

INDEX
to
Volume I

Reminiscences of Admiral John S. Thach
U. S. Navy (Retired)

AERIAL GUNNER: Thach comments on certain techniques to employ, p. 54-6;

ALEUTIANS: p. 86-7; Thach's adventures in the island chain, (June-July 1935), p. 86 ff;

ARNOLD, Rear Admiral Murr Edward: Air Officer of YORKTOWN - briefs air groups before Midway, p. 227-8; p. 235;

B-17s: how they figured in Battle of Midway - Thach's meeting with press in Boston and Washington, D.C., p. 301 ff;

BAKA BOMB: p. 389-90; p. 459-60;

BAUGHMAN, Commodore Cortlant C.: skipper of USS CINCINNATI (1936), p. 96 ff; story of Baughman and towing of a sleeve for firing from ship, p. 102-4; the Ollie Bomb, p. 104-5; p. 108;

BETTY: the first sketch of this Japanese bomber of WWII, p. 198-9; destruction of planes on field in Hokkaido - planes configured to carry baka bombs, p. 459-60;

BOEING AIRCRAFT: early plane types, p. 59-60;

BOGAN, VADM GERALD: p. Up. p. 34; p. 37; p. 49; p. 50;

BRETT, Capt. James Henry Jr.: in command of torpedo planes from LEXINGTON, p. 202 ff; his use of glider plane knowledge to get his planes over the Owen Stanley range, p. 204-6;

BROWN, Admiral Charles R. (Cat.): p. 166; p. 168;

BURKE, Admiral Arleigh A.: Thach assigned as special assistant to Burke who was Chief of Staff to Mitscher, p. 317 ff; p. 325-6; p. 353;

BURROUGHS, Everett: gunnery officer - staff of Adm. Halsey, p. 164-5;

USS CABOT: p. 321;

USS CALIFORNIA: p. 30;

USS CANBERRA: cruiser hit by Japanese torpedo plane out from Formosa, p. 370; p. 373;

CANTON, China: air attacks on during South China Sea Operation, p. 420-1;

CAST RECOVERY METHOD: p. 105-7;

CATAPULT TAKE-OFFS: p. 107-8;

USS CINCINNATI: p. 96 ff; p. 109;

CLOSE AIR SUPPORT: Thach's comments on value of, p. 336-8;

COCO SOLO, Canal Zone: p. 78-93; p. 109 ff;

COOK, Rear Admiral A. B.: Commanded Naval Air Advanced Training Command, Pensacola (1942), p. 285; p. 292-4;

DIBB, Lt. Ram: wingman for Thach in VF-3 at Battle of Midway, p. 247; p. 250; p. 269;

DISNEY, Walt: his cooperation in developing animated training films for the Navy at Jacksonville, Florida, p. 284 ff; detailed process of making the films for Jacksonville, p. 286-9;

DOWNING, Lt. Art: guides SS to rescue of pilot in Morotai harbor, p. 354-5; p. 388;

DOYLE, Admiral Arthur (Artie): p. 383;

DUCKWORTH, VADM Herbert Spencer (Ducky): p. 40; p. 48-49; p. 52-3; air officer on LEXINGTON, p. 199-200;

EMILY: a Japanese patrol plane in WWII, p. 187-8; p. 192;

USS ENTERPRISE: VF-3 goes aboard, p. 158-9; Battle of Midway, p. 226 ff;

FELT, Admiral H. D. (Don): p. 133; p. 145;

FISHER, Bubbles: fighter pilot with VF-6, p. 44-5;

FITCH, Admiral Aubrey Wray: in command of carrier division - SARATOGA is flagship, p. 175; his attitude towards order to withdraw from Wake Island area, p. 176; p. 209;

FLETCHER, Admiral Frank Jack: Commander, Task Force 17 in Battle of Midway, p. 226 ff;

FLATLEY, Vice Admiral James Henry Jr. (Jimmy): p. 156; p. 212-213; p. 282; his idea for use of animated films for training purposes, p. 282; p. 284-5;

Thach recommends him as Operations Officer to Mitscher when Mitscher returns to command of Fast Carriers, p. 406; ease in making transition from Mitscher to McCain because of close friendship of Flatley and Thach, p. 445-7;

FORMOSA; air attack on in preparation for Leyte Gulf landing, p. 359; Japanese torpedo plane attack on the CANBERRA and HOUSTON, p. 370-1; attacks on in preparation for Linguayan and Luzon landings, p. 410-11

FRAN: name given Japanese Torpedo bomber (version of the earlier EMILY)
p. 313-4;

USS GANNET: BIRD class tender, p. 87;

GAYLOR, Admiral Noel A.M.: p. 192-3; 205-6; p. 301-2;

GEORGE: name given a hi ah speed Japanese fighter that appeared late in 1944, p. 377;

GRAFMUELLER, Lt. Albert M.: in charge of logistics planning on staff of Admiral McCain, p. 341-2;

GRUMMAN: early plane types, p. 59-60;

GUAM: amphibious landing on, p. 336-8;

GULF OF TEHUANTEPIC: p. 122; p. 127;

HALSEY, Fleet Admiral Wm. F. Jr.: p. 159-160; p. 219-20; p. 357-8;
Thach's defense of Halsey's action in San Bernadino
Straits, p. 387-8; p. 407; p. 410; p. 423-4; the typhoon,
p. 431 ff; Thach's comments on Halsey's good relations with McCain, p. 438-41; relieves Spruance again in May,
1945, p. 445;

USS HANCOCK: damaged by a bomb from one of her planes landing on deck
(1945), p. 427-9;

HARVEY, Lt. Comdr. Sid: p. 96; p. 138-9; p. 145;

HEAN, Comdr. J. H.: Ordnance Officer on staff of Admiral McCain, p. 342;

HELL DIVERS: film made by MGM with VF-1 cooperating and starring Wallace
Beery and Clark Gable with Duckworth, Southwick and Thach featured, p. 40-41;

HIRUNA - Japanese BB: reported sunk by Colin Kelly in B-17, p. 304-5; p.
307;

HOKKAIDO, Japan: T.F. 38 attack on targets in mid 1945, p. 459-61; Bettys configured to carry baka bomb, p. 459-60; train ferries,
p. 460; T.F. use of typhoon to follow in and attack enemy installations on the ground, p. 461;

HONG KONG: air attacks on during South China Sea Operation, p. 420-1;

HOOVER, Admiral John (Genial John): p. 133-5; p. 145;

USS HORNET: her participation in Battle of Midway, p. 226 ff; p. 258;

USS HOUSTON: cruiser hit by Japanese torpedo plane out from Formosa, p. 370; p. 373;

JACK PATROL: p. 395-6; origin of the name, p. 396;

JAPANESE MAINLAND: T.F. 38 discovers new, aggressive fighters over mainland - a new plane and new techniques, p. 451-5; raids on Hokkaido, p. 458; attack on special Bettys that carried the baka bomb, p. 459-60;

KAMIKAZE: first attack on a carrier, p. 389; a special kind of guided missile, p. 389; U. S. defense against developed - in last two months of war no carrier was hit, p. 396; jack patrols, p. 395-6; 3 strike system, p. 401-5;

KELLY, Colin: p. 304-5;

KING, Fleet Admiral Ernest: p. 60; p. 79-80; VADM McCain (and Thach) call on him in Washington (1945), p. 437-8; p. 444.

KURITA, Admiral T. (Japanese): 385, p. 387;

USS LANGLEY: damaged by bomb (Jan. 1945), p. 426;

LANPHIER, Tom: shot down the plane with Adm. Yamamoto, p. 221-2;

LEGASPI LINE: drawn by MacArthur to designate areas for the Army Air Force and Naval Air, p. 400; p. 406-7;

LESLIE, Rear Admiral Maxwell F.: Commander Dive Bombing Squadron on YORKTOWN at Battle of Midway, p. 229 ff; p. 257;

USS LEXINGTON: p. 175; VF Squadron 3 goes aboard her after SARATOGA is torpedoed - departs in Feb. 1942 for South Pacific, p. 180-1 ff; Japanese bomber attack on her, p. 192 ff; p. 209; p. 212; the (NEW) LEXINGTON is launched in Boston Navy Yard - Thach invited to comment on design of new equipment pertaining to fighter aircraft, p. 299-300; Thach attends launching, p. 300-1; Thach joins Mitscher flagship (Apr. 1944) in time for attacks on Saipan, Tinian and Guam, p. 312 ff; p. 328; p. 367;

LEYTE GULF: the decision for Leyte landings - MacArthur influenced by Halsey, p. 357-9; McCain's Task Force joins Task Force 38 for Leyte operation, p. 379; p. 397-8;

LONGSTRETH, Lt. Thacher: on staff of Adm. McCain, p. 344-5; his desire to be dropped behind lines in China - McCain did not approve, p. 418;

LOVELACE, Lt. Comdr. Donald Alexander: p. 192; p. 199-200; joins Thach in training activities at Pearl Harbor, p. 212; p. 220; the accident that caused his death, p. 223-5;

LUZON: becomes the air target in December, 1944 - use of blanket method, p. 408; p. 410-11;

MacARTHUR, General Douglas: p. 357-8; p. 398; p. 400; p. 407; McCain calls on him, p. 449-50;

USS MADDOCKS: hit by enemy bomb (Jan. 1945), p. 426;

MARIANAS TURKEY SHOOT: comments on, p. 319 ff; Mitscher's order to turn on lights for returning planes, p. 326 ff;

MASSEY, Lt. Comdr. Lance Edward (Lem): Commanding Officer, Torpedo Squadron #3 on YORKTOWN at Battle of Midway, p. 229 ff; p. 247; his plane explodes, p. 247;

MASTER BOMBER - qualifications for designation as, p. 113-5;

MAZARU, Japan: port on west coast of Honshu - target of T.F. 38 planes in mid 1945, p. 445; rescue of two pilots by PBY, p. 445-6; award given the army pilot, p. 456-7;

McCAIN, Vice Admiral John Sydney: p. 309; invited Thach to be his Operations Officer in the Pacific, p. 310-311; p. 340; p. 347-8; serves first as Task Force Commander before taking over from Adm. Mitscher, p. 349-50; Thach contrasts him with Mitscher, p. 351-2; Thach's duties on his staff, p. 360-1; p. 365; p. 370; p. 374; ordered to Ulithi - hears distress calls of escort carriers off Leyte and returns to give aid, p. 380-1; account of manner in which they took the scout planes aboard carriers at high speed, p. 381-5; relieves Mitscher (Oct. 1944), p. 389; p. 413; p. 418; the typhoon, p. 423-5; refueling in preparation for South China Sea operation, p. 431-4; takes Thach with him on Washington trip after being relieved by Mitscher (Jan. 1945) - calls on Adm. King - assured he will stay in Fast Carrier Command with Mitscher, p. 437-8; his good relations with Halsey, p. 438-41; McCain and Thach, p. 441 ff; relieves Mitscher again in May, 1945, p. 445; calls on MacArthur (with Thach) in Manila - also Commodore Sullivan, p. 449-5; McCain refuses to let Thach lead a strike over Japanese mainland, p. 453-4; p. 456;

McCLUSKY, Rear Admiral Clarence Wade Jr.: leader of ENTERPRISE air group attack at Battle of Midway, p. 254; p. 256;

McNAMARA, The Hon. Robert S.: his attitude towards practice with live torpedoes, p. 207;

MIDWAY, BATTLE OF: participation of Thach and his fighter squadron on the YORKTOWN in the Battle of Midway, p. 226 ff; the Army claims success of B-17s in the battle, p. 280; Thach's press conferences in Boston and Washington, D.C. dealing with navy successes at Midway, p. 301 ff;

MILLER, Rear Admiral H. B. (Min): p. 301;

USS MISSISSIPPI: Thach assigned to her upon graduation, p. 27; Thach takes elimination course in aviation, p. 28-29;

MITSCHER, Admiral Marc: p. 258-9; Thach assigned to his staff while awaiting arrival of Adm. McCain, p. 311-12; p. 325-6; Thach's characterization of him, p. 350-1; averse to the launching of night fighters, p. 366-7; p. 370; p. 406; his reluctance to adopt innovative ideas, p. 446-7;

MOORE, Rear Admiral Edward Peerman (Country): at the Test Center, NAS Norfolk, p. 66-67; p. 71-2; p. 166; p. 168; p. 170;

MOROTAI: The rescue of pilot in the harbor, p. 354-5;

MUSHASHI - Japanese Battleship: bombing attack on her, p. 388;

MYRT: a very high level Japanese scouting plane that appeared late in 1944, p. 377;

U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY: Thach's appointment, p. 9-11; his reactions to Academy, p. 12; story of the coal burner cruise ship, p. 17-22; how he came to be called Jimmy, p. 23-24; aviation summer, p. 25-6;

NAS, NORFOLK: Thach assigned to experimental division, p. 57-58; p. 66; experiments with torpedo plane, p. 67-9; experiments with patrol seaplane, p. 69-74; experiments with 4-engined plane (XP2H-1), p. 75-81; exhaustion from long flight, p. 84-5;

NAVAL AIR ADVANCED TRAINING COMMAND: Thach reports (1942) as Asst. Training Officer under RADM A. B. Cook, p. 285 ff; use of Disney films, p. 285 ff; Thach has task of designing and producing 10 films, p. 286-296; Thach works on development of training devices, p. 297-9; Thach's comments on training in general, Japanese pilot training, etc. p. 334-6;

NAVAL AVIATION; Thach takes the elimination course p. 28-29; ordered to Pensacola for training, (4929), p. 30; p. 32-33; p. 36;

NIMITZ, Fleet Admiral Chester; ordered attack on shipping at Hong Kong, etc. p. 421-; p. 431-3;

NORDEN BOMB SIGHT: p. 114-5;

OGE (Orders for Gunnery Exercises): p. 43-4;

O'HARE, Lt. Comdr. Edward Henry: (Butch)p, 142-3; p. 152; p. 154; p. 182-3; p. 188; his role in Japanese bomber attack on USS LEXINGTON, p. 192 ff; p. 205; p. 214; gets Congressional Medal of Honor - takes over Squadron from Thach, p. 281; p. 283-4;

OKINAWA: air attack on in preparation for landing at Leyte Gulf, p. 358-9; p. 447; Thach's comments about being tied to one spot and being vulnerable to the enemy as a result, p. 448;

OLLIE BOMB: the genesis of the bomb, p. 104-5;

OWEN STANLEY MOUNTAINS - New Guinea: p. 201-2; Brett's exploit in taking torpedo planes from LEXINGTON over the mountain range, p. 204-6;

OZAWA, Vice Admiral J. (Japanese): p. 87;

PATROL SQUADRON 5 F: stationed at Coco Solo - engaged in experimental work with flares, p. 109-11; supplied with new PBVs, p. 121-2;

PATROL SQUADRON 9: p. 85; Thach attached from July, 1934 to June, 1936; p. 86; flight to the Aleutians, p. 86-94;

PEARL HARBOR: comments on exercises prior to Japanese attack that involved attacks on Hawaii, p. 170-171; the SARATOGA arrives five days after the Japanese attack, p. 173-5; p. 261-2;

PELELIU ISLAND: operation against, p. 346 ff; Bloody Nose Hill, p. 349;

PENSACOLA: see entry under NAVAL AVIATION.

PILOT TRAINING - in HAWAII: Thach put in command of special training program prior to Battle of Midway, p. 209 ff; teaching the Army pilots to use the P-39 in an overhead approach, p. 213-4; the first exchange pilot with the Army, p. 214-5;

RABAUL: early plan for air attack on island from LEXINGTON, p. 181-2; p. 200-1;

RADFORD, Admiral Arthur: relieves Bogan as Commander of High Hat Squadron, p. 60-65; backs Thach in promoting animated training films, p. 285; p. 295-6;

RAMSEY, Vice Admiral Paul H.: p. 162-3; given command of Thach's squadron on the LEXINGTON - while Thach remains in Pearl Harbor to train new pilots, p. 209-211;

ROBINSON, The Hon. Joseph T.: Senator from Arkansas, p. 10

SALUMAUA and LAE: Japanese landing there, p. 201 ff; the torpedo attack on Japanese cruisers there, p. 206;

USS SANDPIPER: BIRD class tender, p. 87; p. 92;

USS SARATOGA: p. 51; aerial gunnery, p. 54-6; VF-3 aboard her (1941), p. 157; p. 170; she sails for Pearl Harbor on Dec. 8, 1941, p. 172 becomes flagship of Adm. Fitch, p. 175; torpedoed on patrol off Hawaii, p. 178-9;

SCOUTING SQUADRON 6 B: Thach goes to this squadron in 1936 - based on USS CINCINNATI, p. 95 ff;

SOUTH CHINA SEA OPERATION: p. 409 ff; Halsey's hope for a last ditch fight with Japanese fleet remnants, p. 410-11; p. 417 ff; attacks on Canton and Hong Kong, p. 420; Japanese losses, p. 421-3;

SOUTHWICK, Rear Admiral Edward Page: (Bud) p. 40; p. 48-49;

SPRUANCE, Admiral Raymond: p. 227 ff; Spruance asks Thach to report when he lands on ENTERPRISE after loss of YORKTOWN, p. 278; declines suggestion of Thach that he should pursue the Japanese naval force, p. 278-9; p. 439; Thach's comments on Spruance's prevention of carriers from pursuing Japanese fleet off Saipan, p. 323 ff; p. 331;

STANLEY, Lt. j.g. Henry B.: skipper of VP-9 in the Aleutians, p. 86;

SULLIVAN, Rear Admiral Wm. A.: his job of salvage in Manila harbor - McCain and Thach call on him, p. 449-50;

TACLOBEN: p. 381; p. 384-5; p. 398;

TASK FORCE 38: McCain takes over from Mitscher (Oct. 25, 1944), p. 289; one of first orders put out by McCain had to do with defense against enemy suicide attacks, p. 391-4; development of 'jack patrols' against enemy torpedo attacks at dusk, p. 395-6; the 3-strike system developed, p. 401-2; McCain takes Task Force from Okinawa to Leyte Gulf in preparation for raids on Japanese mainland, p. 449; p. 451

TASK FORCE 38.1: McCain's command under Mitscher - see entries under John Sydney McCain; the development of operations plans, p. 361 ff;

THACH, VADM James Harmon, Jr.: p, 23-24; joint duty of two brothers in the CALIFORNIA, p, 30-32;

THACH, Admiral John S.: background information p. 1-9; the Thach family at home in Fordyce, Arkansas, p. 32, playing games. p. 48-49; takes command of VF-3 as Lieutenant - becomes Lt. Comdr. Jan. 1942, p. 139-40; invited to attend launching of new LEXINGTON - after which he was awarded DSM, 1st Navy Cross and A Gold wtar in lieu of 2nd, p. 301 ff; subsequent meeting with Washington, D.C. press, p. 303-7; a review of his rank status, p. 309; his lucky escape from disaster due to bomb explosion on HANCOCK, p. 426-7; Thach and Adm. McCain, p. 441 ff; his friendship with VADM J. H. Flatley, p. 445-6;

THACH WEAVE: how Thach conceived this fighting technique, p. 146 ff; p. 155-156; p. 208; p. 238-9; use of Weave at Battle of Midway, p. 247-8;

THORBURN, Lt. Don: on staff of McCain at P.R. officer, p. 345-6;

THREE STRIKE SYSTEM: Thach develops another defense against kamikaze, p. 401-5; also called the 'thatched roof', the 'Big Blue Blanket' and the 'constant cap', p. 413; statistics on success of system, p. 414-7;

TOOTLE, III, Ensign: figures in attack of planes from YORKTOWN in Battle of Midway, p. 268-9;

TORPEDOES: proved to be duds in aerial torpedo attack on Japanese ships at Salamaua and Lae, p. 206-7;

TYPHOON (Cobra - Dec. 1944), p. 430 ff.

ULITHI: p. 380; p. 437;

VF-1 (High Hat Squadron): Thach as number one in class at Pensacola requests fighter squadron, p. 36; explanation for name of squadron, p. 38; formation flying, p. 39; p. 60-3;

VF SQUADRON 3: Thach ordered to Felix Cat Squadron, p. 132 ff; orders for gunnery exercises, p. 135-6; the camera gun, p. 137-8; Thach becomes commander of squadron, p. 139-40; some training techniques, p. 140-2; problem with oil seal leaks, p. 157-8; Halsey gives them chance for practice - excuses squadron from Fleet problem participation, p. 159-60; how they acquired necessary ammo for practice, p. 162-4; transfer of squadrons .50 calibre guns to Marines for use on Wake Island, p. 164-5; attached to USS LEXINGTON after torpedo attack on USS SARATOGA, p. 180-1; attack on Japanese EMILY off Rabaul, p. 183 ff; Fitch takes squadron on LEXINGTON but leaves Thach back at Pearl to train new flyers, - VF3 goes under command of Paul Ramsey, p. 210-210; participation in BATTLE OF MIDWAY, p. 226 ff;

WAKE ISLAND: Japanese attack - withdraw! of U. S. carriers, p. 175-7;

WEAD, Comdr. Frank Wilbur (Spig): author of HELL DIVERS, p. 39-40;

WILLIAWAW: p. 93-4;

USS WRIGHT: p. 82; p. 85; flagship for Wing Commander of Patrol Planes, p. 85; p. 130;

USS YORKTOWN: Joins LEXINGTON for attack on Japanese at Salamaua and Lae, p. 201 ff; p. 220; participation at Battle of Midway, p. 226 ff; the attack on the YORKTOWN, p. 266 ff;

ZERO: name of Japanese fighter plane - first intelligence report on ZERO - how Thach worked to offset superiority of this plane, p. 146; p. 152; p. 174; p. 233; ZERO attack on 6 U. S. fighters in Midway Battle, p. 245-6 ff.

