr., USN (USNA, 1937)

Fiery individual who was deputy to CinCNELM in London in the early 1960s, 245-246

Mendenhall, Captain Ferdinand, USNR

Reserve officer who was recalled to active duty to provide public information support for the 1964 NATO Exercise Team Work, 327

Menocal, Captain George L., USN (USNA, 1922)

In 1943-44 served as Administrative Commander Destroyer Squadron 27/Boston Representative of Commander Destroyers Atlantic Fleet, 4-7, 27

Mereness, Captain Robert H., USN

In the mid-1960s served as public affairs officer for Commander in Chief U.S. Naval Forces Europe, 335

Middle East Force, U.S.

Token U.S. presence in the Persian Gulf in the early 1960s, 224-225

Miller, Rear Admiral George H., USN (USNA, 1933)

In the 1950s and 1960s was involved in strategic planning on the OpNav staff, 75-77, 103, 140, 180, 305

Miller, Captain Gerald E., USN (USNA, 1942)

Served in the mid-1960s as executive assistant to Vice Chief of Naval Operations Horacio Rivero, 304-305

Miller, Captain Henry L., USN (USNA, 1934)

In 1957 was part of a barnstorming tour to promote the Navy League and sea power, 157

Delivered modified sea power presentations in the mid-1950s, 165, 184

Mine Warfare

U.S. minesweeping operations at Wonsan, North Korea, in 1950, 59, 68-69, 154

Missiles

The decision to support the Polaris ballistic missile program in the mid-1950s killed the Regulus program and delayed the development of cruise missiles in the U.S. Navy, 101-103

Missouri, USS (BB-63)

Served as flagship for Commander Seventh Fleet during the early stages of the Korean War, 54-55, 61-62

Mitscher, Vice Admiral Marc A., USN (USNA, 1910)

Commanded Task Force 58 in the Pacific in 1944-45, 133-134

Mohammed V

Moroccan King's interaction with Americans in the early 1960s, 254

Momsen, Rear Admiral Charles B., USN (USNA, 1920)

In the late 1940s, as Assistant Chief of Naval Operations for Submarine Warfare, dealt with the news media, 201

Montgomery, Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. British Army

NATO Deputy Supreme Allied Commander Europe in the early 1950s, 71-72, 292

Montgomery, Robert

Movie actor and Naval Reservist who did publicity work on behalf of the Navy in the late 1940s, 210-211

Moorer, Admiral Thomas H., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1933)

Served from 1965 to 1967 as NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic (SACLant), 297-298, 306-310, 313-315, 348

In the late 1960s advised Manson to work for the Veterans of Foreign Wars, 355-356 In the late 1970s was part of a group of senior officers who sought to retain the Panama Canal for the United States, 321-322

Morison, Rear Admiral Samuel Eliot, USNR (Ret.)

Supervised the writing of the 15-volume History of United States_Naval Operations in World War II, 6, 37-39

Morocco

Interaction between the U.S. Navy and Moroccans at Port Lyautey in the early 1960s, 242-243, 254-255

Agadir was the site of a devastating earthquake in February 1960, 253-254

Moskva (Soviet Cruiser)

Reporter William Beecher broke the story in October 1967 that the Soviet Navy was operating its first helicopter carrier, the Moskva, 307-309, 312-313

Mountbatten, Admiral of the Fleet, Lord Louis, Royal Navy

In the mid-1950s avoided taking a ride in a P6M seaplane while visiting CNO Arleigh Burke, 131-132

Mount McKinley (AGC-7)

Flagship of Rear Admiral James Doyle in 1950, during the Korean War, 53-54

Multi-Lateral Force

Concept that evolved in the 1960s from widespread distribution of nuclear weapons to mixed-nation manning of ships, 290-293

Murrow, Edward R.

As head of the U.S. Information Agency in the early 1960s, was interested in Manson's "White Fleet" concept, 274

Naples, Italy

Site of the headquarters for NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe in the early 1950s, 70-73, 84-90

National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Maryland

Former child movie star Shirley Temple had an infection following the delivery of her baby in the hospital in the late 1940s, 353

National Security Council

Limited role in the mid-1950s, 116

Naval Forces Far East, U.S.

Commanded U.S. naval forces in the Korean War from headquarters in Tokyo, Japan, 65-66

Naval History Division, Washington, D.C.

Reluctant to make historical documents available to authors in the mid-1950s, 151-155

Naval Institute, U.S.

In 1957 published the Cagle-Manson book Sea War in Korea, 151-157

Naval Reserve, U.S.

In 1964 a number of reserve officers were recalled to active duty to provide public information support for NATO Exercise Team Work, 327-338

Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island

Admiral Richard L. Conolly in 1950 was downgraded from four stars to three when he became president of the college, 44-45

Manson spent his year there, 1958-59, developing his concept of a peaceful "White Fleet," 184-194

Curriculum for students in the late 1950s, 195-199

Navy League

In the early 1950s Chief of Naval Operations Robert Carney challenged the organization to take a more active role in supporting the Navy, 120

In 1957 several senior officers made a barnstorming tour to promote the Navy League and sea power, 157-158

Cultivated in the mid-1950s by the OpNav Office of Progress Analysis, 163

News Media

The amphibious force flagship Eldorado (AGC-11) was the site of a press conference for Manson in April 1945, 19-20

In the late 1940s journalist William Bradford Huie wrote pro-Air Force, anti-Navy works, 28-29, 203, 210

In the late 1940s various newspapers covered the controversial marriage of Naval Reserve Captain Harold Latta-Lawrence, 262-263

Story in The Washington Post in 1950 about Admiral Richard Conolly changing duty to become president of the Naval War College, 44-45

Coverage in the mid-1950s by The New York Times of a speech by Chief of Naval Operations Robert Carney, 110-111

In 1955 Collier's magazine published a cover story on new CNO Arleigh Burke, 121-124

Manson's relationships with media representatives over the years, 121-124, 165-169, 187-190, 200-216, 227-237, 251-253, 264, 267-269, 278-279, 291, 307-309, 329-330 In July 1959, Life magazine promoted Manson's "White Fleet" concept in a cover story, 187-194, 217, 272

Around 1966 planned NATO athletic events in the Norfolk area were cancelled because of a reporter's story that claimed falsely there would be racial segregation, 166-167

Reporter William Beecher of The New York Times broke the story in October 1967 that the Soviet Navy was operating its first helicopter carrier, the Moskva, 307-309, 312-313

Coverage of the 1964 NATO Exercise Team Work, 329-338

New York Times, The

Hanson W. Baldwin served for many years as military editor for the newspaper, 207 In 1948 covered the society wedding of Captain Harold A. L. Latta-Lawrence, 262 In 1958 published material on humanitarian Project Hope, 193

Reporter William Beecher broke the story in October 1967 that the Soviet Navy was operating its first helicopter carrier, the Moskva, 307-309, 312-313

Nimitz, Fleet Admiral Chester W., USN (USNA, 1905)

As Chief of Naval Operations after World War II, provided guidance to Manson on the writing of the Battle Report books about the war, 34-35 Advice to Manson on the staying power of the Navy, 176

Norfolk, Virginia

Site of the annual Azalea Festival in the 1960s, 341-342

Around 1966 planned NATO athletic events in the Norfolk area were cancelled because of a reporter's story that claimed falsely there would be racial segregation, 166-167

Socializing in the mid-1960s among senior officers stationed in the area, 342 In the 1960s Manson and his family operated a marina and seafood restaurant in the Norfolk area, 345-346

Norman, Lloyd

Washington Times-Herald and Chicago Tribune reporter whom Manson found he had to be wary of when discussing Navy business in the late 1940s, 211, 264

Norris, Captain John G., USNR

Washington Post reporter who also provided public affairs support for the 1964 NATO Exercise Team Work, 336

North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO)

Formation of NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe, 1951-53, 70-72, 84-90 Annual exercises in the 1960s, 257-258, 294-297, 326-338

The multi-lateral force concept evolved in the 1960s from widespread distribution of nuclear weapons to mixed-nation manning of ships, 290-293

Nuclear Propulsion

In the early 1950s Chief of Naval Operations Robert Carney and Vice Chief Donald Duncan differed on the issue of nuclear power for U.S. surface warships, 75-76, 103 Plan in the mid-1950s to equip the P6M SeaMaster seaplane with nuclear power, 100-101

Relationship in the 1950s between individuals in the nuclear power program and the Chiefs of Naval Operations, 105-109

In the early 1960s Vice Admiral Hyman Rickover balked at providing nuclear power technology to France, 93-95

Reactor events on board the ballistic missile submarine Patrick Henry (SSBN-599) in 1961, 239-241

Nuclear Weapons

In the late 1940s Major General Leslie Groves had a dismissive view of naval power because of nuclear weapons, 203

Debate in 1954 on whether the United States should support the French in Indochina with nuclear weapons, 114

Lieutenant Commander Marsden Perry made films in the mid-1950s on behalf of the OpNav Office of Progress Analysis, but they couldn't be shown because of nuclear weapons content, 177-178

In 1961 the Navy opened a support base for deployed Polaris missile submarines at Holy Loch, Scotland, 227-230

During the Cuban Missile Crisis in October 1962, 267-269

The Multi-Lateral Force concept evolved in the 1960s from widespread distribution of nuclear weapons to mixed-nation manning of ships, 290-291

Nunn, Rear Admiral Ira H., USN (USNA, 1924)

In the mid-1950s headed the Navy's office of legislative liaison, 164

Office of Management and Budget (OMB)

Lackluster reception in the mid-1960s to Manson's "White Fleet" concept, 287-288

Okinawa

The destroyer Laffey (DD-724) survived a heavy attack by kamikazes in April 1945, 16-20

Olav V, King

Norwegian monarch who visited the SACLant headquarters in Norfolk in the mid-1960s, 295

OP-09D (Office of Progress Analysis in OpNav)

Promotion of the Navy and sea power in the mid-1950s, 157-165, 169-182

OP-23 (Assistant CNO for Operational Research and Policy)

Role in the late 1940s in the inter-service battles over unification, 29-32, 210-211

Ormoc Bay, Philippine Islands

Kamikaze attacks on U.S. warships in December 1944, 8-9, 13, 58

P6M SeaMaster

Plan in the 1950s to equip this seaplane with nuclear power, 100-101 In 1955 the prototype crashed not long after Admiral Arleigh Burke and Admiral of the Fleet Louis Mountbatten avoided taking a flight, 131

Panama Canal

Debates in the late 1970s on whether to turn the canal over to the nation of Panama, 320-322

Patrick Henry, USS (SSBN-599)

In March 1961 became the first Polaris missile submarine to deploy to Holy Loch, Scotland, 233, 235, 237-241

Pearl Harbor, Oahu, Hawaii

Congressional hearings in 1946 on the 1941 Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, 33-34

Pearson, Andrew

Muckraking newspaper columnist in the late 1940s, 205-206, 274

Peet, Commander Raymond E., USN (USNA, 1943)

In the late 1950s served as aide to Chief of Naval Operations Arleigh Burke, 109, 117, 190

Perry, Lieutenant Commander Marsden J., USNR

Made films in the mid-1950s on behalf of the OpNav Office of Progress Analysis, but they couldn't be shown because of nuclear weapons content, 177-178

Philippine Islands

Kamikaze attacks on U.S. warships 1944, 8, 13-14

Philippine Sea, USS (CV-47)

Launched air strikes in 1950, during the Korean War, 63-64 Deck crash and fire in December 1950, 64

Phillips, Robert H.

In 1955 shot photos of new CNO Arleigh Burke for a cover story in Collier's magazine, 121-124

Photography

In 1955 Collier's magazine published a cover photograph of new CNO Arleigh Burke, 121-124

Photo of an American F-4 fighter shadowing a Soviet Bear reconnaissance aircraft was released to the media as part of the 1964 NATO Exercise Team Work, 330-332, 335-336

Pickett, Captain Ben B., USN (USNA, 1938)

Involvement in setting up a specified command in connection with CinCNELM in London in the early 1960s, 247-248

Pillsbury, Commander John D., USNR

In the late 1950s headed the public information program at CinCNELM in London, 225-226

Pineau, Lieutenant Roger, USNR

Was involved in the research and writing of the 15-volume History of United States Naval Operations in World War II, 38-39

Polaris Missile Program

The decision to support the Polaris ballistic missile program in the mid-1950s killed the Regulus program and delayed the development of cruise missiles in the U.S. Navy, 103

In 1961 the Navy opened a support base for deployed Polaris submarines at Holy Loch, Scotland, 227-237

Submarines at Holy Loch during the Cuban Missile Crisis in October 1962, 267-269

Port Lyautey, Morocco, Naval Air Station

Operations in the early 1960s, 224, 242-243

Portugal

NATO established the Iberian-Atlantic Command (IberLant) in 1967, 296-298

Pride, Admiral Alfred Melville, USN (Ret.)

Personality of this genial former enlisted man who became a flag officer, 279

Prisoners of War

In November 1944, the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) rescued a Japanese pilot from the ocean, and Manson interrogated him, 15-16

Project Hope

Founded in 1958 with a former Navy hospital ship, Consolation (AH-15), 193-194

Proteus, USS (AS-19)

Submarine tender that deployed to Holy Loch Scotland, in 1961 to support Polaris missile submarines, 227-237

During the Cuban Missile Crisis in October 1962, 267-269

Public Relations

Shortly after World War II the Navy created a new restricted line specialty, the public information officer, 42-43

Promotion of the Navy and sea power in the mid-1950s by the OpNav Office of Progress Analysis, 107, 147-148, 157-165, 169-170, 173-182

In 1957 several senior officers made a barnstorming tour to promote the Navy League and sea power, 157-158

On behalf of CinCNELM in London in the early 1960s, 249-253

The Navy provided media access and releases to the news media during the 1964 NATO Exercise Team Work, 329-336

Pueblo, USS (AGER-2)

Intelligence ship seized by North Korea in 1968, 354

Raborn, Rear Admiral William F., Jr., USN (USNA, 1928)

Headed the Polaris ballistic missile program in the 1950s, 106

Racial Issues

Around 1966 planned NATO athletic events in the Norfolk area were cancelled because of a reporter's story that claimed falsely there would be racial segregation, 166-167

Radford, Admiral Arthur W., USN (USNA, 1916)

Served 1953-57 as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, 73-74, 97, 111, 114-115, 128

Reck, Lieutenant Henry D., USNR

Was involved in the research and writing of the 15-volume History of United States Naval Operations in World War II, 6, 39

Regulus Missiles

The decision to support the Polaris ballistic missile program in the mid-1950s killed the Regulus program and delayed the development of cruise missiles in the U.S. Navy, 103

Rhodesia

In the 1970s Manson visited the nation to try to further its relations with the United States, 359

Ricketts, Admiral Claude V., USN (USNA, 1929)

Personality, 286-287

As Commander Second Fleet in April 1961, was disappointed that the U.S. Navy did not intervene in the invasion of the Bay of Pigs, Cuba, 269-270

Served 1961 to 1964 as Vice Chief of Naval Operations, 285-293, 318-320, 324

Rickover, Vice Admiral Hyman G., USN (USNA, 1922)

Sparse eating habits, 105-106

Relationship with CNOs Robert Carney and Arleigh Burke in the 1950s, 105-108 In the early 1960s balked at providing nuclear power technology to France, 93-94 In 1957 got Lieutenant Commander George Steele to be detached from the OpNav Office of Progress Analysis in one day, 162

Rivero, Admiral Horacio Jr., USN (USNA, 1931)

Served 1964-68 as Vice Chief of Naval Operations, 289-290, 301-305, 320

Rogers, Edith Nourse

Congresswoman who was wrongly accused in the late 1940s of being involved in a messy marriage scandal, 261-263

Roskill, Captain Stephen W., Royal Navy (Ret.)

Respected British historian whom Manson met in the early 1960s, 250. 275-277, 291

Royal Navy

Decline of in the early 1960s, 250-251

Participation in the 1954 NATO Exercise Team Work, 329-336

Runk, Lieutenant Theodore W., USNR

Service on board the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) in World War II, 20-21

Russell, Rear Admiral James S., USN (USNA, 1926)

In the mid-1950s, as Chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics, opposed nuclear-powered seaplanes, 101

Saloman, Lieutenant Commander Henry, USNR

Was involved in the research and writing of the 15-volume History of United States Naval Operations in World War II, 38-39

Satellites

In the mid-1960s NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic sent the first message via the new Telstar satellite, 309-310

SCOROR

Role of the Secretary's Committee on Research on Reorganization during the interservice unification squabbles in the late 1940s, 27-33 Later became OP-23, 29

Scotland

In 1961 the Navy opened a support base for deployed Polaris submarines at Holy Loch, 227-237

Dunoon was a shopping and liberty location for crew members of Polaris missile submarines deployed to Holy Loch in 1961, 236-237

Events at Holy Loch during the Cuban Missile Crisis in October 1962, 267-269

Shaw, Commander James C., USN (USNA, 1936)

Was involved in the research and writing of the 15-volume History of United States Naval Operations in World War II, 38-39, 154-156

Shear, Commander Harold E., USN (USNA, 1942)

In 1961 commanded the ballistic missile submarine Patrick Henry (SSBN-599) deployed to Holy Loch, Scotland, 233, 237-238

Sheets, Ensign Jerome B., USNR

Service on board the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) in World War II, 10

Shepley, James R.

In 1959, as head of Time magazine's Washington bureau, spearheaded the publication of Manson's "White Fleet" concept in Life magazine, 188-194

Sherman, Admiral Forrest P., USN (USNA, 1918)

Demonstrated intellectual brilliance while serving as Chief of Naval Operations from 1949 until his death in 1951, 44-50, 56, 83-84, 326

Sherrod, Robert L.

Journalist who covered inter-service battles in the late 1940s and later wrote a book about Marine aviation in World War II, 207-209

Shetler, Dwight

Engineer who advocated ballistic missiles for the Navy in the mid-1950s, 102

Ship Handling

On board the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) in the Pacific in 1944-45, 8, 16

Skybolt Missile

Impact on the British defense program when the missile was cancelled in 1962, 242

Smedberg, William R. III, Rear Admiral, USN (USNA, 1926)

Served from 1953 to 1956 as director of the Politico-Military Policy Division of OpNav, 133, 136-137

Smith, Admiral Harold Page, USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1924)

Served as CinCNELM in London, 1960-63, 167-169, 228-231, 242-248, 254-256, 266-269, 271

In the early 1960s was the recipient of a gag order from the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs), 167-169

At CinCNELM headquarters in London while the crisis was taking place in October 1962, 266-269

Served 1963-65 as NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic (SACLant), 315, 327, 330, 333-334, 338

Solomon, Captain Bernard S., USNR

In the mid-1960s was public affairs officer for Commander in Chief Atlantic Fleet, 346

South Africa, Republic of

In the 1970s Manson visited the nation to try to further its relations with the United States, 357-358

Soviet Navy

New York Times reporter William Beecher broke the story in October 1967 that the Soviet Navy was operating its first helicopter carrier, the Moskva, 307-309, 312-313 A Soviet trawler shadowed American ships during the 1964 NATO Exercise Team Work, 332

Soviet Union

Frequent topic of speeches by Chief of Naval Operations Robert Carney in the early 1950s, 105

Photo of an American F-4 fighter shadowing a Soviet Bear reconnaissance aircraft was released to the media as part of the 1964 NATO Exercise Team Work, 330-332, 335-336

Spaak, Paul-Henri

Served 1957-61 as Secretary General of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, 91, 194, 256

Spain

Relationship with CinCNELM in the early 1960s, 255

Sparrow, Colonel Herbert G., USA (USMA, 1933)

In the early 1950s was a secretary of staff for NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe, 92-93

Stark, Admiral Harold R., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1903)

At the 1946 congressional hearings about the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941, 36-37

State Department

Controversy in the mid-1950s over a speech made by Chief of Naval Operations Robert Carney, 110-111

Steele, Lieutenant Commander George P. II, USN (USNA, 1945)

In 1957 served briefly in the Office of Progress Analysis, in OpNav, 107, 162

Struble, Vice Admiral Arthur D., USN (USNA, 1915)

Amphibious command in the Philippines in 1944, 58

Served as Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Operations), OP-03, 1948-50, 58

Commanded the Seventh Fleet during the early stages of the Korean War, 54-59, 69

Stump, Admiral Felix B., USN (USNA, 1917)

Served as Commander in Chief and Commander in Chief Pacific Fleet from 1953 to 1958, 141

Sullivan, John L.

Resigned as Secretary of the Navy in 1949 during the inter-service unification squabble, 30-31, 129

Supreme Allied Command Atlantic (SACLant)

Imaginative ideas in the mid-1960s from Rear Admiral Richard Colbert, a member of the staff, 293-294

Held annual exercises in the mid-1960s, 294-295

Ran the Wide-ranging NATO operational exercise Team Work in Western Europe and adjacent waters in the autumn of 1964, 326-338

Around 1966 planned NATO athletic events were cancelled because of a reporter's story that claimed falsely there would be racial segregation, 166-167

Public relations promotion of the command in the mid-1960s, 339-341

Various activities in the mid-1960s, 339-345

Sylvester, Arthur J.

In the early 1960s, as Assistant Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs), issued a gag order to Admiral Harold Page Smith, 167-168

Symington, W. Stuart

As Secretary of the Air Force, role in the late 1940s inter-service unification squabble, 28-30, 183, 205

Tu-95 Bear (Soviet Bomber)

Photo of an American F-4 fighter shadowing a Soviet Bear reconnaissance aircraft was released to the media as part of the 1964 NATO Exercise Team Work, 330-332, 335-336

Team Work, Exercise

Wide-ranging NATO operational exercise in Western Europe and adjacent waters in the autumn of 1964, 326-338

Telstar

In the mid-1960s NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic sent the first message via the new Telstar satellite, 309-311

Temple, Shirley

Former child movie star had an infection following the delivery of her baby in the naval hospital in Bethesda, Maryland, in the late 1940s, 353

Thach, Captain John S., USN (USNA, 1927)

Commanded the escort carrier Sicily (CVE-118) during the early stages of the Korean War, 60-61

Thomas, Charles S.

As Secretary of the Navy in 1955, selected Admiral Arleigh Burke as the new Chief of Naval Operations, rather than reappointing Admiral Robert Carney, 78-79, 95, 97-100, 111-112, 128

In the mid-1950s favored the idea of a nuclear-powered seaplane, 100

Tokyo, Japan

U.S. Naval Forces Far East had headquarters in Tokyo during the Korean War, 65-66

Tonkin Gulf Incident

Controversy about attacks on U.S. destroyers in Tonkin Gulf in August 1964, 347-348

Trahan, Commander Paul K.

Served as Seventh Fleet public affairs officer in the mid-1960s, 347-348

Turkey

In the early 1950s contributed members to the staff of CinCSouth, NATO's Allied Forces Southern Europe, 73, 84-85, 91-92

Turner, Vice Admiral Richmond K., USN (USNA, 1908)

Commanded amphibious forces during the invasion of Okinawa in 1945, 19-21

Turner, Lieutenant Stansfield, USN (USNA, 1947)

In the mid-1950s provided advice to CNO Arleigh Burke and his staff about junior officers, 133

Unification

Inter-service battles in the late 1940s on the unification of the U.S. armed services, 27-33

VW-2Q Super Constellation

Crashed in Germany with the loss of all 26 crew members on 22 May 1962, 214-216

Venereal Disease

Methods of combating VD on board aircraft carriers in the 1950s, 143-145

Veterans of Foreign Wars

Manson's post-Navy activities on behalf of the organization in the area of foreign relations, 355-359

Vietnam War

Controversy about attacks on U.S. destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin in August 1964, 347-348

In the mid-1960s, while on temporary duty in Washington, Manson evaluated the Navy's role in the ongoing war, 300-305

Controversy about attacks on U.S. destroyers in Tonkin Gulf in August 1964, 347-348

Walley, Commander David M., USN

Aeronautical engineering duty officer who in the 1950s sought to equip the P6M SeaMaster seaplane with nuclear power, 100-101

Walsh, Dr. William

Civilian doctor who founded Project Hope in 1958 and persuaded the Navy to donate a hospital ship, 193-194, 274

Ward, Rear Admiral Norvell G., USN (USNA, 1935)

In the early 1960s commanded Submarine Squadron 14, the first with Polaris submarines, 230-237

In the mid-1960s worked on the proposal for a multi-lateral nuclear force, 291-292

War Games

At the Naval War College in the late 1950s, 196

Waters, Commander Odale D., Jr., USN (USNA, 1932)

Commanded the destroyer Laffey (DD-724) in 1945-46, 22-23

Watson, Mark

Baltimore Sun reporter who in the early 1960s asked fellow newsmen not to reveal that Admiral Harold Page Smith was under a gag order, 167-169, 200

Weschler, Commander Thomas R., USN (USNA, 1939)

In the mid-1950s served as personal aide to the Chief of Naval Operations, Admiral Arleigh Burke, 102, 109, 121-124, 131

Wettern, Desmond

British naval journalist who became a friend of the Manson family in the late 1950s-early 1960s, 291, 336

"White Fleet" Concept

In his year at the Naval War College, 1958-59, Manson developed the idea of using a separate group of Navy ships for humanitarian purposes, 184-190

In July 1959, Life magazine promoted the idea in a cover story, 187-194, 217, 272 Ongoing interest after the article appeared, 197, 255-256, 272-273, 287-289, 294, 302-304

Unsuccessful discussions in the early 1960s on turning an American ship over to the British to implement Manson's concept, 272

Manson's work with Vice Chief of Naval Operations Claude Ricketts in 1963-64 to try to bring the concept into being, 287-289

Manson rejected the Central Intelligence Agency as a possible source of support for the "White Fleet" concept in the early 1960s, 197, 294

Wilkinson, J. Burke

In the mid-1950s served as Deputy Assistant Secretary of State, 110-111

Williams, Commander Ralph E., Supply Corps, USN

In the mid-1950s served as speechwriter for Chief of Naval Operations Arleigh Burke, 159

Wonsan, North Korea

Site of U.S. minesweeping operations in 1950, 59, 68-69, 154

Wouk, Herman

Wrote the Navy novel The Caine Mutiny, published in 1951 and made into a movie in 1954, 25-26

Wrangell, USS (AE-12)

Hijinks on board when Cooper Bright commanded the ship, 1956-58, 146

Yamato (Japanese Battleship)

Sunk by U.S. aircraft during her sortie toward Okinawa in April 1945, 24

Yeager, Rear Admiral Howard A., USN (USNA, 1927)

Served in the late 1940s as administrative aide to Chief of Naval Operations Louis Denfeld, 82, 261

In the early 1960s was involved in annual NATO exercises, 257-258

Zumwalt, Admiral Elmo R. Jr., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1943)

Manson's assessments of over various facets of Zumwalt's career, 322-326, 360