

Index to the Oral History of Vice Admiral William I. Martin, U.S. Navy (Retired)

AJ Savage

Aircraft developed in the late 1940s for delivery of nuclear weapons, 91-92

Air Development Squadron Six (VX-6)

In 1961 a ski-equipped LC-130 from the squadron rescued an ill Russian scientist from Antarctica, 187-188

Air Force, U.S.

Controversial congressional hearings in 1949 about the B-36 bomber, 105-115

In the late 1950s ran the DEW Line and North American Air Defense Command to detect incoming Soviet bombers, 182-186, 208

Storage of inactive aircraft at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base in Arizona, 219-220

Navy opposition to Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara's attempts in the 1960s to make the TFX a carrier plane, 250-257, 263-264

Airships

Martin and CNO Admiral Arleigh Burke rode a blimp in the mid-1950s, 244-245

Blimps had advantages for ASW but also drawbacks, 245-246

Alcohol

During World War II, pilots drank on board aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6) to relax after missions, 74-76

America, USS (CVA-66)

News media representatives boarded the ship during the Six-Day War of June 1967, 274

Amphibious Warfare

Support of the U.S. amphibious landing at Saipan in June 1944, 58-65

Atlantic Fleet exercises in the late 1960s, 299-300

Antarctica

In 1961 a ski-equipped LC-130 from VX-6 rescued an ill Russian scientist from Antarctica, 187-188

Antiair Warfare

Martin was shot down during a dive-bombing attack on Saipan in June 1944, 39, 58-67, 76-77

In the summer of 1945 Commodore Arleigh Burke got Martin ordered to the U.S. Fleet staff for anti-kamikaze experimental work, 78-80

The Atlantic Barrier Wing was a Navy-run patrol between Argentina, Newfoundland, and the Azores in the late 1950s to detect incoming Soviet bombers, 180-195

By the late 1970s the role of the North American Air Defense Command had diminished, 300

Antisubmarine Warfare

Blimps had advantages for ASW in the mid-1950s but also drawbacks, 245-246

Carrier Division 19 ASW operations in the Pacific in the late 1950s, 196-204

By the Atlantic Fleet in the late 1960s-early 1970s, 305-306

Arctic

Cold-weather training course conducted in the early 1950s by Canada's McGill University, 131-135

Argentina, Newfoundland

In 1958-59, Martin commanded the Atlantic Barrier Wing at Argentina, 124, 133, 180-195

Arkansas, USS (BB-33)

Midshipman cruise to Europe in the summer of 1931, 8-12

Army, U.S.

Role in the 1949 inter-service squabbles, 113

Ashworth, Vice Admiral Frederick L., USN (USNA, 1933)

Commanded the Sixth Fleet, 1966-67, 269-271, 288

Atlantic Barrier Wing

Navy-run patrol between Argentina, Newfoundland, and the Azores in the late 1950s to detect incoming Soviet bombers, 180-195

Atlantic Fleet, U.S.

The Atlantic Barrier Wing was a Navy-run patrol between Argentina, Newfoundland, and the Azores in the late 1950s to detect incoming Soviet bombers, 180-195

Involvement in the 1962 Cuban Missile Crisis, 296-297

One of three command hats for Admiral Ephraim P. Holmes, 1967-70, 295-297

Coordination of type commanders in the late 1960s, 297-300

Diminishing training areas for the fleet since the 1960s, 301-304

Antisubmarine warfare activities in the late 1960s-early 1970s, 305-306

Coordination of VIP visits to the fleet in the late 1960s-early 1970s, 307-308

Aurand, Lieutenant Commander Evan P., USN (USNA, 1938)

Involved in testing air-to-air rockets in 1945 as possible anti-kamikaze weapons, 79-80

Aviation Cadets

Valuable assets in fleet squadrons in the 1930s, 223

Azores

The Atlantic Barrier Wing was a Navy-run patrol between Argentina, Newfoundland, and the Azores in the late 1950s to detect incoming Soviet bombers, 180-195

B-36 Peacemaker

Controversial congressional hearings in 1949 about this Air Force bomber, 105-115

Bainbridge, USS (DLGN-25)

Vice Admiral Hyman Rickover's involvement in the ship's design in the 1950s, 170-171

Operations in 1963-64 included being part of a nuclear-powered task force, 229-240

Barbers Point, Hawaii, Naval Air Station

Site of the Fleet All-Weather Training Unit Pacific (FAWTUPAC) in the late 1940s, 103-104, 115-116, 135

Blackburn, Vice Admiral Paul P. Jr., USN (USNA, 1930)

Briefly commanded the Seventh Fleet in 1965, 266

Blake, Lieutenant (junior grade) Albert P., USNR

Flew from the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6) during the invasion of Saipan in June 1944, 64-66

Blimps

Martin and CNO Admiral Arleigh Burke rode a blimp in the mid-1950s, 244-245

Blimps had advantages for ASW but also drawbacks, 245-246

Bombs/Bombing

Use of TBF Avengers from Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10) for bombing attacks in 1944, 34-39, 58-65, 76-77

Support of the U.S. amphibious landing at Saipan in June 1944, 58-65

A kamikaze damaged the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6) in May 1945, 71-73

U.S. Army Air Forces planes bombed Japan with nuclear weapons in August 1945, 70-71, 81-82, 91

Post-World War II Navy plans for nuclear weapons delivery, 85, 91-92

Controversial congressional hearings in 1949 about the Air Force's B-36 bomber, 105-115

The Atlantic Barrier Wing was a Navy-run patrol between Argentina, Newfoundland, and the Azores in the late 1950s to detect incoming Soviet bombers, 180-195

Bradley, General of the Army Omar N., USA (USMA, 1915)

As Chairman of the Joint Chiefs, was critical of the Navy during 1949 congressional hearings, 113

Brezhnev, Leonid

In the late 1960s the Soviet leader criticized the U.S. naval presence in the Mediterranean, 289-290

Budgetary Considerations/Issues

Naval aviation budget in the mid-1960s, 261

Bureau of Aeronautics (BuAer)

Relationship with the Naval Air Test Center in the late 1940s, 101

Burke, Admiral Arleigh A., USN (USNA, 1923)

Wife Roberta, 164, 248

In 1944-45 served as chief of staff to Vice Admiral Marc Mitscher, 150

In the summer of 1945 got Martin ordered to the U.S. Fleet staff for anti-kamikaze experimental work, 78-81

As a member of the General Board in 1947-48 kept in touch with the Naval Air Test Center, 84-85, 91-92

In 1949 headed OP-23 during the Navy's fight against the Air Force, 112-114

Sudden elevation to CNO in 1955 over flag officers who had been senior, 157-158

In 1955 got Martin command of an aircraft carrier, 137-139

In 1956-57 Martin served as his executive assistant, 128-129, 148-177, 244-248

Relationship with foreign navies, 173-174, 212, 304-305

In 1959 asked flag officers for suggestions to improve the Navy, 194-195

Involved in Martin's billet assignments in 1959-60, 196-201, 205-206

Philosophy on quick response in operational assignments, 230-231

Byrd, Rear Admiral Richard E., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1912)

Complaints from and about in the mid-1950s, 149-151, 169-170, 238

C-130 Hercules

In 1961 a ski-equipped LC-130 from VX-6 rescued an ill Russian scientist from Antarctica, 187-188

Canada

Cold-weather training course conducted in the early 1950s by McGill University, 131-135

In 1958-59, Martin commanded the Airborne Early Warning Wing at Argentia, Newfoundland, 124, 133, 162, 180-195

Canadian Navy

Antisubmarine operations in the Pacific in the late 1950s-early 1960s, 199

Carl, Major Marion E., USMC

Superb pilot who flew at the Naval Air Test Center in the late 1940s, 99-100

Carrier Division Two

Operations in the Mediterranean in the early 1960s included a nuclear-powered task force, 229-240

Involvement in exercises with foreign nations in the early 1960s, 241-243

Carrier Division Five

Operations in the Pacific in the late 1950s, 177-178

Carrier Division 19

Antisubmarine operations in the Pacific in the late 1950s, 196-204

Chaplain Corps, U.S. Navy

In the mid-1950s Chaplains James Kelly and John O'Connor worked on a moral leadership program for CNO Arleigh Burke, 161

Christensen, Captain Ernest E. Jr., USN (USNA, 1934)

Commanded the aircraft carrier Hornet (CVS-12) in 1959-60, 197

Clark, Captain Thurston B., USN (USNA, 1927)

Served as senior aide to the Chief of Naval Operations in the mid-1950s, 148-149

Coast Guard, U.S.

Iceberg patrols in the North Atlantic in the late 1950s, 180-183

Coffin, Lieutenant Albert P., USN (USNA, 1934)

Commanded Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10) in the autumn of 1942 in the Guadalcanal campaign, 49

Cold Weather Operations

In the late 1940s the Naval Air Test Center did experiments flying a patrol plane in icing conditions, 121-124

Cold-weather training course conducted in the early 1950s by Canada's McGill University, 131-135

Commercial Aircraft

As a Naval Academy midshipman in the early 1930s, Martin flew home to Missouri in a Ford Tri-Motor, 14

In the late 1940s a KLM pilot alerted the Navy on icing conditions, 121-122

Communications

In February 1959 the Soviet trawler Novorossiysk cut transatlantic underwater cables near Newfoundland, 188-193

Radio report in June 1967 from the U.S. intelligence ship Liberty (AGTR-5) while under attack, 285

Message from Israel that its forces had attacked the Liberty, 285

Congress, U.S.

Representative Dewey Short helped Martin get a Naval Academy appointment in 1940, 3-4
Controversial congressional hearings in 1949 about the Air Force's B-36 bomber, 105-115
Strong support for Navy programs over the years, 212
Relationship with the Naval Air Reserve in the early 1960s, 218-219
Relationship with Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara in the 1960s, 254-255
Naval aviation testimony in the mid-1960s, 261-263
Visits to the Atlantic Fleet in the late 1960s-early 1970s, 308-309

Conn, Lieutenant Lannie, USN (USNA, 1927)

Flight instructor at Pensacola in the late 1930s, 24

Connolly, Commander Thomas F., USN (USNA, 1933)

Served as first director of Test Pilot School at Patuxent River, 1948-51, 86-87, 96
As Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Air), 1966-71, opposed the TFX, 256-257

Conolly, Vice Admiral Richard L., USN (USNA, 1914)

As president of the Naval War College, 1950-53, 128, 130

Cooney, Rear Admiral David M., USN

In the late 1960s was Sixth Fleet public affairs officer, later Chief of Information, 1975-80, 288

Corpus Christi, Texas, Naval Air Station

Site of flight training at the beginning of World War II, 28-29

Crete

Souda Bay Served as a logistics base for U.S. Sixth Fleet ships in 1967, 275-278

Crommelin, Captain John G., Jr., USN (USNA, 1923)

Provided information to the congressional committee investigating the Air Force's B-36 bomber in 1949, 109-115

Cuban Missile Crisis

Array of U.S. forces involved in the October 1962 event, 296-297

Culebra Island, Puerto Rico

Diminishing Atlantic Fleet training facilities in the area since the 1960s, 301-304

Dace, Lieutenant (junior grade), Carl C., USN

Young test pilot at the Naval Air Test Center in the late 1940s, 96-97

Davis, Captain William V., Jr., USN (USNA, 1924)

Involved in the establishment of Test Pilot School at Patuxent River in the late 1940s, 86

Day, Lieutenant Colonel Karl S., USMCR

Around 1940 wrote a book on instrument flying, 28

Defense Department

Cut back on proficiency flying for senior naval aviators in the 1960s, 309-310

De Gaulle, General Charles

In 1967, at the behest of French President de Gaulle, the U.S. Sixth Fleet moved its flagship's homeport from France to Italy, 269-270

Discipline

At the Naval Academy in the early 1930s, 7, 14-15

Doyle, Vice Admiral Austin K., USN (USNA, 1920)

In the early 1930s promoted aviation to Naval Academy midshipmen, 12

In the mid-1930s served on board the battleship Idaho (BB-42), 17, 147

In the mid-1950s was Chief of Naval Air Training, 146-147

Duncan, Admiral Charles K., USN (USNA, 1933)

Served 1970 to 1972 as Commander in Chief Atlantic Fleet, 311-312

Duncan, Admiral Donald B., USN (USNA, 1917)

Served 1951-56 as Vice Chief of Naval Operations, 162-163

Egypt

Positioning of the U.S. Sixth Fleet during the Six-Day War of June 1967 between Egypt and Israel, 271-276

Eisenhower, President Dwight D. (USMA, 1915)

Relationship in the 1950s with CNO Arleigh Burke, 174-176

Empire Test Pilots' School, England

Association in the late 1940s with the Naval Air Test Center, 97-98, 101

Enlisted Personnel

Martin's two TBF crewmen were killed when their TBF was shot down at Saipan in June 1944, 66-67

Yeomen took dictation from CNO Arleigh Burke in the mid-1950s, 153

Enterprise*, USS (CV-6)

Took part in the Guadalcanal campaign in autumn 1942, 44-50

Lieutenant Commander Butch O'Hare was killed in November 1943 while doing night fighter experiments, 42-43

Ship from which Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10) operated in 1943-44, 33-39, 49-50, 58-67, 75-76

Treatment of a wounded Japanese destroyer skipper on board the carrier in June 1944, 76-77

Operated in 1944-45 as a night carrier with Night Air Group 90, 40-44, 52-57, 67-70

A kamikaze damaged the ship in May 1945 and knocked her out of the war, 71-73

During World War II, pilots drank on board to relax after missions, 74-76

Enterprise, USS (CVAN-65)

Operations in 1963-64 included being part of a nuclear-powered task force, 152, 171, 229-240

FH Phantom I

Used in night interception tests at the Naval Air Test Center in 1949, 108-109

FR Fireball

Combination jet-propeller plane the Navy operated briefly in the mid-1940s, 90

F3D Skyknight

Night fighter flown at the Naval Air Test Center in the late 1940s, 108-109, 117-118

F4U Corsair

Used in 1945 tests of rockets as anti-kamikaze weapons, 79-81

F7F Tigercat

Fighter that Martin used in the late 1940s to visit various air stations and talk about all-weather flight requirements, 93-94

F-14 Tomcat

Capability in the 1970s when equipped with radar and the Phoenix missile, 117-119

F-111 Aardvark

Navy opposition to Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara's attempts in the 1960s to make the TFX a carrier plane, 250-257, 263-264

Felt, Admiral Harry D., USN (USNA, 1923)

In the late 1930s commanded Bombing Two (VB-2) on board the aircraft carrier Lexington (CV-2), 128

Served in the early 1950s as deputy to the president of the Naval War College, 128, 130

As Vice Chief of Naval Operations, 1956-58, 128-129, 165-166

Fleet All-Weather Training Unit Pacific (FAWTUPAC)

Instrument training, 1948-50, 103-104, 115-116

In the mid-1950s moved from Hawaii to San Diego, 135-136

Flight Training

Martin received flight training at Pensacola Naval Air Station, 1937-38, 21-26

Martin was an instructor at Pensacola in 1940-41, 27-28

Martin served 1941-42 as a flight training instructor at Corpus Christi, 28-29

Ford Trimotor

Commercial aircraft in which Martin flew home from the Naval Academy in the early 1930s, 14

France

In 1967, at the behest of French President Charles de Gaulle, the Sixth Fleet flagship moved its homeport from Villefranche to Gaeta, Italy, 269-270

French Air Force

Involvement in NATO exercises in the early 1960s, 241-242

French Navy

Involvement in NATO exercises in the early 1960s, 241-242

Gaeta, Italy

In 1967 became the homeport of the Sixth Fleet flagship, 269-270

Housing situation for U.S. Navy personnel and dependents in 1967, 280-282

Gallery, Rear Admiral Daniel V., Jr., USN (USNA, 1921)

Vetoed by General Lauris Norstad in 1959 for the post of deputy chief of the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group to West Germany, 204-205

General Board of the U.S. Navy

As a member of the General Board in 1947-48, Arleigh Burke kept in touch with the Naval Air Test Center, 84-85, 91-92

Germany

Role of the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group in aiding West Germany in the early 1960s, 204-212

German Navy

Role of the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group in the early 1960s, 209-212

Glenview, Illinois, Naval Air Station

In the early 1960s was the base for the Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training, 213-229

Gray, Captain James S., USN (USNA, 1936)

In the early 1950s headed the all-weather flight desk in OP-05, 120

Greece

Military coup in 1967, 270

Relationship with the U.S. Sixth Fleet in 1967, 275-278

Grumman Aerospace Corporation

In the 1970s published brochures to explain carrier planes to new members of Congress, 251

Martin worked for the company after his retirement from active naval service in 1971, 315-317

Guadalcanal

Battle of Santa Cruz Islands, October 1942, 44-46

Martin landed on the island in the autumn of 1942 when he couldn't get back to the carrier Enterprise (CV-6), 47-48

Gunnery-Naval

Exercises by the battleship Idaho (BB-42) in the mid 1930s, 18-19

Naval gunfire support in the invasion of Saipan in June 1944, 62-63

Hall, Captain Grover Budd H., USN (USNA, 1921)

Commanded the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6) in 1944-45, 75

Hamilton, Commander Thomas J., USN (USNA, 1927)

Served in the mid-1940s as executive officer of the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6), 36

Harlow, Bryce

In 1949 served as chief counsel to the House Armed Services Committee, 110-111

Hartwig, Lieutenant Commander, USN (USNA, 1924)

Commanded the destroyer Russell (DD-414) when she rescued survivors at the Battle of Santa Cruz Islands, October 1942, 46

Helicopters

In 1955 the aircraft carrier Saipan (CVL-48) used helos to provide post-hurricane rescue and relief for the area of Tampico, Mexico, 143-145

Hidalgo, Edward

Hosted a party in 1965 the day Martin and his second wife were married, 265

Hollandia, New Guinea

Role of Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10) in supporting the U.S. landing at in April 1944, 49-52

Holmes, Admiral Ephraim P., USN (USNA, 1930)

Served as Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic, Commander in Chief Atlantic, and Commander in Chief Atlantic Fleet from 1967 to 1970, 127, 295-297, 303

Hornet, USS (CV-8)

Sunk in the Battle of Santa Cruz Islands in October 1942, 44-46

Hornet, USS (CVS-12)

Served as flagship for Carrier Division 19 during ASW operations in the Pacific in 1959-60, 196-197, 201-204

Hurricanes

In 1955 the aircraft carrier Saipan (CVL-48) provided post-hurricane rescue and relief for the area of Tampico, Mexico, 140-146

Hyland, Admiral John J., USN (USNA, 1934)

Served as a Navy test pilot during World War II, 86
Commanded the Atlantic Barrier Wing in 1959-60, 182-183, 197
Commanded the Seventh Fleet, 1965-67, 268

Idaho, USS (BB-42)

Modernization at Norfolk Navy Yard, 1931-34, 16
Operations in the mid-1930s, including gunnery and floatplane aviation, 15-20

Independence, USS (CVA-62)

In 1958 Martin was slated to be her first commanding officer but was selected for flag rank instead, 139, 179

Information, Navy Office of (Chinfo)

Support for the Naval Air Reserve in the early 1960s, 222-223

Indianapolis, USS (CA-35)

An SOC floatplane from the ship rescued Martin in June 1944 after he had been shot down off Saipan, 63-65, 76-77

Instrument Flying

Martin's interest in the discipline developed in the late 1930s at Pensacola, 26-27
Martin wrote a book in the early 1940s on instrument flying for carrier pilots, 28-29
Use of in Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10) in 1943-44, 33, 49-52
Projects at the Naval Air Test Center in the late 1940s, 83-84, 96-97
In the late 1940s Martin visited various naval air stations to talk about all-weather flight requirements, 93-95
Role of the Fleet All-Weather Training Unit Pacific (FAWTUPAC) in the late 1940s, 103-105, 115-116
In the early 1950s aviator students of the Naval War College got their instrument training at Quonset Point, 120, 129-131

In the early 1950s OP-05W put out an OpNav instruction on instrument flying, 125-126

Intelligence

After being shot down at Saipan in June 1944, Martin gathered information about the island, 61

Isley, Lieutenant Commander Robert E., USN (USNA, 1933)

Killed by Japanese antiaircraft fire while bombing Saipan in June 1944, 58-59

Israel

Positioning of the U.S. Sixth Fleet during the Six-Day War of June 1967 between Egypt and Israel, 271-276

Israeli attack on the U.S. intelligence ship Liberty (AGTR-5) in June 1967, 284-287

Issit, Commander Donald K., USN

In 1949 trained Admiral Arthur Radford in instrument flying, 104

Italy

In 1967 Gaeta became the homeport of the Sixth Fleet flagship, 269-270, 280-282

Japan

U.S. carrier-plane attacks on the home islands in early 1945, 70-71

U.S. Army Air Forces planes dropped atomic bombs on Japan in August 1945, 70-71, 81-82

Potential use of kamikazes if the United States had invaded the home islands, 70-71

Japanese Navy

Was short on experienced carrier pilots after heavy losses at Midway in June 1942, 42-43

Treatment of a wounded Japanese destroyer skipper on board the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6) in June 1944, 76-77

A kamikaze damaged the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6) in May 1945, 71-73

Joint Chiefs of Staff

CNO Arleigh Burke's participation in JCS meetings in the mid-1950s, 156-157

Access to the President diminished, beginning in the 1960s, 174-177

Kamikazes

Potential use of if the United States had invaded the home islands of Japan during World War II, 70-71

A kamikaze damaged the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6) in May 1945, 71-73

In the summer of 1945 Commodore Arleigh Burke got Martin ordered to the U.S. Fleet staff for anti-kamikaze experimental work, 78-81

Kane, Lieutenant Commander William R., USN (USNA, 1933)

Commanded Fighting Ten (VF-10) from the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6) during the invasion of Saipan in June 1944, 61-62

Kauffman, Lieutenant Draper L., USN (USNA, 1933)

Led an underwater demolition team during the U.S. invasion of Saipan in June 1944, 60-63

Kelly, Commander James W., CHC, USN

In the mid-1950s worked on a moral leadership program for CNO Arleigh Burke, 161

Kidd, Rear Admiral Isaac C., Jr., USN (USNA, 1942)

Conducted a court of inquiry in 1967 into the Israeli attack on the intelligence ship Liberty (AGTR-5), 284-287

King, Vice Admiral Ernest J., USN (USNA, 1901)

Served as Commander Aircraft Battle Force, 1938-39, 29-30

Koch, Rear Admiral George P., USN (USNA, 1933)

Served from 1963 to 1965 as Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training, 227-228

Korte, Lieutenant Commander Ernest J., USN

In 1959 commanded the radar picket destroyer escort Roy O. Hale (DER-336), which sent a boarding party to a Soviet trawler that cut underwater cables near Newfoundland, 188-193

Lang, Captain James G., USN (USNA, 1930)

In the mid-1950s commanded the aircraft carrier Saipan (CVL-48), 140-141, 147

Leave and Liberty

For midshipmen on a summer training cruise to Europe in 1931, 8-10
Arab liberty ports in the Mediterranean were closed down to Sixth Fleet ships following the Six-Day War in 1967, 282-284

Lee, Vice Admiral Fitzhugh, USN (USNA, 1926)

In the late 1950s commanded Carrier Division Five, 177-178

In the early 1960s served as Chief of Naval Air Training, 227

Lemnitzer, General Lyman L., USA (USMA, 1920)

As NATO's SACEur, attended the Sixth Fleet's 20th anniversary celebration in 1968, 290-293

Leonard, Captain William N., USN (USNA, 1938)

Test pilot who testified to Congress in 1949 hearings on the B-36 bomber, 107

Liberty, USS (AGTR-5)

Israeli attack on the U.S. intelligence ship in June 1967, 284-287

Libya

Coup installed a new government in 1969, 282-283

Lighter-Than-Air

Martin and CNO Admiral Arleigh Burke rode a blimp in the mid-1950s, 244-245

Blimps had advantages for ASW in the mid-1950s but also drawbacks, 245-246

Little Rock, USS (CLG-4)

Served as Sixth Fleet flagship during the Six-Day War of June 1967, 272, 284

Reviewing ship for the Sixth Fleet's 20th anniversary celebration in 1968, 290-293

Lockheed Corporation

Worked with the Navy in the late 1940s in testing patrol planes in icing conditions, 121-123

Long Beach, USS (CGN-9)

Operations in 1963-64 included being part of a nuclear-powered task force, 229-240

Malta

Served as a logistics base and liberty port for U.S. Sixth Fleet ships in 1967, 278-279

Mann, Commander Hoyt D., USN (USNA, 1936)

In the early 1950s served as an instrument training instructor at Quonset Point, 131

Manson, Lieutenant Commander Frank A., USN

Public affairs officer who was a speechwriter for CNO Arleigh Burke in the mid-1950s, 154

Marianas Islands

Martin was shot down during a dive-bombing attack on Saipan in June 1944, 39, 58-67, 76-77

Marine Corps, U.S.

Air operations from Guadalcanal in autumn of 1942, 44

Martell, Vice Admiral Charles B., USN (USNA, 1930)

Chided Martin for performing better at sea than ashore, 127

Martin, Vice Admiral Harold M., USN (USNA, 1919)

Served as ComAirPac, 1952-56, 136-137

Martin, Vice Admiral William I., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1934)

Parents, 1-4

Siblings, 2-3

Second wife Friedel, 10, 238, 264-269, 280-282, 314-315

Children, 77

Boyhood in Missouri in the 1910s and 1920s, 1-2

Attended the University of Oklahoma and University of Missouri, 1938-40, 3-4

As a Naval Academy midshipman, 1930-34, 5-15

Served 1934-37 in the battleship Idaho (BB-42), 15-20

Received flight training at Pensacola Naval Air Station, 1937-38, 21-26

Served 1938-40 in Scouting Squadron Two (VS-2), 29-32

Served 1940-41 as a flight training instructor at Pensacola, 26-27

Served 1941-42 as a flight training instructor at Corpus Christi, 28-29

Served 1942-43 as executive officer/commanding officer of Scouting Squadron 10 (VS-10), 44-49

Commanded Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10), 1943-44, 30-39, 49-52, 58-67, 76-77

Commander Night Air Group 90, 1944-45, 40-44, 52-57, 67-77

In the summer of 1945 served on the U.S. Fleet staff for anti-kamikaze experimental work, 78-81

From 1945 to 1948 served as a test pilot at the Naval Air Test Center, Patuxent River, 82-102, 121-124

Served 1948-50 as executive officer of the Fleet All-Weather Training Unit Pacific (FAWTUPAC), 103-119

As a student at the Naval War College, 1950-51, 120, 128-131

Attended a cold-weather training course conducted in the early 1950s by Canada's McGill University, 131-135

From 1951 to 1953 was all-weather flight coordinator in OP-05W, the Air Warfare Division of OpNav, 119-120, 125-126

Served 1953-55 as commanding officer of the Fleet All-Weather Training Unit Pacific (FAWTUPAC), 135-137

Commanded the aircraft carrier Saipan (CVL-48) in 1955-56, 138-147

In 1956-57 Martin served as CNO Arleigh Burke's executive assistant, 128-129, 148-177, 244-248

Served 1957-58 as chief of staff to Commander Carrier Division Five, 177-180

In 1958-59, commanded the Airborne Early Warning Wing at Argentia, Newfoundland, Canada, 124, 133, 162, 180-195

Commanded Carrier Division 19 in the Pacific, 1959-60, 196-204

In 1960-61 was deputy chief of the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group in West Germany, 205-210

Served 1961 to 1963 as Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training, 212-229

Commanded Carrier Division Two, 1963-64, 152, 229

Served as Assistant CNO (Air) from 1964 to 1967, 248-250

Commanded the Sixth Fleet, 1967-68, 265-290

From 1968 to 1971 was deputy and chief of staff for Commander in Chief Atlantic Fleet, 295-315

Post-retirement work for Grumman Aerospace Corporation, 315-317

Masterton, Vice Admiral Paul, USN (USNA, 1933)

Commanded Antisubmarine Warfare Force Atlantic Fleet in the late 1960s, 305

McCain, Vice Admiral John S., USN (USNA, 1906)

Commanded Task Force 58 in 1944-45, 73

McCain, Admiral John S. Jr., USN (USNA, 1931)

Service in OpNav in the 1950s included presentations on sea power, 112, 160

Served as CinCUSNavEur during the Six-Day War of June 1967, 271-272

McDonald, Admiral David L., USN (USNA, 1928)

Served as Chief of Naval Operations, 1963-67, 252-253

McGonagle, Commander William L., USN

Commanded the intelligence ship Liberty (AGTR-5) when she was attacked by Israeli forces in June 1967, 284-287

McKechnie, Rear Admiral Arnold W., USN (USNA, 1927)

In 1961 was relieved early as Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training because of a heart attack, 212-213

McNamara, Robert S.

Position on the controversial TFX aircraft in the mid-1960s, 250-257, 263-264

Martin's assessment of McNamara as SecDef, 254-255

Relations with Congress, 254-255

Medical Problems

Treatment of a wounded Japanese destroyer skipper on board the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6) in June 1944, 76-77

In 1955 Martin had surgery to remove World War II shrapnel, 137-140

Mexico

In 1955 the aircraft carrier Saipan (CVL-48) provided post-hurricane rescue and relief for the area of Tampico, 140-146

Miles, Rear Admiral Milton E., USN (USNA, 1922)

In October 1955 commanded U.S. hurricane relief in the area of Tampico, Mexico, 144-145

Military Assistance Advisory Group

Role in advising the West German armed forces in the early 1960s, 204-210

Miller, Rear Admiral George H., USN (USNA, 1933)

Service in OpNav in the 1950s, 112-113, 154, 160

Miller, Captain Shirley S., USN (USNA, 1927)

At the Naval War College in the early 1950s, 130

Mitscher, Vice Admiral Marc A., USN (USNA, 1910)

Commanded Task Force 58 in 1944-45, 73, 78-79

Mumma, Rear Admiral Alfred G., USN (USNA, 1926)

As Chief of the Bureau of Ships, briefed CNO Arleigh Burke in the mid-1950s, 160-161

National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics (NACA)

Interaction in the late 1940s with the Naval Air Test Center, 95-96

Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland

Plebe year in 1930-31, 5-7

Academics in the early 1930s, 6-7, 10-11

Summer training cruises in the early 1930s, 8-13

Aviation orientation in the early 1930s, 12

Only half the class of 1933 graduated that year; others came back later, 23

First-class year in 1933-34, 13

Discipline in the early 1930s, 7, 14-15

Naval Air Test Center, Patuxent River, Maryland

Site of flight testing from 1945 to 1948, 82-102

Testing of foreign planes after World War II, 89-90, 98-99

Establishment of Test Pilot School in 1948, 85-87, 96

Relationship with aircraft manufacturers in the late 1940s, 100-101, 121-124

Involved in controversial congressional hearings in 1949 about the Air Force's B-36 bomber, 107-109

Naval Ordnance Test Station, Inyokern, California

Testing of 4½-inch air-to-air rockets at China Lake in the summer of 1945 as possible anti-kamikaze weapons, 79-81

Naval Reserve, U.S.

Role of the Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training in the early 1960s, 213-229

Call-up of reservists to active duty in the 1940s-60s, 225-226

Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC)

Training at various universities in the early 1960s, 224

Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island

In the early 1950s aviator students of the college got their instrument training at Quonset Point, 120, 129-131

Leadership in the early 1950s, 128

Curriculum, 130

Navigation

On board the aircraft carrier Saipan (CVL-48) in 1955, 142-144

Needham, Rear Admiral Ray C. “Bud,” USN (USNA, 1931)

Served in the Bureau of Naval Personnel in the late 1950s, 178-179

Newcomer, Commander Lloyd E., USN

Served on the Atlantic Barrier Patrol in the late 1950s, 187

In 1961 commanded an LC-130 mission that rescued an ill Russian scientist from Antarctica, 187-188

New Guinea

Role of Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10) in supporting the U.S. landing at Hollandia in April 1944, 49-52

News Media

Coverage of the Sixth Fleet during the Six-Day War of June 1967, 273-275

Negative coverage of a speech Martin made to Americans in Rome in the late 1960s, 288-289

Covered ceremonies for the Sixth Fleet’s 20th anniversary in June 1968, 292

Newton, Lieutenant Commander Walter H. Jr., USN (USNA, 1933)

During World War II served on the staff of Rear Admiral John W. Reeves Jr., 204-205

Night Flying

Martin began doing tactical development work in 1938-40 in Scouting Squadron Two (VS-2), 29-32

Use of the TBF Avenger for night operations in 1943-44, 32-39

Lieutenant Commander Butch O’Hare was killed in November 1943 while doing night fighter experiments, 42-43

Role of Night Air Group 90 on board the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6), in 1944-45, 40-44, 52-57, 67-70

Projects at the Naval Air Test Center in the late 1940s, 83-84, 96-97, 107-109, 121-124

In the late 1940s Martin visited various naval air stations to talk about all-weather flight requirements, 93-95

Role of the Fleet All-Weather Training Unit Pacific (FAWTUPAC) in the late 1940s, 103-105, 115-116

Training for pilots of Carrier Division 19 in 1959-60, 202-203

Nitze, Paul H.

As Secretary of the Navy in the mid-1960s had difficulties in dealing with Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara, 252-253

In 1965, on the day of Martin’s second marriage, Nitze sized up his new wife, 265, 282

Norden Bombsight

Used in Navy torpedo planes in the late 1930s-early 1940s, 30-31

Norfolk Naval Base

Admirals' Row quarters for senior officers in the late 1960s-early 1970s, 310-312

Norstad, General Lauris, USAF (USMA, 1930)

As NATO Supreme Allied Commander Europe in 1959, vetoed Rear Admiral Dan Gallery for the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group in Germany, 204

North American Air Defense Command

In the late 1950s had the mission of detecting incoming Soviet bombers, 182-183

By the late 1970s its role had diminished, 300

North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO)

Role of the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group in aiding West Germany in the early 1960s, 204-210

Involvement of the U.S. Sixth Fleet in exercises with foreign nations in the early 1960s, 241-243

General Lyman Lemnitzer, SACEur, attended the Sixth Fleet's 20th anniversary celebration in June 1968, 290-293

From 1967 to 1970 Admiral Ephraim P. Holmes served as SACLant, 295-296

Nuclear Power Program

Admiral Hyman Rickover's involvement with the frigate Bainbridge (DLGN-25) and carrier Enterprise (CVAN-65) in the 1950s and 1960s, 170-171

Operations in 1963-64 of the nuclear-powered task force of Enterprise (CVAN-65), Long Beach (CGN-9), and Bainbridge (DLGN-25), 229-240

Nuclear Weapons

U.S. Army Air Forces planes bombed Japan in August 1945, 70-71, 81-82, 91

Post-World War II Navy plans for nuclear weapons delivery, 85, 91-92

O'Connor, Lieutenant John J., CHC, USN

In the mid-1950s worked on a moral leadership program for CNO Arleigh Burke, 161

O'Grady, Vice Admiral James W., USN (USNA, 1936)

In the late 1960s served as deputy to NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic, 296

O'Hare, Lieutenant Commander Edward H., USN (USNA, 1937)

Killed in November 1943 while doing night fighter experiments, 41-42

OP-05

Martin's work from 1951 to 1953 was all-weather flight coordinator in the Air Warfare Division of OpNav, 119-120, 126

In the early 1950s OP-05W put out an OpNav instruction on instrument flying, 125-126

Activities of the office in the mid-1960s included the TFX squabble, 248-257, 263-264

Impact of the Vietnam War and other issues on naval aviation in the 1960s, 258-260

Naval aviation budget in the mid-1960s, 261

Testimony to Congress in the mid-1960s, 261-263

OP-23

The Organizational Research and Policy Division of OpNav during the Navy's 1949 fight against the Air Force, 112-114

P2V Neptune

Forerunner of this plane was tested in the late 1940s to ascertain its ability to fly in icing conditions, 121-123

Patuxent River, Maryland, Naval Air Station

Site of flight testing from 1945 to 1948, 82-100

Pearson, Lieutenant (junior grade) Charles B., USNR

Killed on a torpedo attack near Palau Island in March 1944, 38

Pensacola, Florida, Naval Air Station

Site of flight training in the late 1930s-early 1940s, 21-27

Homeport for the aircraft carrier Saipan (CVL-48) in the mid-1950s, 140, 146-147

Phillips, Lieutenant Commander John L. Jr., USN (USNA, 1933)

Was the commanding officer of Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10) in the carrier Enterprise (CV-6) when Lieutenant Commander Butch O'Hare was killed in November 1943, 41-42

Planning

Preparation in 1963-64 for Operation Sea Orbit, the around-the-world cruise by a nuclear-powered task force, 233-240

Polaris Missile Program

Involvement of CNO Arleigh Burke in the mid-1950s, 167

Program Evaluation Review Technique (PERT)

Used for the Polaris program in the late 1960s, 167-168

Promotion of Officers

In the late 1950s Martin was deep-selected for rear admiral and denied command of the aircraft carrier Independence (CVA-62), 178-180

Public Relations

On behalf of the Naval Air Reserve in the early 1960s, 222-223, 226

In the late 1960s Martin made a controversial speech to Americans in Rome, 288-289

Puerto Rico

Diminishing Atlantic Fleet training facilities in the area since the 1960s, 301-304

Quilter, Lieutenant (junior grade) Edward S., USNR

Flight instructor at Pensacola in the late 1930s, 25

Quonset Point, Rhode Island, Naval Air Station

Instrument training site for Naval War College students in the early 1950s, 120, 129-131

Raborn, Rear Admiral William F., Jr., USN (USNA, 1928)

Frequent calls to the CNO's office in the mid-1950s concerning the Polaris program, 149-150, 167-169

Racial Issues

In the early 1970s in the Atlantic Fleet, 313-314

Radar

Used on board TBF Avengers for night operations in 1943-44, 32-34, 37, 41-42

Role of in night fighter operations in the late 1940s-early 1950s, 116

Capability of the F-14 Tomcat in the 1970s when equipped with radar and the Phoenix missile, 117-119

Radford, Admiral Arthur W., USN (USNA, 1916)

As Vice Chief of Naval Operations in the late 1940s, directed Martin to visit various naval air stations to discuss all-weather flight operations, 93-95

As Commander in Chief Pacific in 1949, qualified as an instrument pilot, 104-105

In 1949 sent Martin to Washington for the congressional hearings on the Air Force's B-36 bomber, 105-115

Personal relationship with Martin, 136

Ramsey, Vice Admiral Paul H., USN (USNA, 1927)

In the mid-1930s served on board the battleship Idaho (BB-42), 17, 103

In the late 1940s commanded the Fleet All-Weather Training Unit Pacific (FAWTUPAC), 103-104, 115

In 1965-66 was Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Air), 17, 254

Reeves, Rear Admiral John W. Jr., USN (USNA, 1911)

Commanded Task Group 58 from the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6) in 1944, 65-66, 74, 204-205

Rescue at Sea

An SOC floatplane from the heavy cruiser Indianapolis (CA-35) rescued Martin in June 1944 after he had been shot down off Saipan, 63-66

Rear Admiral John W. Reeves organized rescue teams during air operations in 1944, 65-66

Revolt of the Admirals

Controversial congressional hearings in 1949 about the Air Force's B-36 bomber, 105-115

Rickover, Vice Admiral Hyman G., USN (USNA, 1922)

Complaints from and about in the mid-1950s, 149-152, 237-238

Involvement with the nuclear power program in the 1950s and 1960s, 170-171, 229-230, 236-238

Got into areas that were not his direct responsibility, 171-172

Miffed because his plan for Operation Sea Orbit was not accepted, 236-238

Rivers, L. Mendel (Democrat-South Carolina)

Congressional questioning of Martin during testimony in the mid-1960s, 262

Rockets

Testing of 4½-inch air-to-air rockets at China Lake in the summer of 1945 as possible anti-kamikaze weapons, 79-81

Rodgers, Captain George F., USNR

In the late 1960s served as public affairs officer for Commander Sixth Fleet, 287-288

Rosendahl, Vice Admiral Charles E., USN (Ret.) (USNA, 1914)

Advocate for airships for many years, 246

Roy O. Hale, USS (DER-336)

In 1959 sent a boarding party to investigate a Soviet trawler that cut underwater cables near Newfoundland, 189-193

Royal Navy

Diminished ship presence in the Mediterranean in the late 1960s, 293-294

Ruddy, Commander Joseph A. Jr., USN (USNA, 1930)

In the early 1950s served as an instrument training instructor at Quonset Point, 131

Ruge, Vice Admiral Friedrich O.

Headed the West German Navy in the early 1960s, 209-210

Rusk, Dean

As Secretary of State in 1967, asked for the position of the Sixth Fleet in the run-up to the Six-Day War between Egypt and Israeli, 271-272

Russell, USS (DD-414)

Rescued survivors after the sinking of the aircraft carrier Hornet (CV-8) at the Battle of Santa Cruz Islands, October 1942, 46

S2F Tracker

Operations from the ASW carrier Hornet (CVS-12) in 1959-60, 202-203

SOC Seagull

An SOC floatplane from the heavy cruiser Indianapolis (CA-35) rescued Martin in June 1944 after he had been shot down off Saipan, 63-65

Saipan, Marianas Islands

Martin was shot down during a dive-bombing attack on Saipan in June 1944, 39, 58-67, 76-77

Saipan, USS (CVL-48)

In 1955 provided post-hurricane rescue and relief for the area of Tampico, Mexico, 140-146

Ship handling in the mid-1950s, 140-142, 146-147

Santa Cruz Islands, Battle of

Involvement of the aircraft carriers Enterprise (CV-6) and Hornet (CV-8), 44-50

Saratoga, USS (CV-3)

Operated briefly as a specialized night carrier in February 1945, 68

Scouting Squadron Two (VS-2)

Operated from the aircraft carrier Lexington (CV-2), 1938-40, 26, 29-30

Sea Orbit, Operation

Planning in 1963-64 for this around-the-world cruise by a nuclear-powered task force, 233-240

Selection Boards

Deep selection to rear admiral in 1958 for three members of the Naval Academy class of 1934, 178-180

Sheely, Lieutenant Donald M., USN (USNA, 1951)

In 1959 was executive officer of the radar picket destroyer escort Roy O. Hale (DER-336) and led a boarding party to a Soviet trawler that cut underwater cables near Newfoundland, 188-193

Sherby, Commander Sydney S., USN (USNA, 1936)

Involved in the establishment of Test Pilot School at Patuxent River in the late 1940s, 86, 96

Ship Handling

On board the aircraft carrier Saipan (CVL-48) in the mid-1950s, 140-142, 146-147

Short, Representative Dewey J.

Helped Martin get a Naval Academy appointment in 1930 and remained a friend, 3-4, 262

Involved in controversial congressional hearings in 1949 about the Air Force's B-36 bomber, 105-115

Six-Day War

Positioning of the U.S. Sixth Fleet during the war of June 1967 between Egypt and Israel, 271-276

Israeli attack on the U.S. intelligence ship Liberty (AGTR-5) in June 1967, 284-287

News media coverage of the Sixth Fleet during the war, 273-275

Sixth Fleet, U.S.

Operations in the Mediterranean in the early 1960s included a nuclear-powered task force, 229-240

Involvement in exercises with foreign nations in the early 1960s, 241-243

In 1967 shifted the flagship's homeport from Villefranche, France, to Gaeta, Italy, 269-270, 280-282

Mrs. Martin served as a hostess when her husband commanded the fleet in 1967-68, 265-266

Generally the fleet commander's tour is short, 270-271

Positioning of the Sixth Fleet during the Six-Day War of June 1967 between Egypt and Israel, 271-276, 290-291

Israeli attack on the U.S. intelligence ship Liberty (AGTR-5) in June 1967, 284-287

Arab liberty ports in the Mediterranean were closed down to Sixth Fleet ships following the Six-Day War, 282-284

Ceremonial celebration in June 1968 of the 20th anniversary of the Sixth Fleet, 287, 290-293

Sonobuoys

Used by aircraft from the antisubmarine carrier Hornet (CVS-12) in 1959-60, 203-204

Soucek, Rear Admiral Apollo, USN (USNA, 1921)

Commanded the Naval Air Test Center from 1947 to 1949, 88, 98-99, 108

Souda Bay, Crete

Served as a logistics base for U.S. Sixth Fleet ships in 1967, 275-278

South America

UNITAS combined exercises in the 1950s-1970s involved U.S. and South American navies, 173-174, 304-305

Soviet Navy

Operations in the Pacific in the late 1950s-early 1960s, 199-200

Increase of ship presence in the Mediterranean in the late 1960s, 289-291

Submarine operations in the late 1960s-early 1970s, 305-306

Soviet Union

The Atlantic Barrier Wing was a Navy-run patrol between Argentina, Newfoundland, and the Azores in the late 1950s to detect incoming Soviet bombers, 180-195

In February 1959 the Soviet trawler Novorossiysk cut transatlantic underwater cables near Newfoundland, 188-193

In 1961 a ski-equipped LC-130 from VX-6 rescued an ill Russian scientist from Antarctica, 187-188

In the late 1960s Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev criticized the U.S. naval presence in the Mediterranean, 289-290

Spangenberg, George A.

Navy aeronautical engineer who criticized the TFX as a potential carrier plane in the 1960s, 256

Spruance, Admiral Raymond A., USN (USNA, 1907)

Talked with Martin after Martin was shot down at Saipan in June 1944, 65

Strauss, Franz Josef

Served as West Germany's Defense Minister from 1956 to 1962, 210-212

Strean, Rear Admiral Bernard M., USN (USNA, 1933)

In 1964 commanded Operation Sea Orbit, the around-the-world cruise by a nuclear-powered task force, 236-239

Stump, Admiral Felix B., USN (USNA, 1917)

From 1945 to 1948 served as Chief of Naval Air Technical Training, 135

From 1953 to 1958 commanded the Pacific Fleet and Pacific Command, 135-136

Suez Crisis

Actions of CNO Arleigh Burke in response to this 1956 event, 175-176

TBF Avenger

Flown by Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10) in 1943-44, 33-39, 49-52, 58-60

Modified in 1944 for extended range as part of Night Air Group 90, 52-56

Ruggedness of the airplane, 39

TFX

Navy opposition to Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara's attempts in the 1960s to make this Air Force fighter into a carrier plane, 250-257, 263-264

TV-1 Seastar

The Air Force version, the XP-80, flew at the Naval Air Test Center in the late 1940s, 99-100

The first Pacific Fleet jets went to Fleet All-Weather Training Unit Pacific (FAWTUPAC) in the late 1940s, 1104

Tactics

Martin began doing tactical development work in night flying in 1938-40 in Scouting Squadron Two (VS-2), 29-32

Role of radar in night fighter operations in the late 1940s-early 1950s, 116

Taddeo, Lieutenant (junior grade) Alfred, USNR

Flew from the aircraft carrier Enterprise (CV-6) during the invasion of Saipan in June 1944, 64-66

Tate, Lieutenant (junior grade), Hugh J., USN

Young test pilot at the Naval Air Test Center in the late 1940s, 96-97, 108

Taylor, General Maxwell D., USA (USMA, 1922)

Served as Chief of Staff of the Army, 1955-59, 247

Test Pilots

Experimental work in 1945-48 at the Naval Air Test Center, 82-103

Selection of test pilot candidates in the late 1940s, 101-102

Test Pilot School, Patuxent River, Maryland

Inaugurated in 1948, 85-87, 96-97

Selection of test pilot candidates in the late 1940s, 101-102

Thach, Vice Admiral John S., USN (USNA, 1927)

Commanded Antisubmarine Warfare Force Pacific, 1960-63, 198

Served as Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Air) from 1963 to 1965, 248-250, 254

Torpedoes

Unreliable performance when dropped by Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10) in 1943-44, 33-34, 37-38

Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10)

Training at Seattle in 1943, 33

Did mostly bombing rather than using torpedoes, 1943-44, 30-38

Use for night operations in 1943-44, 32-36

Support of the New Guinea landings in April 1944, 49-52

Support of the Saipan landings in June 1944, 58-67, 76-77

Trapnell, Captain Frederick M., USN (USNA, 1923)

Did test pilot work both during and after World War II, 85-88, 96-103

Towers, Vice Admiral John H., USN (USNA, 1906)

As Deputy CinCPacFlt, was consulted in 1944 on modifying TBF Avengers for extended night operations, 52-56

Tunisia

Involvement in NATO exercises in the early 1960s, 241-242

Turner, Vice Admiral Frederick C., USN

Young test pilot at the Naval Air Test Center in the late 1940s, 84, 96-97, 109

Served 1976-79 as DCNO (Air Warfare), 84, 96

Turner, Lieutenant Stansfield, USN (USNA, 1947)

Served as a briefer for CNO Arleigh Burke in the mid-1950s, 155

Truk Atoll, Caroline Islands

Attacked by U.S. carrier planes and surface ships in February 1944, 34-37

Tuzo, Lieutenant Paul B. “Squeak” Jr., USN (USNA, 1925)

Tough flight instructor at Pensacola in the late 1930s, 24-25

UNITAS

Combined exercises in the 1950s-1970s that involved U.S. and South American navies, 173-174, 304-305

VS-2

See: Scouting Squadron Two (VS-2)

VT-10

See: Torpedo Squadron Ten (VT-10)

VX-6

See: Air Development Squadron Six (VX-6)

Vieques Island, Puerto Rico

Diminishing Atlantic Fleet training facilities in the area since the 1960s, 301-304

Villefranche, France

In 1967, at the behest of French President Charles de Gaulle, the Sixth Fleet flagship moved its homeport from Villefranche to Gaeta, Italy, 269-270

Vinson, Representative Carl, (Democrat-Georgia)

Led controversial congressional hearings in 1949 about the Air Force's B-36 bomber, 105-115

WV Warning Star

Lockheed-built airborne early warning plane that joined the fleet in the mid-1950s, 121, 125

Patrols in the late 1950s to detect incoming Soviet bombers, 180-195

Weather

Relationship over the years between the Navy and the weather bureau, 124-125

In the late 1940s the Naval Air Test Center did experiments flying a patrol plane in icing conditions, 121-124

VW Warning Star aircraft flew into hurricanes in the 1950s, 125

In 1955 the aircraft carrier Saipan (CVL-48) provided post-hurricane rescue and relief for the area of Tampico, Mexico, 140-146

Coast Guard iceberg patrols in the North Atlantic in the late 1950s, 180-183

Difficult flying weather at Argentia, Newfoundland, in the late 1950s, 185, 187

Weschler, Commander Thomas R., USN (USNA, 1939)

Served as aide to Chief of Naval Operations Arleigh Burke in the mid-1950s, 152, 159, 166

Whitehead, Captain Richard F., USN

Commanded support aircraft for the invasion of Saipan in June 1944, 61-62

Wilkins, Sir George Hubert

Battleships Arkansas (BB-33) and Wyoming (BB-32) went to the rescue of Wilkins's planned polar expedition in mid-1931, 8, 134

Wright, Admiral Jerauld, USN (USNA, 1918)

As Commander in Chief Atlantic Fleet, kept in touch with Martin in the late 1950s, 193, 249

Wyoming, USS (AG-17)

Midshipman summer cruises in 1931 and 1933, 8, 12-13

XP-59 Airacomet

Jet fighter considered by the Navy in the 1940s, 100

Zumwalt, Admiral Elmo R. Jr., USN (USNA, 1943)

Impact of his policies and style during his initial months as Chief of Naval Operations in 1970, 312-314