

Index to Series of Interviews with Vice Admiral William Paden Mack
U. S. Navy (Retired)

Volume II

ABRAMS, Gen. B. B.: p. 606-7; p. 609; p. 611

AMPHIBIOUS GROUP 2: Mack takes command on May 15, 1966, p. 445-ff; the large scale amphibious exercise (BEACH TIME) on Vieques, p. 447-8; as receiving commander for SPACE recovery shots, p. 449-54; Mack called back to Washington to be Chief of Legislative Affairs for Secretary Nitze, p. 455; discussion of techniques since WW II for Amphibious operations, p. 456-8; the navy's alternatives to Culebra and Vieques, p. 459-60; discussion of command ships, p. 461-2; the ideal AGC, p. 462-3; the use of UDT's out of Norfolk, p. 463;

BAUMBERGER, VADM Walter H.: Taiwan Defense Commander at time of Mack's visit, p. 584-5;

BLANFORD, Brig, General Russ: Chief Counsel to the House Armed Services Committee, p. 470; has a role in killing the FDL proposal, p. 478;

BURKE, Admiral Arleigh: cancels out the proposed change in officer designations, p. 778 ff; p. 782 on dissent and expressions of opinion, p. 816-8;

CARL VINSON HALL: Mack accepts presidency of Carl Vinson Hall upon his retirement - also becomes head of Navy-Marine-Coast Guard Foundation that raises money for the Hall and other retirement homes, p. 844-6;

CHAFFE, The Hon. John H.: Secretary of the Navy - the unusual manner in which he handled the nomination of Zumwalt to become CNO, p. 540-1; his first day in office and first meeting with CNO and Chinfo, p. 571-3; p. 634-5;

CHINFO: Admiral Mack as Chinfo, p. 414 ff; leaking to the press, p. 417; conferences on roll-outs for major aircraft, p. 418-20; press conferences on the SCORPION and THRESHER, p. 420-1; p. 422; remarks about the Press, p. 420-8; the H-bomb accident in Spain, p. 428-30; responsibility for TV movies on the navy, p. 430-2; several difficulties with Mr. Sylvester over Hollywood products, p. 431-3; Combat Art, p. 434; movies for recruiting purposes, p. 435; p. 437; similar problems for other military services under Sylvester, p. 437; the Vietnamese propaganda stories, p. 437-8; problem of clearance for speeches of the Secretary, CNO, etc. p. 439-40; the great assistance rendered by reservists, p. 440-1; trying to coordinate speeches with publishing dead lines, p. 441-2; the navy develops a public affairs plan under Secretary Nitze, p. 443-4; Mack detached (May 1966) to command Amphibious Group 2 in the Atlantic, p. 445;

CLAREY, Admiral B. A.: CincPac Flt. p. 629-30; p. 633; p. 636;

CLEMENTS, The Hon. Wm.: Deputy Secretary of Defense - his study of the service Academies, p. 657-8; p. 694 ff; his bias for West Point, p. 696-7; influence of Colonel Dawkins on the Secretary, p. 696-7; Navy's Comdr. Fitzgerald at last has opportunity to aid the navy point of view, p. 698-702;

CNET (Chief of Naval Education and Training): Zumwalt's experiment in putting the Naval Academy under CNET, p. 638-43;

COLBERT, Admiral Richard Gary: p. 643-4;

CONNOLLY, VADM Thomas F.: his testimony on the F-111, p. 474-5;

CROWN, Robert: Chicago business executive - he and his family donate money for a sailing center at the Naval Academy, p. 764-5;

DANANG: see entry under: VIETNAM WAR

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE: the prevailing difficulties in the McNamara-Sylvester period for Chinfo. See entries under: CHINFO: McNAMARA: SYLVESTER, PRESS RELATIONS.

DMZ Line - Vietnam: p. 605-6; the line is breached (Apr. 1972) by the North Vietnamese, P- 608; p. 611;

DRUG ABUSE ISSUE: p. 525; Mack became DOD member of White House Drug Abuse Committee (Egil Krogh - chairman) , p. 526-7; Vietnam government officials claimed they were helpless to assist with the problem, p. 528; the President's proposal and and the impossibility of complying, p. 528-30;

a summary statement on drug abuse, p. 533-6;
the Drug-Abuse report and its acceptance,
p. 547-8;

USCGS EAGLE: sailing vessel of the Coast Guard Academy,
p. 767-8;

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY: a desire of the Nixon administration,
p. 498; the difficulties - example of J. P.
Stevens and Co. p. 499; p. 502-3; p. 517-8;

F-111 B: p. 418-20;

FDL (Fast Deployment Logistics Ship): McNamara pushes the idea of this very expensive concept, p. 475-6; the reason given by Nitze in calling Mack to duty as Legislative Affairs Chief, p. 475-6;

FELLOWES, Captain John H.: former POW - his role at the Naval Academy during superintendency of Admiral Mack, p. 713;

FRANKE, The Hon. Wm. B.: Secretary of the Navy, p. 779-81;
p. 784;

FROEHLKE, The Hon. Robert: Assistant Secretary of Defense for Installations and Logistics, p. 568-9;

GATES, The Hon. Thomas S.: instigates the proposed changes in officer designations, p. 779; p. 784;

GOULDING, Philip: replaces Sylvester as Assistant Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs, p. 414; p. 570;
he handles Drew Pearson, p. 575;

GROSVENOR, Captain Alexander G. B.: becomes head of sailing program at the Naval Academy and C.O. of the Naval Station, p. 764;

GROVES, General Leslie: his remarks on the A bomb in New York speech, p. 424-5;

GUINN, VADM. D. H.: Chief of Naval Personnel, p. 636-7;

HAIPHONG HARBOR: the mining of the Harbor, p. 616 ff; plan a product of the 7th fleet, p. 617-8; President Nixon's speech on TV determines actual time for mining harbor entrance, p. 618?

H-BOMB OFF SPANISH COAST: the accidental drop of the H-bomb, p. 428-9; the devious manner in which the Navy's rescue operation became known, p. 429;

HEBERT, The Hon. F. Edward: Chairman of House Military Affairs Committee - his opposition to the all-volunteer force, p. 513;

HERSEY, Major Gen. Louis B.: Director of Selective Service, p. 505-6;

HOLLOWAY, Admiral James L. Ill: relieves Mack as Comdr. 7th fleet - abrupt ceremony on the firing line, p. 622-3; p. 636-7; when he became CNO he changed the command relationship of the Naval Academy, p. 643; p. 648; as new CNO he asks Adm. Mack to retire because no 4-star job is available for another year, p. 649;

HOMEPORTING: Adm. Zumwalt's idea for homeporting certain ships in Japan; Adm. Mack implements his wishes - the problems involved, p. 589-92;

HONG KONG: p. 583-4;

JAPAN: importance of the 7th fleet to the Japanese, p. 582; p. 583;

JAPANESE MARITIME SELF DEFENSE FORCE: close contacts between Commander 7th fleet and senior officials of the Japanese navy, p. 594; Mack comments on the Japanese navy, attitudes, future problems, etc. p. 595-601; p. 631-2;

KELLEY, The Hon. Roger: Asst. Secretary of Defense for Manpower and Reserves - under Secy. Laird, p. 489-90; p. 506; p. 517; his education about the navy's program with Group 4*s, p. 522-3; p. 547-8; p. 552; when he first came to DOD he raised question as to why we were involved in Vietnam, p. 553; result was effort to inform the military WHY - in a political sense why were we involved, p. 554-5; his statement on the human goals of the Defense Department, p. 555; p. 566-7;

KOREA: importance of the 7th fleet to the Koreans, p. 582;

KROGH, Egil: Chairman of the White House Committee on drug abuse, p. 526-7; p. 529; p. 535;

LAIRD, The Hon. Melvin: Secretary of Defense, p. 490-1; approves of the new approach to the Reserves system, p. 501; p. 503; p. 523-4; the Zumwalt nomination as CNO, p. 540-1; his Blue Ribbon panel to streamline chain of command from White House to DOD, p. 543-546; Mack on streamlining within the DOD, p. 546-9; p. 565;

LAWRENCE, RADM Wm. P.: Superintendent of the Naval Academy, p. 707; reinstates the special course on the Professional Officer, p. 708; p. 714;

LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS - Chief of: Mack called back from fleet to serve as Chief - description of his duties, p. 464-5; refusal of Appropriations committees to permit any but navy's Comptroller present for budget hearings, p. 465-6; yearly routine in dealing with Congress, p. 467-70; task of getting right witnesses to appear before committees, p. 471-2; Rickover a law unto himself, p. 473; Mack on training men for this job, p. 481-3;

LIBBEY, Comdr. Miles Augustus III: Mack comments on his interest in becoming a sub-specialist in political affairs, p. 828-31;

LINEBACKER: code name for raids against North Vietnam - Haiphong and Hanoi, p. 613 ff; p. 621;

LINE OFFICER DESIGNATION: the story of the attempted change in the system - negated at the last moment by Admiral Burke, p. 779 ff;

LSD: an explanation of how it works on those not psychologically healthy, P- 531-2;

MacARTHUR, General Douglas: Mack points out manner in which the General violated the honor code of West Point in his later career, p. 693-4;

MACK, Vice Admiral Wm. P.: induces Secretary Nitze to let him out of job as Chief of Legislative Affairs, p. 478-9; informed he is to go as Deputy Asst. SecDef for Manpower and Reserve Affairs, Jan. 1969, p. 479; protests and told if he gets out of it the navy would lose interest in him, p.480; his ideas about jobs in Public Affairs, Legislative Affairs and line jobs in the Navy, p. 482-4; his efforts for sub-specialist categories, p. 484-5; Mack and naval aviation, p. 577-8; retired from the navy on Aug. 1, 1975, p. 842; planned to spend one-half time working for charity - one half for himself, p. 844; a trustee of the Naval Academy Foundation and the Alumni Association, p. 846; Vice Chairman Northlake Community Hospital in North Lake, Illinois, p. 846; other connections and duties, p. 847-8;

MANPOWER AND RESERVE AFFAIRS - Dept, of Defense: Mack named as Deputy Asst. Secretary in DOD, p. 479-80; Roger Kelley, the Assistant Secretary was delayed four months and Mack became acting, p. 490; the duties in this office, p. 492-3; armed forces radio and television system, p. 493; the health system for the services, p. 493; overseas school system, p. 493-4; equal opportunity affairs, p. 494; priorities Secy. Laird laid down, p. 494-5; a new pay study, p. 494 ff - also p. 503-5; the President's desire for an all-volunteer force, p. 495; in second year of Nixon Administration - cutting budget of the DOD, p. 518-19; growing problem with Group-4 enlistees, p. 521-2; problem of jobs for Veterans, p. 524-5; the drug abuse problem, p. 525-6; Mack's comments on the streamlining of action in Defense under Laird, p. 546-49; dealing with the ROTC program, p. 550 ff; effects of Vietnam on development of DOD manpower policies, p. 549 ff; a visitation of students and Mack's conversation with them about Vietnam, p. 552-3;

MARIJUANA: The report from the National Institutes of Health, p. 532-3;

McCAIN, Admiral John Sydney, Jr.: (Jack) CincPac - his delay in getting signal for the mining of Haiphong Harbor, p. 619; p. 621;

McKEE, VADM Kinnaird R.: p. 707;

McNAMARA, Robert Strange: Secretary of Defense - his tight rein over Sylvester - and resultant problems on public relations, p. 414-6; p. 428; p. 432; p. 444;

MOORER, Admiral Thomas H.: p. 574-5;

MOOT, The Hon. Robert: Assistant Secretary of Defense for Comptrollership, p. 568;

NATIONAL WAR COLLEGE: Mack's remarks after retirement to the students - on wisdom of being prepared for a second career, p. 819 ff; p. 843-4;

NASA: Amphibious Group 2 responsible for recovery of SPACE shots - the use of a monkey, p. 449-50; GEMINI X, p. 450; use of expensive and effective equipment, p. 450; NASA instructions to the navy, p. 451-4;

U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY: Mack named as Superintendent, p. 621-2; p. 626-7; arrives at academy, p. 633 ff; p. 637; Zumwalt puts the Academy under the Chief of Naval Education and Training, p. 637-43; Mack tries to make plan work in spite of unanimous opposition of Board of Visitors, p. 640 ff; Mack's prior knowledge of the Naval Academy, p. 651-2; areas ripe for reform, p. 654-5; also p. 658; military vs civilian instructors, p. 655-7; race relations and the Naval Academy, the Zumwalt policy, p. 673-4; also p. 678-9; the special course on "The Professional Officer - A Human Person," p. 675-7; also p. 716 ff; the effort to provide professional attainment for every Academy graduate, p. 681-4; Mack's major steps as Superintendent - p. 684; strengthen science and math curriculum, p. 684; getting all students qualified professionally, p. 684; ridding academy of practice of "silly stuff," p. 684-5; first class given responsibility for plebe summer, p. 686-7; naval academy honor system, p. 690-2; p. 701; p. 704-5; women at the naval academy, p. 715-22; improvement of the curriculum, p. 722 ff; Mack's personal experience in the Navy from the old 4-stackers to present technicalities has bearing on his concept of curriculum, p. 726-7; preparation of the future PAO on board ship and in the navy, p. 729-31; contrasting background of the Naval Academy graduate and the West Pointer, p. 732-5; a broad background - other than technical - is acquired outside the Academy, p. 736; the Burke Scholars, p. 736-8; summer cruises, p. 738-746; athletes - the help of the Foundation, p. 747 ff; the selection of George Welsh to be football coach, p. 748-51; general attitude of average brigade member towards varsity teams, p. 751-2; funding of athletics, p. 753-4; Naval Academy Foundation, p. 756 ff; the sailing program, p. 759-68; the lynchpin is the football team, p. 769; teamwork and athletics, p. 769 ff; the Army-Navy game, p. 772-3; aviation summer, p. 774; submarine summer training - marine training, p. 774; plebe summer - purpose, p. 775-6; the five year obligation to remain in the navy after graduation, p. 790-2; the science seminar at the Academy for high school grads, p. 793-4; the international affairs seminar, p. 796-7; Mack's comments on the gradualness of change at the Academy, p. 800-2; the Chapel, p. 810 ff; the change over from compulsory attendance at chapel to voluntary, p. 810-814; comments on right to dissent - to express opinions, p. 814-9; Mack's testimony in the Berg Case - to the effect that this young man had met the qualifications of the Academy - was certified by the Academic Board to graduate and be commissioned, p. 840-1; Mack's summary of building program, p. 803-807;

U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY - BUILDING PROGRAM: Admiral Mack's summary of the status of things when he came as Superintendent - subsequent developments, p. 803-7;

NAVAL ACADEMY FOUNDATION: p. 756-7; the trustees, p. 758;

U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY - SAILING ASSOCIATION: p. 762; Mack's motivation for the establishment of the Association, p. 762-3; Captain Grosvenor becomes C.O. of the naval station and head of the sailing program, p. 764;

U. S. NAVAL INSTITUTE: Mack a member of the Board of Control for twelve years, p. 831 ff;

USS NEW JERSEY: her usefulness in Vietnam bombardments, p. 613 ff;

NITZE, The Hon. Paul: Secretary of the Navy - his insistence on a public affairs plan for the navy, p. 443; wanted Mack to take a cruiser division when he left Chinfo, p. 445; calls Mack from fleet to serve as Chief of Legislative Affairs, p. 455 ff; Adm. Connolly reports to him about this testimony on the F-111, p. 475; McNamara orders Nitze to sell the FDL proposal to the Congress, p. 475-6;

NIXON, The Hon. Richard M.: the President's insistence on the equal opportunity provisions of the law, p. 497-500,* his anger over drug addiction and the military - his order in the matter - and Mack's response, p. 528-9; accomplishments during his administration in military matters, p. 549-50; Nixon and the DMZ in Vietnam, p. 613;

NIXON DOCTRINE; for the protection of the SEATO nations, p. 581-2; p. 586; p. 600;

O'CONNOR, The Rev. John (Captain - Navy chaplain): co-creator of the course on the "Professional Officer and the Human Person", p. 675; p. 706; p. 714;

USS OKLAHOMA CITY: flagship of the 7th fleet - visit of the Japanese chairman of their JCS, p. 600-2; p. 606-8; Mack gets word in Yokosuka that DMZ has been breached - speeds to Tonkin Gulf, p. 608; p. 614;

OKUBO, Takeo: first director general of the Japanese Maritime Safety Agency, p. 594;

PACKARD, The Hon. David: Deputy Secretary of Defense, p. 489; p. 566;

PEARSON, Drew: p. 575-6;

POLARIS: p. 784 ff;

POWs: the influence exerted in the navy today - impact of their experiences, p. 709-12;

PREMINGER, Otto: his movie - "In Harm's Way", disapproved by Sylvester, p. 433;

PRESS RELATIONS: p. 420-1; accountability, p. 422-4; the illustration of Gen. Groves speech about the A bomb, p. 424-6; the policy of papers they represent governs the attitude of reporters, p. 427-8;

PROFESSIONAL REQUIREMENTS: see entries under: U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY

PROJECT 100,000: the policy of President Lyndon Johnson for the military services to utilize one hundred thousand recruits with low mental attainments, p. 521-2;

PROMOTIONS IN U. S. NAVY: p. 486-8; difficulties enhanced by rapid promotion system, p. 488-9;

RABORN, VADM Wm. F., Jr: p. 784; words of praise for his achievement with the POLARIS project, p. 784-790;

RACE RELATIONS: see entries under: U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY

RECRUITING: money put into new barracks to improve living conditions - p. 511;

RESERVES: p. 500; calling up reserves - the new system of providing first class equipment, p. 556-9; reserves in WW II, p. 560-2; the ready reserve, p. 563-4;

RICKOVER, Admiral Hyman: his cautious attitude towards news on the SCORPION and THRESHER, p. 420-1; a law unto himself with Congressional Committees, p. 473; p. 652; p. 654; his ideal for the Naval Academy regimen, p. 658-9; his method of selecting Naval Academy men for his program, p. 659-64; p. 667; Secy Warner decrees the new engineering laboratory at the Naval Academy shall be named RICKOVER HALL, p. 668; the ceremony, p. 669-70; additional comments on Rickover, p. 671-3; p. 702-4; p. 707; p. 724; p. 755; p. 786; p. 787-8 ; Rickover urges Adm. Mack to get the "best young brains" into the Academy, p. 793 ff; the science seminar, p. 795-6;

RIVERS, The Hon. Mendel: Chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, p. 470; his opposition kills the FDL proposal of McNamara, p. 478; p. 792; p. 795-6; p. 797;

SCHLESINGER, The Hon. James: Secretary of Defense, p. 647-49;

USS SCORPION: press conference covering, p. 420-1;

SEATO: The SEATO nations and the 7th fleet, p. 481-2; p. 586; p. 600;

SEVENTH FLEET: Chinfo builds a press staff in Vietnam through the 7th fleet, p. 416-7; Zumwalt names Mack to command the 7th fleet - the first non-aviator, p. 543; p. 576-7; extent of Mack's briefing before taking over, p. 578-9; the matter of Japanese customs, his navy sword and change of command ceremonies, p. 580; importance of 7th fleet to SEATO nations, p. 581-4; visit to Taiwan, p. 584-6; Mack uses occasion to reassure government of Taiwan, p. 586-7; problem of fleet base at Yokosuka, p. 588-9; obligations for intelligence collection in Sea of Japan, p. 592-3; year 1972 sees a build-up in operations in area of Vietnam, p. 602-3; a "day to remember" - p. 603-5; difficulties placed on Mack to remain in Vietnamese waters in anticipation of developments, p. 606-7; the big build-up in Tonkin Gulf after DMZ has been breached, p. 609-11; Linebacker, p. 613 ff; story of the mining of Haiphong Harbor, p. 616 ff; Holloway relieves Mack on board the OKLAHOMA CITY as she interrupts firing against the enemy, p. 622; nature of naval war against the North Vietnamese, p. 623 ff; Mack asks to stay on as 7th fleet commander until official change of command could be arranged for Holloway and Japanese officials could attend, p. 629-30; request denied, p. 630-32;

STENNIS, The Hon. John C.: Senator from Mississippi - Chairman of Senate Armed Services Committee, p. 470; Mack sells him on concept of the FDL, p. 477; his opposition to the all-volunteer force, p. 512-3; p. 644-5; p. 650;

J. P. STEVENS CO: The textile company forced to comply with Equal Opportunity provisions of the law, p. 499;

STRATTON, The Hon. Sam - member of congress: conducted an "end run" around the House Armed Services Committee to get women in the Naval Academy, p. 718-20;

SUB-SPECIALISTS IN NAVY: a new concept of duty in the U. S. Navy, p. 484-5;

SYLVESTER, Arthur: Assistant Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs, p. 414; his attitude on public information about Vietnam, p. 415-6; p. 420; p. 428; p. 430-1; his strong opposition to several movies involving the navy, p. 431-3; p. 442; his resistance to the development of a DOD public affairs plan, p. 444;

TAIWAN: Mack's visit came just after announcement of President Nixon's forthcoming trip to Red China, p. 584-5;

USS THRESHER: press conference covering, p. 420-1;

TURNER, Admiral Stansfield: p. 634-5; p. 650;

VIETNAM: propaganda, p. 437-8; p. 446; the resentment that built up in the United States, p. 549-50; the ROTC program, p. 550 ff; repercussions felt in the DOD, p. 552-3; The Vietnam War and the 7th fleet, p. 602 ff; restraints placed by Washington on U. S. forces vis-a-vis the DMZ, p. 605-6; p. 610-13;

VOLUNTEER FORCE - FOR ARMED SERVICES: the President's Council headed by Mr. Gates, p. 495; the plan to train and use Vietnamese and so reduce the draft, p. 496-7; p. 505-6; discussion of All Volunteer Force vs the draft, p. 506 ff; opposition of Senator Stennis and Cong. Hebert, p. 512-3; prognosis for the future, p. 514-5; discussion of the navy's problem, p. 516-7;

WARNER, The Hon. John: Secretary of the Navy - p. 644; p. 648-50;

WEST POINT (The United States Military Academy): p. 687-90; the West Point honor system, p. 692-3; Gen. MacArthur's violation of the system in later career, p. 693-4; Secretary Clements desire that Naval Academy change over systems and practices to be more like West Point, p. 696-7; after the cheating scandal West Point comes around to Navy's honor system, p. 699-700; background of the West Pointer contrasted with the academy ensign, p. 732-3;

WELSH, George: selected as football coach at the Naval Academy - his method of building a team, p. 748-51;

WESTMORELAND, General Wm.: his control of press affairs in Vietnam, p. 416-7; p. 438; his initial opposition to the all-volunteer force, p. 512;

YOKOSUKA: Zumwalt's idea for homeporting certain U. S. ships - Japanese desire to use the port as a fleet base for their naval units - also to expend facilities for merchant ship building, p. 588-92; p. 631-3;

ZUMWALT, Admiral Elmo: his nomination to be CNO - as handled by Secretary Chafee, p. 540-2; his request that Mack as Cine 7th fleet resolve the matter of the U. S. base at Yokosuka - also to homeport a carrier and DD's in Japan, p. 588-9; names Mack as Superintendent of the Naval Academy, p. 621-2; denies request of Mack to remain in 7th fleet until an official ceremony could be arranged with Japanese present for change of command, p. 629-30;

p. 634-6; p. 644; p. 646-7; p. 650; p. 673;
p. 801;

