

Index to the Oral History of Admiral James M. Loy, U.S. Coast Guard (Retired)

Absecon, USCGC (WAVP-374)

Enlisted personnel on board in the mid-1960s, 73-75, 81-82, 86-90
Operations in the Atlantic in the mid-1960s, 74-95
Norfolk homeport, 77, 93-94
Ship handling, 77-80, 92
Weather observation and reporting during ocean station patrols in the Atlantic in the mid-1960s, 77-80
Refresher training for the crew at Guantánamo Bay, Cuba, in the mid-1960s, 81-83, 86-87
Turned over to the South Vietnamese Navy in 1972 and abandoned to North Vietnamese in 1975, 83-84
Reunion of former crew members in 2002, 83

Aids to Navigation

Coast Guard river tender operations in mid-America in the early 1990s, 392-394

Air Force, U.S.

In August 1966 Air Force planes mistakenly strafed and bombed the Coast Guard patrol boat Point Welcome (WPB-82329) near Vietnam's demilitarized zone, 120-121, 128, 139
Base facilities at Camranh Bay, South Vietnam, in the mid-1960s, 129-130
Suggestion in the 1970s that the service develop stealth aircraft, 503
Reluctantly flew Loy and members of his staff from Iceland to Washington around 2000, 601-604

Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colorado

Attitude in the 1980s about integrating women into the student body, 268

Alameda, California

In the 1980s served as homeport for four 378-foot Coast Guard cutters, 297-298

Alaska

Coast Guard Alaska patrols in the mid-1980s, 453-454
In March 1989 the commercial tanker Exxon Valdez ran aground at Valdez and created an oil spill that required a massive cleanup effort, 315-316, 319-328, 403

Alcohol

In the mid-1960s, while on duty in the Vietnam War, a crew member of the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) used alcohol to unwind, 116-117
In the early 1990s, as Commander Eighth Coast Guard District, Loy hosted a party in New Orleans that sorely taxed his liquor supply, 381

Alex Haley, USCGC (WMEC-39)

Cutter commissioned in July 1999 to honor the author of Roots, 505-506

Allen, Commander Nicholas H., USCG (USCGA, 1963)

In the early 1980s served in the Officer Personnel Division of Coast Guard Headquarters, 264-265

In the early 2000s served as Commander Atlantic Area, 609-610

Allen, Admiral Thad W., USCG (USCGA, 1971)

In the late 1990s served as resource director in Coast Guard Headquarters, 470-476, 497, 513

Served 2002-06 as Coast Guard Chief of Staff, 614

Served as Coast Guard Commandant, 2006-10, 513, 521-522

America, USS (CVA-66)

Challenged by the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) when entering Guantánamo Bay, Cuba, in 1965, 82

Antarctica

Incident involved Navy and Coast Guard captains and a penguin in the mid-1960s, 231-232

Antisubmarine Warfare

Training for the crew of the high endurance cutter Midgett (WHEC-726) in 1985, 292-296

Army, U.S.

Until the mid-1960s the Army maintained a base on Governors Island in New York, 438

Supplied O-1 Bird Dog aircraft for gunfire spotting in Vietnam in 1966-67, 138

The Corps of Engineers built the New Orleans levee system that failed during Hurricane Katrina in 2005, 390

Atlantic Area Command, U.S. Coast Guard

Role in the late 1980s in the war on drugs, 372-377

Operations in the mid-1990s, 418-465

Haitian-Cuban refugee crisis in 1994, 419-427, 431-432

Fleet maintenance program in the mid-1990s, 427-430

Coordination of the commanders of the various districts within the area in the mid-1990s, 432-433, 461-462

Command headquarters based on Governors Island in New York in the mid-1990s, 433-436

In 1997 the Coast Guard moved its Atlantic Area Command from New York to Norfolk, 435-436, 463-465, 489

Baker, Captain Alan T. “Blues,” Chaplain Corps, USN

From 1995 to 1998 served as chaplain for Coast Guard commands in the New York City area, 463-465

Ballard, Ensign Fletcher M., USCGR

In the mid-1960s served as executive officer of the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) in the Vietnam War, 118-119, 125-126, 133-134, 142, 144

Basketball

Loy played as a youth in Pennsylvania, 1940s-1950s, 2, 4-6, 8-9, 14-16

At the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 9, 20-22, 27-28, 53-57, 68, 91, 183

Unauthorized watching of the telecast of the National Invitational Tournament by Coast Guard Academy cadets in 1964, 43-44

Loy helped coach the Coast Guard Academy team in the early 1970s, 56, 171-172, 178-183

The team from the high endurance cutter Midgett (WHEC-726) won a Navy tournament in the mid-1980s, 182

Bechtel, Ensign William Douglas, USCG (USCGA, 1963)

In the mid-1960s served as a junior officer in the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374), 93-95

Bell, Lieutenant (junior grade) Ross, USCG (USCGA, 1965)

In August 1966 was executive officer of the Coast Guard patrol boat Point Welcome (WPB-82329) when Air Force planes mistakenly strafed and bombed it off the Coast of Vietnam, 120, 281

Benkert, Rear Admiral William M., USCG (USCGA, 1944)

Commanded the icebreaker Eastwind (WAGB-279), 231-232, 535

In the mid-1970s attended a dining event at the Coast Guard Reserve Training Center, 229-231

Dealings with the commercial maritime industry, 232-233, 352, 514, 567

Bennis, Captain Richard E., USCG

Served as captain of the port of New York at the time of the terrorist attacks of 11 September 2011, 561

Beran, Rear Admiral Arnold B., USCG (USCGA, 1957)

Served as Coast Guard Chief of Staff in the late 1980s, 342

Black, Rear Admiral Barry C., Chaplain Corps, USN

Served from 2000 to 2003 as the Navy’s Chief of Chaplains and then became chaplain of the Senate, 465-466

Blackthorn*, USCGC (WLB-391)

Buoy tender sank that sank after colliding with the commercial tanker Capricorn in Tampa Bay, Florida, in 1980, 248-250

Blaha, Captain Charles L., USCG (USCGA, 1949)

Service in the Vietnam War in the late 1960s, 227-288

In the mid-1970s commanded the Coast Guard Reserve Training Center at Yorktown, Virginia, 22, 223-234, 240, 245, 531

Death of in 2001, 228

Bolivia

During his tenure as Commandant, 1998-2002, Loy visited the head of the Bolivian armed forces, 568-569

Bollinger, Donald T. “Boysie”

Chief executive officer of shipyard that built dozens of patrol boats for the Coast Guard in the 1990s-2000s, 399-400

Bollinger Machine Shop/ Bollinger Shipyards, Inc.

In the 1990s and beyond built patrol boats for the Coast Guard, 379, 399-400, 543

Boston*, USS (CAG-1)

Shore bombardment role in Vietnam in the mid-1960s, 127-128

Bostrom, Lieutenant (junior grade) David C. (USCGA, 1963)

Killed by Air Force aircraft while commanding the patrol boat Point Welcome (WPB-82329) off Vietnam in August 1966, 120-121

Breaux, Representative/Senator John B. (Democrat, Louisiana)

Association with the Coast Guard in the 1990s-2000s, 597

Breed, Captain Alan D., USCG (USCGA, 1955)

In the mid-1970s was commanding officer of the high endurance cutter Gallatin (WHEC-721) when she received women as crew members, 299-300

Served in the mid-1970s as Commandant of Cadets at the Coast Guard Academy, 244

Broca, Peter

Served as head basketball coach at the Coast Guard Academy, 1971-84, 178-182

Brown, Vice Admiral Manson K., USCG (USCGA, 1978)

In the early 1990s, as a junior officer, had an important role in the National Naval Officers Association, 273-274, 466

Budgetary Issues

Funding has grown for the Coast Guard in the wake of various untoward events, 274-275, 326-327, 406-407

Annual budget process for the Coast Guard in the 1980s and 1990s, 341-343

In 1997 the Coast Guard moved its Atlantic Area Command headquarters from New York to Norfolk to save money, 435-436

Application of the DoD Planning, Programming, and Budgeting System to the Coast Guard in the late 1990s, 468-478, 482-485

Role of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) in the late 1990s-early 2000s in the Coast Guard budget planning, 541-543, 613-614

Redistribution of Coast Guard assets and budget following the terrorist attacks of 11 September 2001, 326, 560-561, 565-566

Bull, Commander Theodore, USCG

Served as speechwriter for the Coast Guard Commandant in the early 2000s, 524, 577

Burmah Agate

Commercial tanker that collided with the freighter Mimosa in Galveston Harbor in November 1979, resulting in a long-burning fire and menace to navigation, 252-253

Burnley, James H. IV

Relationship with the Coast Guard in the late 1980s while serving as Deputy Secretary of Transportation and as Secretary, 312-314, 318, 368

Bush, President George W.

Spoke at the Coast Guard Commandant change-of-command ceremony in 2006, 521-522

Relationship with Coast Guard Commandant Loy, 2001-02, 605-606

Byrd, Senator Robert C. (Democrat, West Virginia)

Supportive of Loy during his Senate confirmation hearings to become Commandant in 1998, 510-511

C-5 Galaxy

The crew of the Air Force transport reluctantly flew Loy and members of his staff from Iceland to Washington around 2000, 601-604

C-11 Gulfstream II

Aircraft used for transporting the Coast Guard Commandant in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 574-576, 601-603

Camranh Bay, South Vietnam

Provided base facilities for U.S. forces in the mid-1960s, 129-130

Cape Falcon*, USCGC (WPB-95330)

In 1965 changed homeport from Chincoteague, Virginia, to Little Creek, Virginia, 97
Enlisted personnel on board in 1965-66, 97-102, 107-108
Operations in the Atlantic in 1965-66 included law enforcement and search and rescue, 97-108
Towed a dead whale out of the James River, 98-99
Overhaul work at the Coast Guard Yard, 106

Capricorn

Commercial tanker that collided with the Coast Guard buoy tender Blackthorn (WLB-391) in Tampa Bay, Florida, in 1980, 248-251

Card, Vice Admiral James C., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

Loy classmate who was later Vice Commandant, 1998-2000, 59, 66, 455, 482, 514-515, 517-518, 606-607, 612

Chaplains

Navy chaplains served with the Coast Guard in the 1990s-2000s, 463-465, 506

Chile

The icebreaker Eastwind (WAGB-279) visited Valparaiso in the mid-1960s, 232

Chincoteague, Virginia

Strong support for the Coast Guard in the mid-1960s, 97, 107

Chincoteague*, USCGC (WHEC-375)

In 1972 was transferred to the South Vietnamese Navy and in 1975 evacuated refugees to the Philippines, 83-84

Churchill, Lieutenant Commander Winston G., USCG

Served in the late 1970s as executive officer of the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621), 246

Clark, Admiral Vernon E., USN

Interaction with the Coast Guard during his tenure in the early 2000s as Chief of Naval Operations, 344, 445-446, 546-548, 551, 558-560, 568
Wife Connie, 548

Clary, Lieutenant (Junior grade) Edward O., USCGR

History instructor at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 29

Clinton, President William J.

Entered office in 1993 with an agenda to permit homosexuals to serve openly in the armed forces, 455-457
Relationship with Coast Guard Commandant Loy, 1998-2001, 604-605

Coast Guard, U.S.

Participation in the Vietnam War in the 1960s, 46, 102-103, 108-111, 115-146
 Long-range planning staff at Coast Guard Headquarters in 1967-68, 147
 Into the 1970s the service operated largely with hand-me-down ships from the World War II era, 84-85
 Less use of illegal drugs by Coast Guardsmen in the post-Vietnam era than in the Defense Department services, 259-260
 Turf battle with the Customs Service in the late 1980s as part of the war on drugs, 303-307, 330
 Concern in the early 1980s that the Reagan administration was going to privatize Coast Guard missions, 538
 Admiral Paul Yost instituted a change in culture in the Coast Guard in 1986 with his warrior approach and ban on beards, 307-308, 332-333, 355-359
 Funding has grown for the Coast Guard in the wake of various untoward events, 274-275
 Role of the Marine Safety Office in the 1980s and 1990s, 351-352
 Exploration of joint-Navy Coast Guard work on the Maritime Defense Zone concept in the late 1980s, 361-362
 Articulation of the core values of the service in the early 1990s, 400-402, 414-416
 Reorganization of Coast Guard Headquarters in the late 1990s, 471
 In the late 1990s the service conducted a work force cultural audit of employees, 478-480
 The Commandant's office issued Coast Guard Publication One in 1998, 439-441
 Relationships with senior Navy officers in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 344, 445-446, 500, 546-551
 Interaction with the coast guards of other nations in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 568-573
 Social role of the Commandant, late 1990s-early 2000s, 582-584
 Slating of flag officers in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 590-592

Coast Guard Academy, New London, Connecticut

Orientation process for new cadets included hazing during swab summers in the early 1960s, 11, 18-21, 24-25, 65
 Academics in the early 1960s, 19-20, 26-31, 153, 178
 Summer training cruises, 31-41, 45
 Basketball team, 20-22, 27-28, 53-57, 68, 183
 Football team, 45-50
 Sailing program in the early 1960s, 31-38, 41, 45, 50, 60
 Solidarity and teamwork among classmates, 22, 31-35, 58, 177-178
 Time-management challenges for cadets in the 1960s and 1970s, 22-24, 27, 184-185, 240-242
 Chase Hall was the cadet barracks, 64-65
 Role of tactical officers as disciplinarians in the early 1960s, 26-27, 41-45, 57, 64
 Social life for cadets in the early 1960s, 60-63
 Method of requesting orders for initial commissioned service in 1964, 70-71
 Attrition rates over the years, 24-25

Cadets marched in President John F. Kennedy's inaugural parade in January 1961, 51-52

The academy was not yet integrated in January 1961, 52-53

Ring Dance at the end of the second-class year, 16

Graduation of the class of 1964, 10, 63, 66-69

First African American graduate was in 1966, 53

Academics in the early 1970s, 157-172, 189-191

Summer training cruises in the early 1970s, 173-176

Changes in cadet culture between the early 1960s and early 1970s, 167-169

Basketball teams in the early 1970s, 171, 178-183

Women first entered as cadets in 1976, 242-244

Rear Admiral Richard Cueroni's role as Superintendent, 1986-89, 362-364

Professional Military Training committee to the Superintendent in the 1980s and 1990s 166, 364-365, 408-410

Captain Bruce Stubbs's turbulent tenure as Commandant of Cadets, 1996-97, 441-443

Leadership development center, established at the academy in the late 1990s honors Admiral Robert Kramek, 493-494

Swab summer preparation training circa 2001-02, 19-21

Developments during the tenure of Rear Admiral Robert C. Olsen Jr. as Superintendent, 2001-05, 529-532

Student body about one-third female as of 2002, 53

Comparison of OCS-trained Coast Guard officers and graduates of the academy, 220-223, 239

Reunion in 2004 of the class of 1964, 280-281

Coast Guard Auxiliary

Reaction of an auxiliary member to the 11 September 2001 terrorism attacks on New York City, 561-562, 610-611

Part of the role in the 21st century is to prepare prospective cadets for the rigors of life at the Coast Guard Academy, 19

Coast Guard Foundation

Vice Commandant James Irwin dealt with foundation matters in the late 1980s, 337

Rear Admiral Richard Cueroni widened the scope of the foundation in the late 1980s, 363-364

Coast Guard Museum, New London, Connecticut

After many years with an inferior museum, the service broke ground for a new one in 2014, 532-535

Coast Guard Reserve, U.S.

In the mid-1960s Ensign Fletcher Ballard, a reservist, served as executive officer of the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) in the Vietnam War, 118-119

Assignment of reserve program administrators to officer billets in the early 1980s, 272

The reserve and regular elements of the Coast Guard still had a distinct line between them in the 1980s, 272-273, 345-346

Exploration of work on the Maritime Defense Zone concept in the late 1980s, 361-362

In the 1990s and 2000s grew closer in function to the active Coast Guard, 346, 354, 458-460, 611

Call-up of reservists following the terrorism attacks of 11 September 2001, 558

Coast Guard Reserve Training Center, Yorktown, Virginia

Operation of in the mid-1970s, 22-23, 220-245, 531

Coast Guard Yard, Curtis Bay, Maryland

Site of overhaul work for the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) in the mid-1960s, 94-95

Overhauled the patrol boat Cape Falcon (WPB-95330) in the mid-1960s, 106

Maintenance and overhaul work in the mid-1990s, 430-431

Cochran, Senator William Thad (Republican, Mississippi)

Relationship with the Coast Guard in the 1990s and 2000s, 600

Cohen, William S.

Served as Secretary of Defense, 1997-2001, 523, 535

As head of a consulting firm after government service, 619

Collins, Admiral Thomas H., USCG (USCGA, 1968)

From 1998 to 2000 commanded the Coast Guard Pacific Area, 515, 609-610

From 2000 to 2002 was Vice Commandant of the Coast Guard, 609-610

Served 2002-2006 as Commandant of the Coast Guard, 446, 458, 467, 471, 513, 520-522, 547, 564, 573-574, 614-615, 618

Collisions

Collision between the tanker Burmah Agate and the freighter Mimosa in Galveston Harbor in November 1979 resulted in a long-burning fire and menace to navigation, 252-253

The buoy tender Blackthorn (WLB-391) sank after colliding with the commercial tanker Capricorn in Tampa Bay, Florida, in 1980, 248-250

Command

Loy's emphasis on the importance of command at sea in the Coast Guard, 37

Challenges and satisfactions for Loy when he commanded patrol boats in the mid-1960s, 46, 101-103, 108-111, 115-146

Command and Control

Modernization of the Coast Guard C⁴ISR capability in the early 2000s, 541-542

Commercial Aircraft

Interaction with Coast Guard cutters on ocean station patrol in the 1950s and 1960s, 76, 85

Extensive coverage of the explosion and loss of a TWA airliner near New York City in July 1996, 494-496, 555

Navy-Coast Guard involvement after John F. Kennedy Jr.'s airplane was lost at sea off Massachusetts in the summer of 1999, 465-466, 494-495, 552-555

Role of the Coast Guard in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks of 11 September 2001, 326, 353, 557-564

Commercial Ships

In the mid-1970s the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) towed an abandoned cargo ship in the Atlantic in what might have been a case of insurance fraud, 216-218

Dealings between the maritime industry and Coast Guard regulators in the 1970s, 232-233

Collision between the tanker Burmah Agate and the freighter Mimosa in Galveston Harbor in November 1979 resulted in a long-burning fire and menace to navigation, 252-253

The buoy tender Blackthorn (WLB-391) sank after colliding with the commercial tanker Capricorn in Tampa Bay, Florida, in 1980, 248-250

In the late 1980s the Coast Guard assisted in the protection of re-flagged Kuwaiti tankers in the Persian Gulf, 359-361

Use of inactive cruise ships to house refugees at Guantánamo Bay, Cuba, in 1994, 420-422

Communications

In the mid-1960s between the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) and commercial aircraft, 76, 81

Limited radio capability on board the Absecon in the mid-1960s, 84-86

Capability of the Coast Guard Commandant's aircraft to communicate worldwide, late 1990s-early 2000s, 601

Computers

Early versions used for report tickler systems on board Coast Guard medium endurance cutters in the mid-1970s, 204-205

In Transportation Security Administration in 2003, 206

Use of in the Officer Personnel Division of Coast Guard Headquarters in the early 1980s, 264

Congress, U.S.

Received testimony from Coast Guard Commandants at hearings in the 1980s-1990s, 335-341, 346, 353

Passed the Oil Pollution Act of 1990 in the aftermath of the March 1989 Exxon Valdez oil spill in Alaska, 319-320, 327-328, 352-354, 611-612

In 1993 enacted the “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” policy concerning gays in the armed services, 455-457

In 1998 held confirmation hearings on Admiral Loy’s nomination to become Commandant, 507-511

Loy’s continuing connections with congressmen while he was Commandant, 1998-2002, 511-513, 596-601, 614, 617

Costello, Vice Admiral John D., USCG (USCGA, 1952)

Served in the early 1960s as a company officer at the Coast Guard Academy, 42

In the mid-1980s commanded the Coast Guard’s Pacific Area with a number of former cutter skippers on his staff, 288, 297, 301, 332-333

Courageous*, USCGC (WMEC-622)

Operations in the Atlantic Ocean and Gulf of Mexico in the mid-1970s, 189, 193-219
Home-ported in Port Canaveral, Florida, in the mid-1970s, 189-190, 193-194, 204, 210-211, 214-216

Support of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration program, 193-194, 214-216

Law enforcement duty to prevent drug smuggling, 195-198, 212-213

Enlisted men in the crew in the mid-1970s, 197, 200-203, 209-210, 218, 260

Diesel propulsion plant, 200-204, 207-210

Administrative aspects in the mid-1970s, 204-207

Navigation of in the mid-1970s, 205-206

Refresher training at Little Creek, Virginia, 207-208

Crane, Dr. Barry D.

Operations analyst who in the 1990s worked for the Office of National Drug Policy Control, 451

Crea, Vice Admiral Vivien S., USCG

In the early 1980s served as a military aide to President Ronald Reagan, 269

Performed well in a succession of billets, 588-590

Crist, General George B., USMC

Served as Commander in Chief Central Command during Operation Earnest Will in the late 1980s, 360-361

Crowe, Admiral William J., Jr., USN (USNA, 1947)

Appeared on “60 Minutes” television program while Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, 1985-89, 581

Cuba

Refugee situation in 1965 caused the Coast Guard to relocate 82-foot patrol boats to the Florida Strait, 96

Refugee situation around 1980 in which the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621) rescued a pregnant woman and took her ashore, 262
Coast Guard Atlantic Area ships were heavily involved in 1994 in repatriating thousands of refugees from the island, 419-427

Cueroni, Rear Admiral Richard P., USCG (USCGA, 1953)

In the mid-1980s commanded the Seventh Coast Guard District in Miami, 333
Competitor for selection as Coast Guard Commandant in 1986, 363
Served as Coast Guard Academy Superintendent, 1986-89, 362-364

Customs

Turf battle between the Customs Service and Coast Guard in the late 1980s as part of the war on drugs, 303-307, 330

DACOWITS (Defense Department Advisory Committee on Women in the Services)

Coast Guard interaction with in the 1980s and 1990s, 267-268, 480

Danang, South Vietnam

Served as base for Navy and Coast Guard patrol boats in the mid-1960s, 126-129, 134-135, 139-141

Deepwater System, Integrated

Coast Guard hardware-acquisition program that began in the late 1990s, 274-275, 407, 477, 536-545, 584, 600

Denmark

In the early 1970s the Coast Guard bark Eagle (WIX-327) visited Ålborg, 174-175

Disciplinary Problems

Court-martial for a steward who went into a drunken rage on board the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) in 1964, 73-74

Dole, Elizabeth Hanford

Difficult for the Coast Guard to reach during her tenure, 1983-87 as Secretary of Transportation, 312-313, 318-319

“Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell”

Policy enacted by Congress in 1993 concerning homosexuals in the armed services, 455-457

Downey, Mortimer

Served 1993-2001 as Deputy Secretary of Transportation, 496-497, 501-503, 508, 527-528, 537-539, 542

Drugs

Less use of illegal drugs by Coast Guardsmen in the post-Vietnam era than in the Defense Department services, 259-260

Role of the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) in dealing with drug-smuggling vessels in the mid-1970s, 195-198, 212-213

Drug use by crew members of the Courageous in the mid-1970s, 259-260

Role of the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621) in dealing with drug-smuggling vessels, 1979-81, 254-255

Turf battle between the Customs Service and Coast Guard in the late 1980s as part of the war on drugs, 303-307, 330

Use of unmanned aerial vehicles in the U.S. Southwest in the 1980s to detect drug smugglers, 349-350

Role of Joint Task Force Four in the Caribbean in the late 1980s, 372-377

Drug interdiction operations in the Gulf of Mexico in the early 1990s, 394-395

U.S. multi-agency interdiction operations in the mid- and late 1990s, 446-454, 569-570

Arming of Coast Guard helicopters to deal with drug smugglers, 584-585

Dryden, Chief Warrant Officer-4 David, USCG

Role as skipper of a river tender in the early 1990s, 393-394

Duncan, Cadet Joseph F., USCG (USCGA, 1973)

Basketball player at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1970s, 178-179, 182

Duncan, Rear Admiral Robert F., USCG (USCGA, 1972)

Served as Commander Eighth Coast Guard District during Hurricane Katrina in 2005, 425, 462, 562-563, 589

Eagle, USCGC (WIX-327)

Memories of a German who served on board in the 1930s, when the ship was called the Horst Wessel, 34-36

In the early 1960s provided professional at-sea training for Coast Guard Academy cadets, 31-38, 41, 45, 50

Loy and his wife rode the ship in the early 1990s, when he was a junior flag officer, 34-36

Visited in Washington by President John F. Kennedy in 1962, 10

Summer training cruises in the early 1970s, 173-175

Modernization of the ship, including damage control improvements, in the mid-1990s, 427-429

Present in Washington, D.C., for Commandant change-of-command ceremonies in 1998 and 2002, 521

Global Positioning System on board for navigation in 2003, 205-206

Earle, Captain William K., USCG (Ret.) (USCGA, 1940)

In 1956, commanded the Coast Guard cutter Pontchartrain (WPG-70) as she rescued passengers from a ditched commercial aircraft in the Pacific, 76

In the early 1960s headed the department of professional studies at the Coast Guard Academy, 31, 42

In the mid-1960s, as editor of the Coast Guard Academy's Alumni Bulletin, worked on an article written by Loy, 22-24, 240-241

Earnest Will, Operation

In the late 1980s the Coast Guard assisted in the protection of re-flagged Kuwaiti tankers in the Persian Gulf, 359-361

Education

Of Loy in Altoona, Pennsylvania, 1940s-1950s, 2, 4-6, 11-13, 28

Academics at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 4, 19-20, 26-31, 153, 178

At Wesleyan University in the early late 1960s-early 1970s, 4, 28, 152-155, 157-159, 162

At the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1970s, 157-173, 189-191

In the early 1970s Loy earned a master of public administration from the University of Rhode Island, 172-173, 185-187

Eighth Coast Guard District, New Orleans

Operations during the 1989-91 period, 379-400

Interaction with local politicians, 382-383

Relationship with the Mexican Navy in the early 1990s, 396-397

Officers on the district commander's staff in the early 1990s, 398

Engel, Rear Admiral Arthur B., USCG (USCGA, 1938)

Served as Superintendent of the Coast Guard Academy, 1967-70, 168

Enlisted Personnel

On board Coast Guard cutters in the early 1960s, 40-41

On board the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) in the mid-1960s, 73-74, 81-82, 86-90

On board the patrol boat Cape Falcon (WPB-95330) in 1965-66, 97-102

In the crew of the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) in 1966-67, 116-123, 125-126, 133-134, 143-144

The planning staff at Coast Guard Headquarters dealt with search-and-rescue manning requirements in 1967-68, 147-152

In the crew of the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) in the mid-1970s, 197, 200-203, 218, 260

As students at Officer Candidate School in the mid-1970s and later, 237-238

Members of the crew of the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621) in the late 1970s-early 1980s, 247-248, 253-254

Role of the Master Chief Petty Officer of the Coast Guard in the late 1980s, 357-358

Role of the Master Chief Petty Officer of the Coast Guard in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 357-358

In aids-to-navigation work on mid-American rivers in the early 1990s, 392-394

Training of enlisted personnel in the early 1990s at various sites, 407-408
Vincent W. Patton III as Master Chief Petty Officer of the Coast Guard, 1998-2002, 357-358, 506, 522-524, 535, 563-564
Quarters managers for senior Coast Guard officers in the Washington area, late 1990s-early 2000s, 583

Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)

Activities in the aftermath of the March 1989 Exxon Valdez oil spill in Alaska, 319-320

Evans, Rear Admiral Stephen H., USCG (USCGA, 1927)

Served 1960-62 as Superintendent of the Coast Guard Academy, 45-46, 168, 363

Exxon Corporation

Dealings with the U.S. Government, including the Coast Guard, following a massive oil spill by the tanker Exxon Valdez in March 1989, 315-316, 319-320, 323-324

Exxon Valdez* (Commercial Tanker)

In March 1989 ran aground at Valdez, Alaska, and created an oil spill that required a massive cleanup effort, 315-316, 319-328, 403
Release of cleaned-up wildlife had varying results, 324-325

Fallon, Lieutenant (junior grade) Harold E. Jr., USCG (USCGA, 1957)

Played for the Coast Guard Academy basketball team in the 1950s and coached it from 1960 to 1962, 53-54
Prior to his retirement in 1981 was stationed at the Coast Guard Yard in Maryland and at Coast Guard Headquarters in Washington, 430-431

Fires

Collision between the tanker Burmah Agate and the freighter Mimosa in Galveston Harbor in November 1979 resulted in a long-burning fire and menace to navigation, 252-253

Fisher, Captain Thomas D., USCG (USCGA, 1963)

Served as chief of staff to Commander Eighth District in the early 1990s, 398

Fisher, Zachary

New York philanthropist who was supportive of the armed forces in the 1990s, 433-435

Fishing

Fisheries law enforcement by the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) in the mid-1970s, 213
In 1989 Alaska fishermen made more money cleaning up after the tanker Exxon Valdez oil spill than they would fishing, 324
Coast Guard regulation of in the Gulf of Mexico in the early 1990s, 379-381, 391

Coast Guard enforcement in New England and the Gulf of Mexico in the mid-1990s, 462-463

Fitness Reports

Role in evaluating individual performance by the Officer Personnel Division of Coast Guard Headquarters in the early 1980s, 264-267

Flanagan, Admiral William J., Jr., USN

Served from 1994 to 1996 as Commander in Chief Atlantic Fleet, 373-375

Food

Surprising cuisine for Coast Guard Academy cadets on liberty in France in the early 1960s, 38-39

Great food for Coast Guard Academy cadets on liberty in New London in the early 1960s, 61

Football

At the Coast Guard Academy in the 1960s, 45-50

Forrester, Commander Jack E., USCG

In the mid-1960s commanded the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374), 75-80, 88, 91-93

Foye, Captain Paul F., USCG

In the late 1960s-early 1970s headed the humanities department at the Coast Guard Academy, 157-158

France

Liberty in Bordeaux and Paris for Coast Guard Academy cadets on summer training cruise in the early 1960s, 38-39

French Air Force shadowed Loy's Coast Guard plane around 2000, 602

Friel, Lieutenant Commander John B., USCG

In the mid-1960s served as unit commander for patrol boats operating out of Danang, South Vietnam, 128, 139

Gallatin, USCGC (WHEC-721)

In the mid-1970s received the cutter's first female crew members, 299-300

Galveston, Texas

Collision between the tanker Burmah Agate and the freighter Mimosa in Galveston Harbor in November 1979 resulted in a long-burning fire and menace to navigation, 252-253

Homeport of the buoy tender Blackthorn (WLB-391) that sank in Tampa Bay, Florida, in 1980, 248-250

Georgia, Republic of Concern on the part of President Eduard Shevardnadze about protecting the nation's borders in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 571-572

German Navy

Used the bark Horst Wessel as a training ship in the 1930s, 34-36

Gilbert, Captain Leroy, Chaplain Corps, USN

Served 1998-2002 as chief Coast Guard Chaplain, 506

Global Positioning System

On board the Coast Guard bark Eagle (WIX-327) in 2003, 205-206, 429

Goehring, Rear Admiral Robert W., USCG (USCGA, 1939)

In the late 1960s served as Chief of Operations for the Coast Guard, 148

Goodman, Ensign Gill R., USCG (USCGA, 1963)

In the mid-1960s served as a junior officer in the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374), 93-95

Governors Island, New York, Coast Guard Base

Until the mid-1960s the Army maintained a base on the island, 438

In the mid-1990s served as headquarters for Commander Atlantic Area, 433-439

In 1997 the Coast Guard moved its Atlantic Area Command to Norfolk, 435-436, 463-465

Gracey, Admiral James S., USCG (USCGA, 1949)

Was heavily involved in the Coast Guard takeover of New York's Governors Island in the mid-1960s, 438

Characteristics and working style while serving as Coast Guard Commandant, 1982-86, 275-276, 302, 308, 335-340, 348, 360, 370, 391-392, 402, 471, 577

Graham, Otto

In the 1950s was quarterback for the Cleveland Browns, 48

In the early 1960s was athletic director and head football coach at the Coast Guard Academy, 45-49, 282

Coast Guard Academy athletic director, 1970-85, 180

Death in 2003 and Coast Guard Academy memorial service in 2004, 280-282

Guantánamo Bay, Cuba

Site of refresher training for the crew of the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) in the mid-1960s, 81-83, 86-87

In 1994 was used as a way station for the repatriation of Haitian and Cuban refugees, 419-427

Gulfstream II

Aircraft used for transporting the Coast Guard Commandant in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 574-576, 601-603

Gunnery-Naval

Shore bombardment by the cruiser Boston (CAG-1) in Vietnam in the mid-1960s, 127-128

Firing in 1966-67 by the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) during Vietnam operations, 115-116, 122, 134, 138-140

HH-60 Jayhawk

Entered Coast Guard service in the early 1990s, 365-366

HU-16 Albatross

Flying boat that was preserved after retired from Coast Guard inventory, 374

Haiti

Coast Guard Atlantic Area ships were heavily involved in 1994 in repatriating thousands of refugees from the island, 419-427, 459

Haley, Chief Journalist Alex, USCG (Ret.)

Black enlisted man who wrote the bestselling book Roots and was honored by the naming of the cutter Alex Haley (WMEC-39), 505-506

Hall, James E.

Served 1994-2001 as chairman of the National Transportation Safety Board, 554-555

Hartzog, Lieutenant General William W., USA

During the Haitian/Cuban refugee operations of 1994 served as Deputy Commander in Chief, U.S. Atlantic Command, 420-421

Hawaii

Honolulu was the site of rest and recreation leave for Loy and his wife Kay during a break in his 1966-67 command of the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) in Vietnam, 141

Hayes, Admiral John B., USCG (USCGA, 1947)

Served as Commandant of Cadets at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1970s, 168, 278

As Commandant of the Coast Guard, 1978-82, 277-278

Advised Commandant Loy not to undertake a roles-and-missions study of the Coast Guard, 538-539

Death in auto accident in 2001, 278-279

Hazing

Physical and mental hazing of cadets at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 19-21, 24-25, 65

Helicopters

Operated by the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622), 1974-76, 212
Helicopters from Coast Guard Air Station Houston rescued crew members from the tanker Burmah Agate and freighter Mimosa after a collision in Galveston, Texas, in November 1979, 252-253

Operated by the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621), 1979-81, 211-212

The HH-60 Jayhawk entered Coast Guard service in the early 1990s, 365-366

Use of Coast Guard helicopters to track drug smugglers in the 1990s, 451-452, 584-585

Henn, Vice Admiral Arthur Eugene, USCG (USCGA, 1962)

Served 1994-1996 as Vice Commandant of the Coast Guard, 455, 472-473, 514

Herr, Vice Admiral Richard D., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

From 1994 to 1996 was Commander Coast Guard Pacific Area, 452-453, 471

As Vice Commandant of the Coast Guard, 1996-98, 59, 66, 471, 493, 497-498, 515

High, Jeff

Senior executive service civilian who worked on the issue of maritime domain awareness for the Coast Guard in the 1990s-2000s, 483-484

High, Captain Leslie D., USCG (Ret.) (USCGA, 1947)

In the early 1960s served as assistant commandant of cadets at the Coast Guard Academy, 43-44, 483-484

Served as class advisor to the academy class of 1965, 44, 483-484

Hitler, Adolf

German Chancellor had an assigned bunk on board the training ship Horst Wessel in the 1930s, 34-36

Homosexuality

In 1993 Congress enacted the “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” policy concerning gays in the armed services, 455-457

Honolulu, Hawaii

Site of rest and recreation leave for Loy and his wife Kay during a break in his 1966-67 command of the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) in Vietnam, 141

Horst Wessel* (German Training Ship)

Sailed by the German Navy in the 1930s for the training of naval cadets, 34-365

Hsu, Captain Kwang-Ping, USCG (Ret.) (USCGA, 1962)

Was a demanding taskmaster as a cadet at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 65

Hunt for Red October, The

Novel published in 1984 about a Soviet submarine that tried to defect, 287

Iarossi, Frank J., USCG, (USCGA, 1959)

Coast Guard Academy graduate who was president of Exxon Shipping at the time the tanker Exxon Valdez ran aground in Alaska and spilled oil, 323-324

Iceland

Coast Guard Commandant's plane landed in snowy weather in Iceland around 2000, 601-603

Industrial College of the Armed Forces, Washington, D.C.

Classmates often had constructive contacts years after they had been students, 549

Inouye, Senator Daniel K. (Democrat-Hawaii)

Sponsored Loy in Senate confirmation hearings in 1998 to become Commandant, 507, 510

Intelligence

Use by Navy and Coast Guard boats on Market Time patrol in 1966-67, 131-132, 137-139

International Maritime Organization (IMO)

Involvement in environmental protection after the Exxon Valdez oil pollution incident of 1989, 352, 404

Connections with the U.S. Coast Guard in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 472-473, 514, 566-568

Security became a concern for the organization after the 11 September 2001 terrorist attacks, 353, 559-560, 606-608

Intrepid*, USS (CVS-11)

Retired aircraft carrier that serves as a museum in New York City, 433-435

Irwin, Vice Admiral James C., USCG (USCGA, 1953)

Served in the early 1960s as a company officer at the Coast Guard Academy, 42

From 1986 to 1988 was Vice Commandant of the Coast Guard, 328-330, 333-337, 366, 370, 468

In the late 1980s served as Commander Joint Task Force Four in the war on drugs in the Caribbean, 372-376

Jackson, Michael P.

Served as Deputy Secretary of Transportation from 2001 to 2003, 527-529

Japanese Maritime Self-Defense Force

Interaction with the U.S. Coast Guard in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 572-573

Jermann, Dr. W. H.

Electrical engineering professor at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 30

Johnson, Captain Harvey E. Jr., USCG (USCGA, 1975)

Served in the late 1990s as executive assistant to Commandant Loy, 524, 578

Johnson, Admiral Jay L., USN (USNA, 1968)

Interaction with the Coast Guard during his tenure in the late 1990s as Chief of Naval Operations, 344, 445, 500, 546, 547-549, 568

Johnson, Rear Admiral Joyce, USPHS

Served in the late 1990s as the Coast Guard's chief medical officer, 482-483

Johnson, President Lyndon B.

Spoke at the Coast Guard Academy graduation in June 1964, 10, 51, 66-67

Johnston, Lieutenant Commander Michael J., USCG (USCGA, 1990)

Served as aide to Commandant Loy, 2000-02, 524, 557

Joint Chiefs of Staff

Interactions with the Coast Guard Commandant in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 550-551

Joint Task Force Four

Role in the Caribbean in intercepting drug smugglers in the late 1980s, 372-377

Jones, General James L., USMC

Played basketball while a student at the National Defense University in the mid-1980s, 183, 549

As Commandant of the Marine Corps, 1999-2003, 549, 551

Jones, Boatswain's Mate First Class John Paul, USCG

Served on board the Coast Guard bark Eagle (WIX-327) in the early 1960s, 41

Jordan, Captain Macon T., USCG (USCGA, 1961)

Served in the mid-1980s as executive assistant to Commandant James Gracey, 275, 301-302

Josiah, Vice Admiral Timothy W., USCG (USCGA, 1969)

Served as Coast Guard Chief of Staff in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 515-517, 609-610

Kapral, Lieutenant Frank S., USCGR

In the 1960s was assistant coach and then head coach of the Coast Guard Academy football team, 48-49

Katrina, Hurricane

Reaction of the Coast Guard after the storm hit New Orleans in August 2005, 562-563, 589

Keene, Captain Judith, USCG (USCGA, 1981)

Served as Commandant of Cadets at the Coast Guard Academy, 2006-2008, the first woman to do so, 580

Kennedy, President John F.

Inaugural parade in January 1961, 51-52

Visited the Coast Guard bark Eagle (WIX-327) in Washington in 1962, 10, 50

Assassination of in November 1963, 10, 50-51

Kennedy, John F. Jr.

Navy-Coast Guard involvement after Kennedy's airplane was lost at sea off Massachusetts in the summer of 1999, 465-466, 494-495, 552-555

Kime, Admiral J. William, USCG (USCGA, 1957)

Served 1990-94 as Coast Guard Commandant, 339, 352-353, 360, 400-405, 414-415, 490, 524

Personality and working style, 402-404, 441, 445, 447, 454, 471, 482

Knapp, Rear Admiral Richard J., USCG (Ret.) (USCGA, 1951)

Classmate and friend of Admiral Paul Yost, Commandant from 1986-90, 309, 329, 369

Kramek, Admiral Robert E., USCG (USCGA, 1961)

Commanded the high endurance cutter Midgett (WHEC-726) from 1981 to 1983, 289-290, 297

As Commander Seventh District in the early 1990s, 403-404

Commanded the Governors Island base in New York in the mid-1980s, 437-438

Served as Coast Guard Chief of Staff and Commandant in the 1990s, 335, 346, 417-419, 426-428, 432-433, 440-441, 445, 447, 454-455, 466-467, 470, 474, 479-480, 482-483, 489-490, 492-493, 496-498, 500, 503, 514-515, 519-522, 575, 589, 597

Leadership development center at the Coast Guard Academy honors Kramek, 493-494

Kuwait

In the late 1980s the Coast Guard assisted in the protection of re-flagged Kuwaiti tankers in the Persian Gulf, 359-361

Lane, Michael H.

Served in the late 1980s as Deputy Commissioner of the U.S. Customs Service, 303-304

Larrabee, Rear Admiral Richard M. III, USCG (USCGA, 1967)

Served as Commander First Coast Guard District in 1969 when John F. Kennedy Jr.'s plane was lost off Massachusetts, 495, 552-555

Lautenberg, Senator Frank R. (Democrat, New Jersey)

In the 1980s heard testimony on Coast Guard issues, 340-341

Larzelere, Commander Alexander R., USCG (USCGA, 1958)

Commanded the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) from September 1973 to July 1975, 196-199, 205, 208-209, 212

Served as an aide to President Richard Nixon in the 1970s, 281, 360

Author of books about the Coast Guard, 198-199, 281

Leadership

Loy's exercise of command on board the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) in Vietnam in 1966-67, 46, 102-103, 108-111, 115-146

Techniques used by Commander Melvin Sites when he commanded the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622), 1975-77, 207-210

Leadership development program devised at Coast Guard headquarters in the early 1990s, 224-225, 416-417

Leadership development center at the Coast Guard Academy honors Admiral Robert Kramek, 493-494, 519

Loy's emphasis on as Commandant, 1998-2002, 499-500, 516-519, 530, 619

Leahy, Rear Admiral William P. Jr., USCG (USCGA, 1959)

Served as Commander Seventh District during the Haitian-Cuban refugee events of 1994, 431-432, 461-462

Leame, Captain Stephen P., USCG (USCGA, 1961)

Commanded the high endurance cutter Midgett (WHEC-726) briefly in the mid-1980s, 289, 300

Leave and Liberty

For Coast Guard Academy cadets in the early 1960s, 38-40, 57-58, 60-61

In Norfolk and Baltimore in the mid-1960s for crew members of the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374), 93-95

Rest and recreation leave for Loy and his wife Kay during a break in his 1966-67 command of the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) in Vietnam, 141

For Coastguardsmen on summer training cruises to Europe in the early 1970s, 174-175

Mischief when the icebreaker Eastwind (WAGB-279) visited Valparaiso, Chile, in the mid-1960s, 232

Leggett, Cadet Robert E., USCG (USCGA, 1963)

Positive role model as a basketball player for the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 21, 54-55

Little Creek, Virginia, Naval Amphibious Base

Site of refresher training for the crew of the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) in the mid-1970s, 207-208

Livingston, Major General James E., USMC

In the early 1990s served in New Orleans as Commanding General, Marine Forces Reserve, 391

Lott, Senator Chester Trent (Republican, Mississippi)

Relationships with the Coast Guard in the 1990s and 2000s, 600

Loy, Admiral James M., USCG (Ret.) (USCGA, 1964)

Grandparents, 2-4

Parents, Joseph and Lois, 1-6, 8-9, 11-16, 18, 22, 62-63, 68, 449

Sister Susan, 2-4, 9, 68

Wife Kay, 1, 4, 15-16, 18, 34-35, 40, 61-62, 68, 71-73, 93, 109-110, 141-147, 173-175, 178-179, 188, 214, 245, 263, 378, 381, 436, 441, 486, 508, 524, 551, 582, 590, 601

Children Kelly and Michael, 1, 4, 109, 141, 147, 172-173, 214, 261, 263, 486, 620

Youth in Altoona, Pennsylvania, included some limited traveling in the 1940s and 1950s, 1-17, 28

Education of, 2, 4-6, 11-12, 16, 153

Long-time involvement with basketball, 2, 4-6, 8-9, 14-16, 20-22, 27, 53-57, 68, 178-183

Coast Guard Academy cadet, 1960-64, 4, 6, 9-11, 18-71, 89, 153, 177-178, 183

Served in the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) in 1964-65, 71-96

Commanded the patrol boat Cape Falcon (WPB-95330) in 1965-66, 96-108

Commanded the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) in Vietnam in 1966-67, 46, 102-103, 108-111, 115-146, 177

On the long-range planning staff at Coast Guard Headquarters in 1967-68, 147-152, 160

Postgraduate student at Wesleyan University in 1969-70, 4, 6, 131, 152-155, 157-159 162

Taught at the Coast Guard Academy and helped coach the basketball team from 1970 to 1974, 23, 41, 56, 156-191

In the early 1970s earned a master of public administration from the University of Rhode Island, 172-173, 185-187

Served 1974-76 as executive officer of the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622), 189, 193-219, 260

From 1976 to 1979 served at the Coast Guard Officer Candidate School, Yorktown, Virginia, 22-23, 220-245

From 1979 to 1981 commanded the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621), 211-212, 246-263

In 1981-84 served in the Officer Personnel Division of Coast Guard Headquarters, 263-270

As a student at the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, 1984-85, 183, 503, 549

Commanded the high endurance cutter Midgett (WHEC-726) in 1985-86, 182, 282-297, 453-454

From 1986 to 1989 was executive assistant to the Commandant, Admiral Paul Yost, 151-152, 301-372

In 1989-90 was chief of the operations division, Coast Guard Atlantic Area, 372-378

From 1990 to 1992 commanded the Eighth Coast Guard District in New Orleans, 379-400, 570-571

Headed the Personnel and Training Division in Coast Guard headquarters from 1992 to 1994, 224-225, 400, 414-417, 455-457

In 1994-96 was Commander Atlantic Area, 417-467

Served 1996-98 as Coast Guard Chief of Staff at headquarters in Washington, 466-496

Preparation in 1997-98 for becoming Commandant, including Senate confirmation, 308-309, 333-334, 496-501, 507-510

Served as Coast Guard Commandant, 1998-2002, 46-47, 343, 353-354, 447, 501-506, 511-617

Served 2002-03 as Deputy and Administrator of the Transportation Security Administration, 19, 47, 119, 163, 595, 598-599, 618

Served 2003-05 as Deputy Secretary of Homeland Security, 595

Coauthored the book Character in Action, published in 2003, 145

Served 2003-05 as Deputy Secretary and Acting Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, 501, 605

Post-retirement work in the private sector, 619

Luck, Commander Karl A., USCG

Served in the Officer Personnel Division in Coast Guard Headquarters in the early 1980s, 263

Lupo, Commodore Thomas J., USNR

World War II Navy pilot who in the 1990s was friendly with Coast Guard officers in the Gulf of Mexico area, 388-389

Lusk, Vice Admiral Clyde T., USCG (USCGA, 1954)

Served 1986-88 as Coast Guard Vice Commandant and 1988-90 as Vice Commandant, 328-329, 333-334, 342, 366, 370

MH-60 Jayhawk

Entered Coast Guard service in the early 1990s, 365-366

Use of to track drug smugglers in the 1990s, 451-452, 584-585

Maintenance

Of Coast Guard cutters in the Atlantic Area in the early 1990s, 427-430

Marine Corps, U.S.

In the mid-1960s the Coast Guard patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) provided support for Marines in South Vietnam, 115-116, 122, 134, 136, 139-141

Marine Forces Reserve headquarters in New Orleans in the early 1990s, 391

Maritime Defense Zone

Exploration of joint-Navy Coast Guard work on the concept in the late 1980s, 361-362

Coast Guard role in defense off the U.S. Atlantic Coast in the mid-1990s, 436-440, 444-446

Market Time Operation

Navy and Coast Guard roles in Vietnam in 1966-67, 126-128, 131-142

Marmion, Harry A.

In the early 1960s was an associate professor at the Coast Guard Academy and coached the basketball team, 53-56

Subsequent career in education, 54

Martin, Cadet Steven C., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

Loy classmate who was a gifted musician as a cadet, 60

Matteson, Captain Thomas T., USCG (USCGA, 1957)

Headed the Officer Personnel Division in Coast Guard Headquarters in the early 1980s, 263

McCaffrey, General Barry R., USA (USMA, 1964)

Vietnam service as a junior officer in the 1960s, 447-448

Served 1994-96 as Commander in Chief Southern Command, 373-375, 447-449, 569

As U.S. drug czar, 1996-2001, 447-450, 451-452

McCaffrey, Lieutenant General William J., USA (USMA, 1939)

Served 1970-72 as Deputy Commander U.S. Forces Vietnam, 448-449

McCarthy, Cadet Thomas J., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

Played basketball for the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 54-55

McElroy, Lieutenant (junior grade) James C., USCG (USCGA, 1962)

Served on board the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) in the mid-1960s, 73-74

Medical Problems

In the mid-1970s Loy was hospitalized with stomach ulcers, 228-229

Future Army general Barry McCaffrey was badly wounded while a junior officer in Vietnam, 448-449

Menelly, Ensign Henry T. Jr., USCGR

In the mid-1960s served as a junior officer in the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374), 93-95

Merlin, Rear Admiral William F., USCG (USCGA, 1956)

Commanded the Eighth Coast Guard District in the late 1980s, 380

Mesquite*, USCGC (WLB-305)

In December 1989 the Coast Guard buoy tender ran aground in Lake Superior, 227

Mexican Navy

Interaction with the U.S. Coast Guard in the 1990s and 2000s, 396-397, 570-572

Meyers, Lieutenant Commander Thomas J., USCG (USCGA, 1972)

In the early 1980s served in the Officer Personnel Division of Coast Guard Headquarters, 265

Midgett*, USCGC (WHEC-726)

The ship was named for Chief Warrant Officer John Midgett of North Carolina, 283
One skipper was short in physical stature and thus declined the normal arriving and departing honors that mentioned Midgett, 282-283

The cutter's basketball team won a Navy tournament in the mid-1980s, 182

Operations off the West Coast of the United States in the mid-1960s included training with the battleship New Jersey (BB-62) battle group, 284-298

Ship-handling characteristics, 290-292

Used a combined diesel and gas turbine engineering plant, 290-292

Received excellent logistic support in the mid-1980s, 296-297

Miller, Admiral Paul David, USN

Served as Commander in Chief Atlantic Command in 1994 during refugee crises involving Cuba and Haiti, 419-424, 431-432

Personality and working style, 421-422

Milligan, Captain Richard D., USN (USNA, 1959)

Commanded the battleship New Jersey (BB-62) during pre-deployment training in 1985, 286-287, 292-296, 301

Mimosa

Commercial freighter that collided with the tanker Burmah Agate in Galveston Harbor in November 1979, resulting in a long-burning fire and menace to navigation, 252-253

Minetta, Norman Y.

Served 2001-06 as Secretary of Transportation, 502, 528-529, 558-560, 617-618

Moskos, Dr. Charles C.

Sociologist who had a substantial role in the 1993 studies that led up to the enactment of the “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” policy on gays in the military, 455-457

Murray, Ensign Charles W., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

First commissioned service in 1964 was as gunnery officer of the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374), 73, 80, 94

Murtaugh, Captain Michael O., USCG (USCGA, 1962)

In the late 1980s served as chief of staff to Commander Coast Guard Atlantic Area, 376, 378

Myers, General Richard B., USAF

As Vice Chairman and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in the early 2000s, 550-551

Naegle, Cadet John N., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

Super-bright student in electrical engineering class at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 30-31

National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA)

Activities at Cape Canaveral, Florida, in the mid-1970s, 193-194, 215-216

National Defense University, Washington, D.C.

In the 1980s students heard speeches delivered by Coast Guard Commandants, 370-371

National Naval Officers Association (NNOA)

Role over the years in representing minority officers of the sea services, 273-274, 466-467

National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB)

Role in the investigation after John F. Kennedy Jr.’s aircraft was lost in the summer of 1999, 554-555

Naval Institute, U.S.

Reaction of Admiral Paul Yost, Coast Guard Commandant, in the late 1980s to a Proceedings article he didn’t like, 332

Coast Guard Proceedings article by Captain Bruce Stubbs in 2004, 332

As a forum for Coast Guard issues, late 1990s-early 2000s, 615-616

Navigation

Of the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) in the mid-1960s, 74-76, 84-85

Difficulties around South Vietnam for the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) in 1966-67, 136

On board the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) in the mid-1970s, 205-206

Use of radar in fog conditions by the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621) in the early 1980s, 251, 258-259

Over time, advances in navigation have decreased search time in rescue cases, 226-227

In December 1989 the Coast Guard buoy tender Mesquite (WLB-305) ran aground in Lake Superior, 227

Global Positioning System on board the bark Eagle (WIX-327) in 2003, 205-206, 429

Navy League of the United States

Relationship with the Coast Guard in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 615

Nelson, Rear Admiral Edward, Jr., USCG (USCGA, 1953)

Served as Coast Guard Academy Superintendent from 1982 to 1986, 363

Commanded the 17th Coast Guard District at the time the tanker Exxon Valdez went aground and created a massive oil spill at Valdez, Alaska, 322-323

Netherlands

Liberty in Amsterdam for Coast Guard Academy cadets in the early 1960s, 39

New Jersey, USS (BB-62)

Pre-deployment training of the ship's battle group in 1985, 285-286, 292-296

Some parts of the ship were not activated during her early-1980s modernization, 295-296

New Orleans, Louisiana

Eighth Coast Guard District operations during the 1989-91 period, 379-390

Coast Guard interaction with local politicians, 382-383

Repair of the Florida Avenue Bridge without interfering with water traffic, 383-385

Mardi Gras 1991 during the Gulf War, 387-388

The Army Corps of Engineers built the New Orleans levee system that failed during Hurricane Katrina in August 2005, 390

Reaction of the Coast Guard after Katrina hit New Orleans in August 2005, 562-563

News Media

Loy's first encounter with reporters came in the mid-1960s when he commanded the patrol boat Cape Falcon (WPB-95330), 99

Limited news available to Coast Guardsmen deployed to Vietnam in 1966-67, 131

Coverage of Coast Guard activities around New York City in the mid-1990s, 460-461

Coverage of the Coast Guard in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 578-582

New York City, New York

Relationship in the mid-1990s with the Coast Guard base on Governors Island, 433-439, 460-461

Explosion and loss of a TWA airliner near New York City in July 1996, 494-496

In 1997 the Coast Guard moved its New York presence from Governors Island to Staten Island, 463-465, 489

Involvement of the Coast Guard in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks of 11 September 2001, 326, 353, 557-564

Niesz, Captain Ralph W., USCG (USCGA, 1945)

Served as Assistant Superintendent of the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1970s, 171-172

Norfolk, Virginia

In the mid-1960s was homeport for the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374), 77, 93-94

In 1965-66 the naval supply center provided logistic support to the patrol boat Cape Falcon (WPB-95330), 105-106

In 1997 the Coast Guard moved its Atlantic Area Command from Governors Island in New York City to Norfolk, 435-436, 463-465, 489

Norway

Liberty in Oslo for Coast Guard Academy cadets in the early 1960s, 40

O-1 Bird Dog

Army aircraft used for gunfire spotting in Vietnam in 1966-67, 138

Ocean Station Vessels

On 15 October 1956, the Coast Guard cutter Pontchartrain (WPG-70) rescued passengers from a ditched commercial aircraft in the Pacific, 76

Patrols in the Atlantic by the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) in the mid-1960s, 76-80, 85

Office of Management and Budget (OMB)

Role in the late 1990s-early 2000s in the Coast Guard budget planning, 541-543, 613-614

Officer Candidate School, Yorktown, Virginia

Comparison of OCS-trained officers and graduates of the Coast Guard Academy, 220-223, 239

Physical plant and training at the school in the mid-1970s, 223-224, 234-245, 531

Few women among the officer candidates in the mid-1970s, 242-243

Oil

Network of underwater pipelines in the Gulf of Mexico in the early 1990s, 385-386

Oil spills in the Gulf in the early 1990s, 395-396

Oil Pollution Act of 1990

Passed by Congress in the aftermath of the March 1989 Exxon Valdez oil spill in Alaska, 319-320, 327-328, 352-353, 395, 403, 611-612

Olsen, Rear Admiral Robert C. Jr., USCG (USCGA, 1969)

In the early 1980s served in the Officer Personnel Division of Coast Guard Headquarters, 265

From 2001 to 2005 was Superintendent of the Coast Guard Academy, 529-532, 619

O'Neil, William

Served as Secretary-General of the International Maritime Organization in the early 2000s, 353, 559-560, 566-567

Pace, General Peter, USMC (USNA, 1967)

Served 2001-01 as Commander in Chief Southern Command, 569

Served as Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff 2001-05, 551

Pacific Area Command, U.S. Coast Guard

Alaska patrols in the mid-1980s, 453-454

Role in the 1990s in the war on drugs, 452

Patterson, Chief Boatswain's Mate Richard, USCG

In August 1966 saved the patrol boat Point Welcome (WPB-82329) after it had been attacked by U.S. Air Force planes, 120

Patton, Master Chief Petty Officer Vincent W. III, USCG

In the early 1990s was involved in helping devise the core values of the Coast Guard, 401-402, 414

Served from 1998 to 2002 as Master Chief Petty Officer of the Coast Guard, 357-358, 506, 522-524

Pay and Allowances

Meager base pay and per diem for a Coast Guard ensign in 1964, 72-73

Pennington, Lieutenant Commander Thomas R., USCG (USCGA, 1965)

In the mid-1970s served as executive officer of the medium endurance cutter Diligence (WMEC-616), 204

Persian Gulf

In the late 1980s the Coast Guard assisted in the protection of re-flagged Kuwaiti tankers in the Persian Gulf, 359-361

Personnel

The planning staff at Coast Guard Headquarters dealt with search-and-rescue manning requirements in 1967-68, 147-152

Officer assignments and evaluations in the personnel section of Coast Guard Headquarters, 263-274

Flag officer assignments in the Coast Guard in the late 1980s, 266-367

Role of the Personnel and Training Division in Coast Guard Headquarters in the early 1990s, 406-420

In the late 1990s the Coast Guard conducted a work force cultural audit of employees, 478-480

Slating of Coast Guard flag officers in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 590-592

Phillips, Donald T.

Worked with Loy on Coast Guard leadership issues in the 1990s-2000s, 143-145, 164-165, 516-519, 619

Piché, Rear Admiral Gordon G., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

Loy classmate who was later Commander Seventh District, 1997-99, 59

Planning

The planning staff at Coast Guard Headquarters dealt with search-and-rescue requirements in 1967-68, 147-150

Long-range planning in the late 1970s to upgrade facilities and training at the Coast Guard's Reserve Training Center at Yorktown, 223-224, 531

Idea generation in the Coast Guard and Air Force, 503

At the Coast Guard Academy in the early 2000s, 531-532

Study during Loy's tenure as Commandant on the Coast Guard of the year 2020, 536-541, 545

Planning, Programming and Budgeting System (PPBS)

Application in the Coast Guard in the late 1990s, 469-478, 482-485

Plusch, Captain Stephen P., USCG (Ret.) (USCGA, 1964)

Loy classmate who became an excellent electronic engineer, 178

Point Dume, USCGC (WPB-82325)

Operations around Vietnam in the mid-1960s included patrol duty, 123

Point Lomas, USCGC (WPB-82321)

Operations around Vietnam in 1966-67, 46, 102-103, 108-111, 115-146

Enlisted crew members in 1966-67, 116-123, 125-126, 133-135, 143-144

Was in the Navy chain of command during Vietnam operations, 126-127

Lifelong bonding of crew members, 177-178

Point Welcome, USCGC (WPB-82329)

In August 1966 Air Force planes mistakenly strafed and bombed this Coast Guard patrol boat near Vietnam's demilitarized zone, 120-121, 128, 139, 281

Pontchartrain, USCGC (WPG-70)

On 15 October 1956, the cutter rescued passengers from a ditched commercial aircraft in the Pacific, 76

Prisoners of War

Survival, evasion, resistance, and escape (SERE) training for U.S. servicemen headed for the Vietnam War in 1966, 111-115

Promotion of Coast Guard Officers

Loy's selection in 1989 for flag rank, 378

Loy's experiences on both promotion boards and continuation boards, 491-492

Propulsion Plants

Use of diesels in the patrol boats Cape Falcon (WPB-95330) and Point Lomas (WPB-82321) in the mid-1960s, 102-103, 110-111

Diesel plant in the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) in the mid-1970s, 200-204, 207-210

The high endurance cutter Midgett (WHEC-726) used a combined diesel and gas turbine engineering plant in the 1980s, 290-292

Prostitution

In Amsterdam, Netherlands, in the early 1960s, 39

Public Affairs

Interaction with new media concerning coverage of Coast Guard activities around New York City in the mid-1990s, 460-461

Loy's proactive efforts to tell the Coast Guard's story when he was Commandant, 1998-2002, 343, 524-527, 578-582, 616-617

Public Health Service, U.S.

Rear Admiral Joyce Johnson served as the Coast Guard's chief medical officer in the late 1990s, 482-483

Pultz, Chief Warrant Officer-4 Richard W., USCG (Ret.)

For many years handled correspondence in the office of the Commandant of the Coast Guard, 334, 371

Racial Issues

Racial and ethnic makeup of the population of Altoona, Pennsylvania, in the 1950s, 6-9

The Coast Guard Academy was not yet integrated in January 1961, 52

The first African American graduate of the Coast Guard Academy was Ensign Merle A. Smith Jr. in 1966, 53

Role of the National Naval Officers Association over the years in representing minority officers of the sea services, 273-274

In 1998 Rear Admiral Erroll M. Brown became the Coast Guard's first black flag admiral, 588

Radar

Use of radar for navigation in fog conditions by the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621) in the early 1980s, 251

Radio

Communications in the mid-1960s between the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) and commercial aircraft, 76, 81

Limited radio capability on board the Absecon in the mid-1960s, 84-86

Ralston, General Joseph W., USAF

Served as Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, 1996-2000, 521, 550-551

As NATO Supreme Allied Commander Europe, 2000-03, 571

Raymond, Lee R.

President of Exxon Corporation at the time of the grounding of the tanker Exxon Valdez in Alaska in February 1989, poor public affairs response, 324

Recruiting

For Coast Guard Officer Candidate School in the mid-1970s, 242

Redd, Vice Admiral John Scott, USN (USNA, 1966)

In 1993 was the Navy representative on the multi-service team that studied the issue of gays in the military, 455-457

Reilly, William K.

Headed the Environmental Protection Agency at the time of the March 1989 Exxon Valdez oil spill, 319-320

Religion

In the Loy family in Pennsylvania, 1940s-1950s, 2-3

Religious and ethnic makeup of the population of Altoona, Pennsylvania, in the 1950s, 7

In the Loy family in the 1990s and beyond, 486-487

Rescue at Sea

By the patrol boat Cape Falcon (WPB-95330) in the mid-1960s, 104-105

By the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) at Danang, South Vietnam, in the mid-1960s, 139-141

The planning staff at Coast Guard Headquarters dealt with search-and-rescue requirements in 1967-68, 147-152

Helicopters from Coast Guard Air Station Houston rescued crew members from the tanker Burmah Agate and freighter Mimosa in Galveston, Texas, in November 1979, 252-253

Rescue cases in the Gulf of Mexico by the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621), 1979-81, 257-258, 262

Over time, advances in navigation have decreased search time in rescue cases, 226-227

In 1994 Coast Guard cutters picked up Cuban and Haitian refugees at sea for repatriation to their home countries, 419-426

Navy-Coast Guard involvement after John F. Kennedy Jr.'s airplane was lost at sea off Massachusetts in the summer of 1999, 465-466, 494-495, 552-555

Reserve Training Center, Yorktown, Virginia

In the mid-1970s hosted a number of training facilities, including Officer Candidate School, 223-240

Richards, Lieutenant Commander Charles A., USCG (USCGA, 1988)

Served as aide to Commandant Loy, 1998-2000, 524

Richmond, Admiral Alfred C., USCG (USCGA, 1925)

Was Coast Guard Commandant when President John F. Kennedy was inaugurated in January 1961, 52

Ridge, Thomas J.

Served as Secretary of Homeland Security, 2003-05, 595, 605

Robbins, Vice Admiral Clyde E., USCG (USCGA, 1954)

Served as Chief of Operations at Coast Guard Headquarters in the mid-1980s, 330, 348

As Commander Pacific Area, became on-scene Coast Guard commander in Alaska after the tanker Exxon Valdez ran aground at Valdez and spilled a great quantity of oil, 323

Rogers, Representative Harold D. (Republican, Kentucky)

Relationships with the Coast Guard in the 1990s and 2000s, 512, 598-599

Rohnke, Rear Admiral Oscar C., USCG (USCGA, 1932)

In 1965, as Commander Fifth District, told Loy he would be commanding the patrol boat Cape Falcon (WPB-95330), 96-97

Ships in the district reported to him for operational control, 105

Roland, Admiral Edwin J., USCG (USCGA, 1929)

As Coast Guard Commandant in the mid-1960s, arranged to deploy 82-foot patrol boats to operate in the Vietnam War, 46, 111, 126

Rooney, Lieutenant James J. III, USCG (USCGA, 1956)

Served in the early 1960s as a company officer at the Coast Guard Academy, 42-43, 66

Rufe, Vice Admiral Roger T. Jr., USCG (USCGA, 1965)

Served as Commander Coast Guard Atlantic Area, 1997-99, 310, 333-334, 497-498, 513-514, 609

Rules of Engagement

For Coast Guard patrol boats operating off Vietnam in 1966-67, 139

Use of Coast Guard helicopters to track drug smugglers in the 1990s, 451-452, 584-585

Russia

Interaction of the Russian Border Guard with the U.S. Coast Guard in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 574

Rybacki, Captain Richard I., USCG (USCGA, 1956)

In the early 1980s was deputy to the Chief of Personnel in Coast Guard Headquarters, 264-266

Sailing

Program at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 31-38, 41, 45, 50, 60

Salvage

In the mid-1970s the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) towed an abandoned cargo ship in the Atlantic in what might have been a case of insurance fraud, 216-218

Saunders, Rear Admiral Norman T., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

In the early 1990s commanded Coast Guard Group Key West, 389-390

Loy classmate who later served as Commander Seventh District, 1997-99, 59, 66

Scarborough, Vice Admiral Robert H., Jr., USCG

In the mid-1960s served as executive officer of the high endurance cutter Ingham (WPG-35), 276

Vice Commandant of the Coast Guard, 1978-82, 276-277

Schneider, Rear Admiral Richard W., USCGR (USCGA, 1968)

In the 1990s had a substantial role in the effort to align the Coast Guard Reserve much more closely to the active force than it had been, 346, 458-460

Schuster, Representative William (Republican, Pennsylvania)

Congressman from Loy's home district in Altoona, 512

Selection Boards

Loy's experiences on both promotion boards and continuation boards, 491-492

September 11, 2001, Terrorist Attacks

Involvement of the Coast Guard in the aftermath of the attacks, 326, 353, 557-564

Seventh Coast Guard District

Operations in the Caribbean during the Haitian-Cuban refugee events of 1994, 419-427, 431-432, 461-462

Sharpe, Cadet James M. Jr., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

Played football and wrestled for the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 49-50, 57, 59

Shevardnadze, Eduard

As President of the Republic of Georgia in the late 1990s-early 2000s, met with Loy, 571-572

Shipbuilding

On behalf of the Coast Guard in the Gulf of Mexico area in the 1990s and beyond, 379, 399-400

Ship Handling

On board the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) in the mid-1960s, 77-80, 92

On board the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) around Vietnam in the mid-1960s, 115-116

On board the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621), 1979-81, 258-259

On board the high endurance cutter Midgett (WHEC-726) in the mid-1980s, 290-292

Upgraded simulator at the Coast Guard Academy in the 1990s, 409

Shkor, Rear Admiral John E., USCG (USCGA, 1966)

Served in the office of the Chief of Staff at Coast Guard Headquarters in the late 1980s, 337

In the late 1990s was chief counsel for the Coast Guard, 586

Shuck, Cadet Patrick L., USCG (USCGA, 1973)

Basketball player at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1970s, 179, 182-183

Served in the early 1980s as operations officer of the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621), 247, 255-256

Sinton, Judy

Blessed with a superb memory, she was the social hostess at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 62-63

Sites, Commander Melvin L., USCG (USCGA, 1958)

Commanded the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) from July 1975 to July 1977, 207-212

Skinner, Samuel K.

Relationship with the Coast Guard while serving as Secretary of Transportation from 1989 to 1991, 315-318, 323-324, 352

Slater, Rodney E.

Served from 1997 to 2001 as U.S. Secretary of Transportation, 308, 496-498, 501-505, 508, 527-528, 537

Smith, Major General Perry M., USAF (USMA, 1956)

Served from 1983 to 1986 as commandant of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces after having been an Air Force planner, 503

Smith, Admiral Willard J., USCG (USCGA, 1933)

Served 1962-65 as Superintendent of the Coast Guard Academy, 46, 50, 363
As Commandant from 1966 to 1970, visited Coast Guard units in Vietnam, 46

Space Program

Support of by the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) in the mid-1970s, 193-194

State Department, U.S.

Interaction with the Coast Guard in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 576-577

Staten Island, New York

In 1997 the Coast Guard moved its New York presence from Governors Island to Staten Island, 463-465, 489

Steele, Rear Admiral Chester I., USCG (USCGA, 1937)

In the early 1960s commanded the bark Eagle (WIX-327) and was Commandant of Cadets at the Coast Guard Academy, 45

Stephenson, Cadet William E. Jr., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

Persuasive prankster while at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 57

Stevens, Theodore F. (Republican, Alaska)

In the 1980s and 1990s helped the Coast Guard on budget matters, 340-341, 345
Sponsored Loy in Senate confirmation hearings in 1998 to become Commandant, 507, 510

Stillman, Rear Admiral Patrick M., USCG (USCGA, 1972)

Headed the Coast Guard's Integrated Deepwater program in the early 2000s, 529, 542

Storis, USCGC (WAGL38/WMEC-38)

Commissioned in 1942, this icebreaker/medium endurance cutter was on active service until 2007, 84

Stubbs, Captain Bruce B., USCG (Ret.) (USCGA, 1970)

Personality and working style, 441-444

In the mid-1990s helped write operating doctrine while on the Atlantic Area Command staff, 436-437, 439-440

Served 1996-97 as Commandant of Cadets at the Coast Guard Academy, 441-443

In 1997 helped Loy put together a vision statement for the Coast Guard, 497

As advisor to Admiral Loy 538, 546

Wrote an article on Coast Guard missions for the Naval Institute Proceedings in 2004, 332

Surbey, Captain Jerry J., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

Loy classmate who served on the Eighth District staff in the early 1990s, 398

Survival, Evasion, Resistance, and Escape (SERE)

Training in Southern California for servicemen going to Vietnam in the mid-1960s, 111-115

Swift Boats

Navy PCFs had difficulty operating in Vietnam during the monsoon season, 46, 111, 126

Tampa, Florida

The buoy tender Blackthorn (WLB-391) sank after colliding with the commercial tanker Capricorn in Tampa Bay in 1980, 248-250

Taney, USCGC (WHEC-37)

Long service in commission, from 1936 to 1986, 176

Teeson, Rear Admiral Douglas H. II, USCG (USCGA, 1965)

In the mid-1990s commanded the Coast Guard's Maintenance and Logistics Command, Atlantic, 427-428

Tenet, George J.

Served as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, 1997-2004, 605

Tennis

Commandant Paul Yost was an avid tennis player, which helped accomplish Coast Guard business in the late 1980s, 367-369

Terrorism

Involvement of the Coast Guard in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks of 11 September 2001, 326, 353, 557-564

Thatcher, Margaret

Former British Prime Minister who visited New York City in the mid-1990s, 434-435

Thompson, Vice Admiral Donald C., USCG (USCGA, 1952)

After missing selection for Commandant in 1986, served as Commander Atlantic Area, 332-333, 363

Thompson, Rear Admiral John F. Jr., USCG (USCGA, 1941)

Served 1970-73 as Superintendent of the Coast Guard Academy, 168

Thompson, Captain Kenneth W., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

Taught at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1970s, 171-172, 187-188
Served in the office of the Chief of Staff at Coast Guard Headquarters in the late 1980s, 337

Thompson, Cadet William H., USCG (USCGA, 1964)

Played football for the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 49, 59

Thorsen, Vice Admiral Howard B., USCG (USCGA, 1955)

Served 1989-91 as Commander Coast Guard Atlantic Area, 372-378
Role with the Coast Guard Foundation following retirement, 374

Total Quality Management

Something akin to it was used in the Coast Guard in the 1980s and 1990s, 364-365, 487-488

Training

Summer training cruises for Coast Guard Academy cadets in the early 1960s, 31-41, 45

Loy attended various schools en route his first commissioned service in the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) in 1964, 72-73

Of crew members on board the Absecon in the mid-1960s, 73-77, 80-83, 86-87, 92

Refresher training for Navy ships as part of the overall deployment cycle, 86-87

Loy received various types of training en route to command of the patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) in 1966, 110-115

Summer training cruises for Coast Guard Academy cadets in the early 1970s, 173-176

Refresher training for the crew of the medium endurance cutter Courageous (WMEC-622) at Little Creek, Virginia, in the mid-1970s, 207-208

In the mid-1970s, the Reserve Training Center, Yorktown, Virginia, hosted a number of training facilities, 223-240

Law enforcement training for the crew of the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621), 1979-81, 255

Officer of the deck training and qualification on board the Valiant, 255-256

Pre-deployment training of the battleship New Jersey (BB-62)'s battle group in 1985, 285-287, 292-296

Training of enlisted personnel in the early 1990s at various sites, 407-408

Transportation Department

Relationship of its top officials with the Coast Guard in the late 1980s, 312-319, 342, 368

Involvement in the Coast Guard budgeting process in the late 1990s, 474-478

Leadership of the department in the late 1990s-early 2000s, 496-506, 613-614

Transportation Security Administration

Use of computers in 2003, 206

Trans World Airlines

Explosion and loss of a TWA airliner near New York City in July 1996, 495-496, 555

Trost, Admiral Carlisle A. H., USN (USNA, 1953)

Interaction with the Coast Guard during his tenure in the late 1980s as Chief of Naval Operations, 344-345

Tugboats

The tug Thoreau's Vizier provided assistance after a collision between the tanker Burmah Agate and the freighter Mimosa in Galveston Harbor in November 1979, 252-253

Uniforms-Coast Guard

Fitting of for new cadets at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1960s, 42-43

Valiant*, USCGC (WMEC-621)

Operations in the Gulf of Mexico, 1979-81, 211-212, 246-263

Use of helicopters, 211-212

Enlisted members of the crew in the late 1970s-early 1980s, 247-248, 253-255

Involvement in the aftermath of a collision that sank the buoy tender Blackthorn (WLB-391) in Tampa Bay, Florida, in 1980, 248-250

Interception of drug smugglers, 253-255

Rescue cases in the Gulf of Mexico, 1979-81, 257-258

Ship handling, 258-259

Moored in the Potomac River off Washington, D.C., when Loy retired in 2002, 262

Vanderplas, Commander Stephen E., USCG

Served as speechwriter for the Coast Guard Commandant in the late 1990s, 524-526, 577

Venuto, Captain Kenneth T., USCG (USCGA, 1973)

Served in the late 1990s as executive assistant to Commandant Loy, 524, 578

Versaw, Rear Admiral Paul E., USCG (USCGA, 1961)

Served as Superintendent of the Coast Guard Academy, 1993-97, 442-443

Vessel Traffic Systems

The system in Valdez, Alaska, was not able to prevent the grounding and oil spill by the tanker Exxon Valdez in March 1989, 320-322

Vietnam War

In the late 1960s, as Commandant, Admiral Willard Smith visited Vietnam to observe Coast Guard operations, 46

Survival, evasion, resistance, and escape (SERE) training for U.S. servicemen headed for Vietnam in 1966, 111-115

Operations by the Point Lomas (WPB-82321) offshore in 1966-67, 46, 102-103, 108-111, 115-146

Rest and recreation leave for Loy and his wife Kay during a break in his 1966-67 command of the Point Lomas in Vietnam, 141

Navy Swift boats had difficulty operating during the monsoon season, 46, 111, 126

In August 1966 Air Force planes mistakenly strafed and bombed the Coast Guard patrol boat Point Welcome (WPB-82329) near Vietnam's demilitarized zone, 120-121, 128, 139

Shore bombardment by the cruiser Boston (CAG-1) in the mid-1960s, 127-128

The Coast Guard cutters Absecon (WHEC-374) and Chincoteague (WHEC-375) were turned over to the South Vietnamese Navy in 1972

Antiwar protests in the United States in the late 1960s-early 1970s, 131, 146, 153-154, 170

Per capita U.S. Coast Guard participation in the war, 169

Frustrations felt by Vietnam veterans, 145-146

Veterans vary in their willingness to speak of their experiences, 227-228

Future Army general Barry McCaffrey was badly wounded while a junior officer in Vietnam, 448-449

Von Raab, William

In the 1980s as Commissioner of the U.S. Customs Service, was involved in the war on drugs, 303-307, 330

Vorbach, Lieutenant Joseph E., USCG (USCGA, 1959)

In the mid-1960s served as operations officer and able mentor on board the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374), 73-77, 80-81, 87, 91

Vung Tau, South Vietnam

Served as base for Navy and Coast Guard patrol boats in the mid-1960s, 110-111, 122, 128-132, 136-137

Weather

Cold, snowy environment for President John F. Kennedy's inauguration in Washington in January 1961, 51-52

Observation and reporting by the high endurance cutter Absecon (WAVP-374) during ocean station patrols in the Atlantic in the mid-1960s, 77-78

Violent storm off Greenland in the mid-1960s, 78-79

Navy Swift boats had difficulty operating in the monsoon season during the Vietnam War, 46, 111, 126

The patrol boat Point Lomas (WPB-82321) protected a number of Marines in Danang, South Vietnam, during a heavy storm in the mid-1960s, 139-141

Hurricane avoidance by the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621) in the Gulf of Mexico, 1979-81, 256-257

Navigation in fog conditions by the Valiant in the early 1980s, 251, 258-259

Storms in the New Orleans-Gulf Coast area in the early 1990s, 392-394

Coast Guard Commandant's plane landed in snowy weather in Iceland around 2000, 601-603

Reaction of the Coast Guard after Hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans in August 2005, 562-563

Welling, Vice Admiral Paul A., USCG (USCGA, 1959)

Served in the early 1960s as a company officer at the Coast Guard Academy, 42

As Commander Coast Guard Atlantic Area in the early 1990s, 447-448

Wells, Commander Ronald A., USCG

Served as history department head at the Coast Guard Academy in the late 1960s-early 1970s, 152-153, 158-161

Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut

Loy studied history and other humanities subjects there in the late 1960s-early 1970s, 152-155, 157-159, 162, 170

Anti-Vietnam war protests, 170

White, Captain Roderick M., USCG (Ret.) (USCGA, 1950)

In the mid-1970s served as academic dean at the Coast Guard Academy, 184

Williams, Vice Admiral Kent H., USCG (USCGA, 1965)

Various duties as a flag officer, 378, 403-404, 462, 466-467, 489, 522

Winter, Ensign Brooke E., USCG (USCGA, 1978)

In the late 1970s served as a junior officer on board the medium endurance cutter Valiant (WMEC-621), 258

Wolf, Representative Frank R. (Republican, Virginia)

Relationships with the Coast Guard in the 1990s and 2000s, 512, 597-598

Women

First entered the Coast Guard Academy as cadets in 1976, 242-244, 587

In the mid-1970s the first female crew members joined the high endurance cutter Gallatin (WHEC-721), 299-300

Assignment of female officers by the Officer Personnel Division of Coast Guard Headquarters in the early 1980s, 267-270

Role of DACOWITS (Defense Department Advisory Committee on Women in the Services) in the 1980s and 1990s, 267-268, 480

Attitude of the Air Force Academy in the 1980s about integrating women into the student body, 268

Status of Coast Guard gender integration in the 1990s, 410-413, 481, 587-590

Cases of sexual harassment in the Coast Guard in the late 1990s, 480

The student body of the Coast Guard Academy was about one-third female as of the mid-2000s, 53, 300, 481, 587

Wood, Lieutenant Commander David V., USCG

Taught at the Coast Guard Academy in the early 1970s, 171-172, 187-188

YR-71

Navy repair barge based at Danang, South Vietnam, in 1966-67, 128-129

Yoest, Gerard P.

In the 1990s served as director of international affairs for the Coast Guard, 404, 472-473, 576-577

Yost, Admiral Paul A. Jr., USCG (USCGA, 1951)

Served in the early 1960s as a company officer at the Coast Guard Academy, 42

Service in the Vietnam War in the late 1960s, 307

Commander Eighth Coast Guard District, 1978-81, 248-250, 260-261

Served 1986-90 as Commandant, 151-152, 249, 287-288, 301-320, 386, 441, 446, 468-469, 474, 577

Personality and working style, 302-304, 307-310, 367-371

Instituted a change in culture in the Coast Guard in 1986 with his warrior approach and ban on beards, 307-310, 332-333, 355-359, 405

Relationship with the top officials of the Transportation Department, 312-319

Response to the March 1989 oil spill in Alaska by the commercial tanker Exxon Valdez, 315-316, 319-324

Staff members during his Commandant service, 328-373

Congressional testimony, 335-340

Role in flag officer assignments in the late 1980s, 366-367

Avid tennis player, which helped accomplish Coast Guard business, 367-369

Young, Representative Donald E. (Republican, Alaska)

Relationships with the Coast Guard in the 1990s and 2000s, 599-600

