

INDEX

for series of interviews with

Admiral U.S. Grant Sharp, U.S.N. (Ret.)

ABRAMS, General Creighton W.: relieves Westmoreland on June 11, 1968 as ComUSMACV, p. 627; p. 639; p. 647.

ALLIED FORCES IN SOUTH VIETNAM: (1967), p. 549-550.

ANZUS - Council: meeting in Washington on July 15, 1964, p. 210-211; employment of Australian-New Zealand Military forces in Vietnam, p. 260-1.

ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE - U.S. Senate: Sharp testifies before Preparedness Investigating Sub-committee, Aug. 9/10, 1967 P. 504-8; McNamara testifies on August 25 and tried to 'shoot down' some of Sharp's testimony, p. 509; JCS statement on mission of air effort - similar to McNamara testimony before subcommittee, p. 519 ff.

B-52: first strike with these planes against North Vietnam, p. 361; SecDef repeats his directive that bombing operations in North Vietnam shall not be carried on to the detriment of combat operations in South Vietnam, p. 361-2; Washington agrees to use of B-52s in June 1965, p. 402-3. See also - dispatches of CINCPAC to JCS.

BAY OF PIGS: p. 164

BOWLES, Chester: visits Sihanouk in Cambodia, p. 560.

USS BOYD - DD 544: Sharp puts her in commission - Jan. 1943 - assigned for escort duty out of Noumea, p. 62; participation in Baker Island landings, Wake Island raids, Gilbert Island landings, p. 63; damage sustained in engagement with shore batteries of Nauru, p. 66 ff; escorting the Cruiser DENVER, p. 74; installation of CIC, p. 75; participates in Battle of Philippine Sea, p. 77 ff; life on a DD during prolonged periods at sea, p. 82 ff; invasion of Guam, p. 85 ff; other island operations, p. 86ff; rescue operations of personnel from the HOUSTON, p. 89 ff; relieved of command on Guam, p. 925.

USS BUCHANAN (DD-131): Sharp becomes torpedo officer on board p. 20, p. 23.

BUNKER, The Hon. Ellsworth: U.S. Ambassador to South Vietnam, p. 465-6.

BURKE, Admiral Arleigh: CruDiv Commander, Atlantic, 1953, p. 138; takes Sharp with him on Pac tour after selection of CNO, p. 145 ff. p. 150, p. 155.

BU SHIPS: Sharp assigned as DD Eng. Maintenance Officer (1940) p. 44-45; turning over the 50 DD's to the British, p. 45-7.

CAMRANH BAY: In 1964 Military Assistance Funds used to put in a deep water pier, p. 327; In 1965 CINC PAC recommends that Camranh Bay be developed as a major port and logistics complex, p. 327 ff; successful - experience with matting points way to others in Vietnam, p. 331.

USNS CARD: MSTs ship used to transport airplanes - sunk in Saigon harbor, p. 200.

CASABLANCA: U.S. landing (1942), p. 55 ff.

CHICOMS: used as a designation of the Red Chinese government.

C.I.A.: gives estimate of civilian casualties in case of air attacks on certain targets, p. 376.

CIC: installation of an early CIC in DD BOYD, p. 75. Note: see entry under COMMANDER, DD's, PAC:

CINC PAC: (Note: see entries under Admiral U.S. Grant Sharp - CincPac 1964-68).

Sharp relieves Adm. Felt on board the USS RANGER June 30, 1964) p. 202; scope of the CincPac Command, p. 202; Sharp's first trip as CincPac to ANZUS Council meeting in Washington p. 210-211; visit of Sharp to Far East - dinners in Taiwan and Japan - attendance at meeting of Japan - U.S. Consultative Committee on Security, p. 238; Sharp's discussion of command relations in the Pacific theatre and especially in Vietnam, p. 244-5; the problem of air support for ground troops, p. 246; statistics on military strength of command at beginning of 1965, p. 249; attitude of CincPac and JCS on how war should be conducted - contrasting philosophy of SecDef, State Dept. and White House p. 251-2 ff; plans for operations against North Vietnam, p. 255-6; series of visits to headquarters by Far East political leaders, p. 262; CincPac begins to experience more detailed control by SecDef (through JCS) on air sorties, patrols in Gulf of Tonkin, p. 268-9; conference in April 1965 with JCS, Army, Air Force, Navy on need for greater logistical action, p. 272-3; development of command arrangements, p. 273; efforts to encourage S. Vietnamese to great effort, p. 276; CincPac Conference (Apr. 17, 1965) with McNamara, Wheeler, etc. p. 277; Sharp's comments on enemy possibilities, p. 285-6; his insistence on maintaining pressure on North Vietnamese, p. 285-7; his comments on relative importance of areas in South Vietnam, p. 287-8; Sharp's insistence on consideration of SE Asia as a single, integrated U.S. Strategy, p. 288 ff; Sharp's explanation of ROLLING THUNDER operations to Washington, p. 301-3; Sharp's response to special study group assessment, p. 303-4; summary of activities in 1965, p. 307 ff; Sharp's travels in 1965, p. 308-9; gives much attention (1965) to build up of airfields, p. 311; difficulty in keeping 5 CV's in Western Pacific at all times, p. 311-12; comments of General Westmoreland on effectiveness of Adm. Sharp, p. 323 logistics in 1965, p. 325-6; facility section established in J-4 for construction programs, p. 327; airfields in South Vietnam, p. 328-30; given authority (July 1965) to attack certain SAM sites p. 341; CincPac advises JCS of relationship between military operations against North Vietnam and overall strategy of war in S. Vietnam - p. 344-55; Sharp sees clearly nature of political battle and propaganda campaign being waged by North Vietnamese in 1966, p. 349; reviews for JCS changed circumstances surrounding Rolling Thunder Operation, p. 349 ff; CincPac directs component commanders (Jan. 13, 1965) to be prepared for precise attacks when Rolling Thunder resumed, p. 355; CincPac goes over same area as on Jan. 13 to JCS - in effort to get more flexibility in Rolling Thunder operations, p. 358; frequent directions to component commanders, p. 372; asks Washington for authority to strike all airfields, p. 373; tried a new technique on Washington to get prompt answers to request for authority, p. 374; Oct. 1966 another CincPac message to JCS to emphasize critical importance of air operations over North Vietnam, p. 385-6; p. 390-1; CincPac message to Gen. Wheeler (Dec. 1966) on effect of enemy propaganda, p. 394-5; asks permission of JCS(12/30/66)

for use of surface-to-air missiles against MIGs, p. 396-8; CincPac's summary of operations (Jan. 1967) to emphasize point U.S. air power not being used properly, p. 405-6; concern expressed over reports of special study to determine alternatives to present efforts in Vietnam, p. 410-11; p. 420-22; sends message of Feb. 1967 to underscore advantages of closing ports of Hanoi and Haiphong, p. 416-420; Sharp's reactions to proposals of special study group on alternatives, p. 421-2; Sharp's comments on restrictions placed on Rolling Thunder 53, p. 438; p. 445-6; Sharp draws up Rolling Thunder target list, p. 453; Sharp tries for lifting restrictions on targets within ten miles of Hanoi, p. 455; tells how targets are selected, p. 463; Sharp briefs McNamara on air war in Vietnam, Sharp's comment on no need for stalemate in Vietnam, p. 497; Sharp discusses restrictions on bombing, p. 499 ff; Sharp testifies before Subcommittee of Armed Services Committee of Senate (Aug. 9-10, 1967) p. 504; answers request of JCS for optimum air campaign outline against North Vietnam - 1967-8, p. 510-19; Sharp attempts to get JCS to change 'statement of mission' on bombing over North Vietnam, p. 519 ff; prepares an assessment for JCS on cessation of bombing, p. 523-29; gives JCS (Dec. 1967) assessment of closure of North Vietnamese port complexes, p. 529 ff; Sharp sends JCS (Jan. 1968) progress report on 1967 and standing at beginning of 1968, p. 537- 52; his plans for 1968, p. 552-4; Sharp's efforts to obtain a better press in 1968, p. 534-5; p. 559; visits Danang (Jan. 1968) for look at situation in KheSanh, p. 567; reactions to bombing cessation order, p. 594-5; Sharp not informed of cease bombing decision in Washington his reactions, p. 603-4; supports Westmoreland recommendations on retaliatory attacks on North Vietnamese cities, p. 623 ff; Sharp due for retirement on May 1, 1968 but retained until July 31, p. 627; sends his estimate of situation (July, 1968) to JCS before conference of Clark Clifford (SecDef) in Saigon, p. 629 ff; Sharp sends his last situation report on July 31, 1968, p. 635 ff; Sharp's problem with Westmoreland, McNamara on close air support, p. 637-9; problem over operational control of First Marine Air Wing, p. 641 ff.

CINC PAC CONFERENCES: p. 277; after conference of Aug. 1965

CincPac issues guidance for future conferences, p. 292-3.

CINC PAC FLEET: Sharp becomes Deputy Chief of Staff for Plans, Operations and Intelligence - Aug. 1954 - p. 141, Adm. Stump's top notch staff, p. 142-3; the process of separating CincPac and CincPac Fleet commands, p. 143; Sharp leaves staff in July 1956 for command of CruDiv 3, p. 149; Sharp takes over from Admiral Sides (Sept. 30, 1963), p. 180; activities during first days of his command, p. 180-1; tour of Western Pacific, p. 181 ff; 7th Fleet scheduling conference at Subic Bay, p. 182-3; travels in Nov./Dec. 1963, p. 187-8; Sharp mentioned as possibility for CincPac command, p. 190; chronology of visitors and travels in 1964, p. 192 ff.

CLIFFORD, The Hon. Clark - Secretary of Defense: named by President Johnson as SecDef on Jan. 19, 1968, p. 566; the attitude of Clifford on the Tet offensive, p. 592-3; p. 595.

CLOSE AIR SUPPORT - Vietnam: problems attendant thereto, p. 637 ff.

COMBAT BEAVER: p. 390-lp; p. 393.

COMMANDER DD's, Pacific: Sharp ordered (Jan. 1945) to staff in Honolulu as Combat Information Center and Radar Officer, p. 96 ff; base transferred to San Diego (1946) - concern then with demobilization, p. 99.

USS COMSTOCK: (LSD-19): mother ship for ten of the river patrol boats in South Vietnam, p. 401.

COM USMAC THAI: set up in 1965 in case of military action in that area, p. 276.

COM USMACV: Command set up and General Westmoreland named as Commander, p. 201; p. 272; Westmoreland objects to continued stand-down on North Vietnam bombing efforts, p. 356; wanted authority to take charge of air campaign in lower part of North Vietnam, p. 360; given that authority by Adm. Sharp in April 1966, p. 360; p. 372; instructed in some detail by CincPac on air war in Laos and North Vietnam, p. 373. Has command of T.F. 116 (river patrol), p. 400; has command of MARKET TIME to prevent waterborne infiltration into South Vietnam, p. 402; Jan. 1967 gives command guidance to subordinate commanders on conduct of war in 1967, p. 414-6; a new headquarters complex (1967) outside Saigon, p. 551. (Note See additional entries under WESTMORELAND)

CRU DES FORCE, PACFLT: Sharp takes command, Feb. 1959, p. 154.

CRU DIV 3: Sharp takes command, July 1956, p. 149; operation for evaluation of REGULUS I missile, p. 149-150.

CUBAN MISSILE CRISIS: p. 165.

CURTZ, Adm. Maurice E. (Germany); p. 143.

CUSHMAN, General Robert E. Jr.: Commandant U.S. Marine Corps; question raised by Gen. Westmoreland over operational control of First Marine Air Wing, p. 641 ff.

DANANG: p. 258; deployment of Marine Corps combat troops, p. 258-9; addition of a second runway, p. 312; p. 326. Sharp visits there to discuss situation at Khesanh, p. 567.

DAWEE, Air Chief Marshal: Deputy Minister of Defense in Thailand, p. 280.

DCNO for PLANS: p. 155, p. 160 ff; Sharp's citation for his duty as DCNO, p. 166-7.

DD SQUADRON 5: Sharp takes command in San Diego (1950) p. 1056; p. 125-130.

DE SOTO PATROL: Name given the DD patrol in Tonkin Gulf, p. 226-7; p. 234; retaliatory strikes were readied by the U.S. for possible enemy action against the DeSoto Patrol p. 240-1; p. 269.

DIEM, Ngo-dinh - President of South Vietnam: p. 195; overthrown and assassinated, p. 196.

USS ENTERPRISE: her involvement in PUEBLO incident, p. 5723; p. 580-3.

FARMGATE FORCES: U.S. Airforce Squadrons in Vietnam, p. 257; p. 270.

FELT, Admiral H.D.: p. 190; p. 193.

FIRST FLEET: Sharp takes command as Vice Admiral, Apr. 1960, p. 156.

FULBRIGHT, Senator Wm.: his remarks in Feb. 1970 on Tonkin Gulf and the Senate Resolution, p. 299-50.

GAME WARDEN: (T.F. 116): The River Patrol, p. 400; used to halt Viet Cong actions on the inland waterways of South Vietnam... first boats in April, 1966, p. 401.

GUAM: p. 85-6; Sharp detached from BOYD on Guam, p. 92.

HANOI: See numerous references under: NORTH VIETNAM, CINC PAC, JCS. Hanoi frequently used in dispatches, summaries, etc. when reference is actually to North Vietnam, North Vietnamese policies and actions, etc.

HARKINS, General Paul: Feb. 1962 becomes head of MAAG in Saigon, p. 175; p. 191; MAAG abolished (May 15, 1964) and Harkins departs, p. 201.

HELICOPTERS: history of their use in South Vietnam, p. 174-6; NOTE: see occasional references to them in Adm. Stark's summary of operations - CINC PAC.

USS HENDERSON - transport; Sharp serves as officer of the deck (1928), p. 14 ff.

HERRICK, Capt. John J.: DD Division Commander in Tonkin Gulf, p. 218; p. 220-1; DD TURNER JOY joins his patrol, p. 222; p. 226-7; p. 230.

USS HIGBEE: designated to take position off Wonsan during PUEBLO incident, p. 582; p. 585.

USS HOGAN (DD-Minesweeper): Sharp becomes skipper (May, 1942) p. 51; his difficulties with Adm. Hoover in San Juan, p. 53-4; the landing at Casablanca, p. 55-7.

HOLYOAKE, The Hon. K.J.: Prime Minister of New Zealand (1967), p. 203 p. 211; p. 238.

HOOVER, Admiral John: p. 53-4.

HOP TAC OPERATION: Pacification effort in areas out from Saigon, p. 236.

USS HOUSTON: DD BOYD participates in rescue of personnel who had abandoned the HOUSTON, p. 89-90; helps take the Houston in tow, p. 91.

HYLAND, Admiral John J. - Commander, 7th Fleet: Sharp enlists his aid in briefing SecDef on value of bombing program on North Vietnamese targets, p. 463-6; p. 477.

IA DRANG VALLEY, Battle of: (Oct.-Nov. 1965), p. 321.

INCHON, Korea: See entry under Admiral STRUBLE: landing operation, p. 116 ff; MacArthur and Struble inspect operation (night of Sept. 15), p. 118; Sharp and companions land - attempt to visit Kimpo Air Base, p. 120-1.

INDONESIA: her claim to territorial sea areas - a 12 mile limit instead of 3 miles - p. 205; complications - for U.S. and Great Britain, p. 206-7.

INTERNATIONAL CONTROL COMMISSION: March 1965 - puts out paper (through British Foreign Office) condemning U.S. air strikes against North Vietnam, p. 265; p. 565.

IRON HAND: surface-to-air missile suppression strikes over North Vietnam, p. 364.

JOHNSON, President Lyndon: asks Gen. Westmoreland (Oct. 1966) for estimate of bombing campaign, p. 384-5; His statement in Manila (Oct. 1966) on getting out of Vietnam - causes CincPac to launch post hostilities planning study in Jan. 1967, p. 416; p. 430; p. 558; p. 563; names Clark Clifford as SecDef (Jan. 1968), p. 566; calls up some reservists Jan. 25, 1968, p. 586; March 31, 1968 announces additional forces for Vietnam - cessation of bombing over North Vietnam - a new peace offensive, p. 594.

JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF (JCS): p. 165; first meeting with SecDef McNamara, p. 167 ff; attitude towards picture in Vietnam, p. 170-2; join in recommendations of CincPac for action to destroy will and capability of North Vietnamese, p. 252-4; Sharp before the JCS p. 266-7; p. 279; p. 281; JCS concept for South Vietnam in 1965, p. 287; Rolling Thunder directions p. 294-5; attempt of JCS to comply with request of CincPac on air strikes', p. 302; March, 1965, directed unified commanders to take more direct part in joint base development, p. 327; CincPac sends message (Jan. 1966) outlining strategy to get air war underway again, p. 344-55; Sharp reports assistance from JCS (1966) in getting his ideas across, p. 357; p. 374; Sharp sends urgent message Oct. 26, 1966 urging extension of air warfare, p. 389; p. 394-6; Sharp asks permission to use missiles against MIGs, p. 396-8; JCS did not give good support to Sharp in his request for naval gunfire against North Vietnam targets, p. 398; Sharp sends summary message of operations, Jan. 14, 1967, p. 403-9; Sharp sends message to Wheeler, Jan. 20, 1967 dealing with anti-infiltration measures, p. 411-13; Sharp's message of Feb. 1967 recommending closing of North Vietnam ports, p. 416-20; JCS asks for Sharp's comments on key questions formulated by Gen. Taylor, p. 422-27; refers to Adm. Joy's book on "how communists negotiate" as applicable in Vietnam, p. 427-8; Sharp comments on restrictions placed on Rolling Thunder #53, p. 438; JCS gives Sharp resistance on his proposals to use Talos missiles, p. 440-1; p. 445-6; expresses concern over build-up of debate on U.S. bombing in North Vietnam, p. 447- 8; permission granted Sharp for further targets near Hanoi-Haiphong, p. 449 ff; Sharp's briefing of McNamara very similar to messages send JCS previously, p. 483; JCS answers McNamara's memo of May 20, 1967 on alternatives in Vietnam - presents a new one, p. 484 ff; Sharp recommends targets in buffer zone near China (Aug. 1967), p. 488 ff; JCS asks Sharp for outline of optimum air campaign against North Vietnam (Nov. 1967-68), p. 510-519 ff; Sharp questions JCS proposed statement on 'mission' of air warfare over North Vietnam - similar to statement of SecDef, p. 519 ff; Sharp's assessment of cessation of bombing, p. 523-29; Sharp's assessment of port closures, p. 529; Sharp again asks JCS for authority (Sept. 1967) to bomb certain targets, p. 533; Sharp sends (Jan. 1, 1968) review of 1967 operations, p. 537-52; Sharp continues his report of Jan. 1, 1968 with intensions for 1968, p. 552-54; for role in PUEBLO incident see p. 569 ff;

p. 606; ask Sharp for assessment of capability of U.S. and Allied Forces to achieve objectives in S.E. Asia, p. 607 ff; when peace negotiations start JCS asks Cine Pac for periodic assessment of military position - reports no longer requested by them after a month, p. 613-16; Sharp's recommendations on what we should do as result of attacks in S. Vietnam p. 616-19.

JOY, Admiral Turner: his book on "How Communists Negotiate," p. 427-8.

KHANH, General: ousts Gen. Minh and becomes Prime Minister, p. 198; p. 209; his address to a mass meeting on July 19 Ambassador Taylor's reaction, p. 211-212; renames Gen. Minh as Chief of State, p. 236.

KHESANH: Attack on (1968) p. 567; p. 587; p. 589; p. 643.

KIMPO AIR BASE - South Korea: Sharp visits a short time after the Inchon landings, p. 120-1.

KOREA: Sharp uses Korea as example of what to avoid in negotiations with communists, p. 427-8.

KRULAK, Gen. Victor H.: In 1964 becomes Commander of Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, p. 192; trusted adviser of Sharp, p. 192.

KY, Air Vice Marshal Nguyen Cao: installed as Prime Minister of South Vietnam in 1965, p. 309; success of his efforts, p. 316; p. 374-5.

LAMBERT, Comdr. V.G.: Assistant Planning Officer on staff of Adm. Struble for Inchon landing operation, p. 109; p. 120-1.

LAOS: Washington's interest in air strikes on trails - difficulty involved, p. 313; see other references to Laos in CINC PAC summaries and dispatched to JCS. Note: See numerous entries under: CINC PAC, NORTH VIETNAM, SOUTH VIETNAM, WESTMORELAND.

LODGE, The Hon. Henry Cabot: Aug. 1965 resumes his second tour of duty as U.S. Ambassador in Saigon, p. 308-9; tended to leave military operations to military men - in favor of strong action against North Vietnam, p. 325.

USS LONG BEACH: p. 440; Sharp seeks permission to use her in TALOS MISSILE attacks against enemy MIGs, p. 440-1; p. 457.

M-16 RIFLE: New U.S. Rifle 1965 - effective use of, p. 322; first issued to South Vietnamese forces in 1967, p. 548; Note: see numerous references in dispatch summaries of CINC PAC.

MAAG - Saigon: p. 175; abolished on May 15, 1964, p. 201.

USS MACON: Sharp takes command - Aug. 1953, p. 137; Adm. Burke uses MACON as flagship, p. 138; midshipman cruise of June 1954, p. 138; Sharp leaves MACON for duty with CincPac in Aug. 1954, p. 139.

USS MADDOX: p. 213-221; p. 226-8; p. 249-51.

U.S. MARINE CORPS: question about operational control of First Marine Air Wing in Vietnam, p. 641 ff.

MARK 36 DESTRUCTOR: Comes on stream in August, 1967, p. 489.

MARKET TIME - Operation: p. 261. See other references in reports of CincPac to JCS. Task Force 115 - under command of US Macv - a patrol effort to prevent the waterborne infiltration of men and material into South Vietnam, p. 402.

McMahon, The Hon. Wm.: Minister of Labor and National Service in Australia, p. 209.

McNAMARA, Robert S.: Secretary of Defense: his first meeting with the Joint Chiefs, p. 167-9; arrives with Gen. Taylor to attend CincPac Conference in Hawaii - terminated because of assassination of Pres. Kennedy, p. 186-7; selects Sharp to succeed Adm. Felt as CincPac, p. 191; on July 15, 1964 announces no evidence of North Vietnamese troops in South Vietnam, p. 210; p. 227; telephone conversation with Sharp on Tonkin Gulf incident, p. 229-230; reinforces Pacific forces, p. 232; p. 238; begins to get involved (April 1965) in details of air strike plans of CincPac, p. 268 ff; visits Gen. Westmoreland - gets list of his needs, p. 290; calling of another conference in Hawaii (Aug. 3-6, 1965) for coordinated program of deployment in Vietnam, p. 290-1; tendency to underestimate bombing results in Vietnam, p. 337; his emphasis on importance of South Vietnamese theatre, p. 302; in Saigon Nov. 1965 with Wheeler and Westmoreland, p. 310; p. 336; gives Westmoreland approval to conduct bombing on package #1 p. 360; p. 369; never fully convinced air war over North Vietnam getting results, p. 370-1; requests info from CincPac on what steps to be taken to minimize civilian casualties in north Vietnam, p. 377-8; apprehension on part of SecDef and President over results of bombing - leaks from Washington on proposed missions - difficulty for U.S. pilots, p. 379; p. 390- 1 ; more on his thesis that war effort should be focused on anti-infiltration efforts, p. 411-12; continued reservations about air war over North Vietnam, p. 454; proposes alternate plans to present bombing campaign, p. 461-2; p. 464-5; Sharp's briefing of him in Saigon (June 1967), p. 465 ff; his reaction to Sharp's presentation, p. 481; substance of his memo to JCS, SecNav, etc. on alternatives in North Vietnam, p. 485 ff; he gives CincPac permission to hit certain targets - the night before Cine Pac testifies before Senate Committee, p. 505-6; Republican's Task Force report ascribes policy of gradualism in Vietnam a 'brain child' of McNamara, p. 611; Sharp indicates his difficulty in keeping McNamara from ordering air offensive off of North Vietnam and into South Vietnam, p. 637-8; p. 648.

MIGs: They offer increasing threat to U.S. air operations over North Vietnam, p. 445-6; p. 447, p. 451; p. 457; in Sharp briefing of McNamara (June, 1967 - Saigon) he deals with change in manner of employment of MIGs, p. 469 ff. see also - entries; ROLLING THUNDER: NORTH VIETNAM.

MINH, Major Gen. Duong Van: heads provisional government following Diem, p. 196; ousted in Jan. 1964 by Gen. Khanh who names him Chief of State on Feb. 10, p. 198.

MINING Operations - North Vietnamese harbors: p. 304-5: see also entries under CincPac - especially in his summaries to JCS on operations.

USS MISSOURI - BB: in Korean waters, p. 126-7.

MOMYER, General Wm. Wallace - Commander, 7th Air Force: Sharp

enlists his aid in briefing SecDef on value of North Vietnam bombing, p. 463-6; p. 477; p. 641-2; p. 646.

MOORE, RADM R. B.: Carrier Division Commander in Tonkin Gulf at time of the incident, p. 217; p. 221.

MOORER, Adm. Thos. H.: CincPacFlt., p. 221-3; p. 230.

MORSE, Senator Wayne: on the Tonkin Gulf incidents in the U.S. Senate, p. 227.

MUSTIN, Vice Admiral Lloyd: In 1966 served as J-3 of the Joint Staff, JCS - helpful to Admiral Sharp, p. 357.

NAURU: See entry under DD BOYD.

NAVAL WAR COLLEGE: Sharp spends a year (1949-50) in residence, p. 104-5.

USS NEW MEXICO - BB: First duty for Sharp after graduation from N. Academy, p. 12 ff; NITZE, Paul: Secretary of the Navy; shows interest in air strike in support of in-country forces, p. 311.

NIXON, President Richard M.: Sharp's statement of what he might have done when he took office as regards Vietnam, p. 621-22.

NORTH VIETNAM: response to Rolling Thunder pressure in 1965, p. 308; dropping of leaflets and toy packets, p. 317-8; first regular army units enter South Vietnam, p. 319-20; CincPac and the necessity for maintaining pressure on the north, p. 344 ff; efforts to improve logistic supplies in the Tet stand-down, p. 435; p. 437-8; cumulative efforts of bombing (1967), p. 444-5; Sharp delineates North Vietnam strategy for the JCS, p. 445-6; p. 452-3; no shortage of targets in North Vietnam, p. 460-1; Sharp discusses restrictions under which he operated, p. 498 ff; a tentative peace overture from North Vietnam, p. 558-9; Sharp's remarks to General Wheeler on conditions that should be met first before peace discussions p. 561; bombing attacks over North Vietnam cease on April 1, 1968; p. 594 ff; North Vietnam agrees to meet with U.S. peace delegation in Paris on May 10, 1968, p. 610; North Vietnam exploitation of bombing cessation, p. 615-6 ff.

OP - 06 (Strategic Plans Division): Sharp serves (Sept. 1957) under Adm. Libby and Adm. B. Austin, P. 150 ff.

USS ORISKANY: serious fire on board - Oct. 26, 1966, p. 365.

PARIS PEACE NEGOTIATIONS: Begun in May, 1968 (May 10), p. 610; Sharp's reasons why negotiations continued even though North Vietnamese were taking advantage of cessation of bombing, p. 610-1; p. 629.

POL Targets (Fuel oil installations); see entries under ROLLING THUNDER, CINC PAC: p. 363; p. 375; Washington gives permission for strikes on POL targets around Hanoi and Haiphong ...success of strikes...explanation offered by State Department to the world, p. 380; p. 381-2; p. 388; p. 438; p. 458; p. 473; p. 600-1; p. 630-1.

POST GRADUATE COURSE: p. 33 ff.

USS PUEBLO: Background to the mission of the PUEBLO, p. 567-8; Sharp's story of the capture, p. 569 ff; Sharp's comments on book about PUEBLO incident by Admiral Dan Gallery, p. 575-6.

RAHMAN, Tengku Abdul - Prime Minister of Mayala, p. 212.

REGULUS I: p. 149-150.

REISCHAUER, Edwin Oldfather; U.S. Ambassador to Japan, 263.

REPUBLICAN PARTY - Task Force of Military Experts: writes report on "The Failure of Gradualism in Vietnam," p. 610-12.

USS RICHMOND: Sharp ordered to her from P.G. school, p. 38 ff; wins the Engineering E, p. 41.

USS ROCHESTER: Adm. Struble's flagship - 7th fleet, p. 110-111; p. 115-6.

ROLLING THUNDER: (name given U.S. air operations over North Vietnam): Feb. 22, 1965 - first in series, p. 271; p. 282; discussion of restrictions placed by Washington on U.S. air operations, p. 282-4; JCS restrictions (representing ideas of a higher authority) p. 294-5; illustrations of gradual relaxation of restrictions, p. 295-9; operations suspended Dec. 1965 for indefinite period, p. 305; SAM missile sites and restrictions placed on their attack, p. 305-6; concern in Washington over priority of the air effort, p. 310; summary of operations Nov/Dec. 1965, p. 323-4; overall look at operations in 1965, p. 332- 344; chronology of air operations against North Vietnam in 1966, p. 344 ff; p. 349 ff; bombing resumed Jan. 31, 1966 with Rolling Thunder #48, p. 357-8; Rolling Thunder #49 gives CincPac more freedom with armed reconnaissance, p. 358-9; Rolling Thunder #50 - SecDef gives fixed targets, p. 359; Rolling Thunder #51 (July 1966) armed reconnaissance extended to all North Vietnam, p. 363-4; Rolling Thunder #52, p. 365-8; Nov. 1966 Cine Pac published ROLLING THUNDER (ed. #1-66) - Sharp notes good effects of this summary with pictures, p. 371-2. p. 388-9; Rolling Thunder #52 got approval for certain targets - then approval withdrawn because British Foreign Minister was visiting Moscow and Washington didn't want complications, p. 390; p. 392; Sharp's outline of objectives of Rolling Thunder Operations - message to JCS Jan. 14, 1967 - p. 404; air war over North Vietnam in first quarter of 1967, p. 431-6; p. 438; air efforts in 2nd quarter of 1967, p. 441-2; cumulative effects of bombing efforts, p. 444-6; p. 448; p. 452-3; p. 459-60; p. 463-4; p. 507; p. 532-6; bombing over North Vietnam comes to halt, p. 594-5; review of Rolling Thunder attacks in first three months of 1968, p. 596 ff.

ROUTE PACKAGES: term used for ROLLING THUNDER armed recco areas, p. 441; See also - ROLLING THUNDER Operations.

RUSK, The Hon. Dean - Secretary of State: p. 494; his ideas for an all-out effort in South Vietnam, p. 494; General Westmoreland's reply, p. 495-7; p. 595.

RUSSIAN ASSISTANCE - for North Vietnam: p. 263-4.

SAFI, Morocco: p. 58.

SAIGON: Note: see numerous references in the story of U.S. activities in Vietnam - under SOUTH VIETNAM, CINC PAC, WESTMORELAND, McNAMARA; focal point for North Vietnamese attacks in 1968 - during bombing cessation of north p.

624; Gen. Abrams, as USMACV gives his estimate (June, 1968) of morale in Saigon - effects of North Vietnamese attacks, p. 627-8.

SALISBURY, Harrison: New York TIMES correspondent - visits Hanoi (Dec. 1966) and reports on results of U.S. bombing, p. 447.

SAM threat: becomes increasingly difficult in middle of 1966 for U.S. bombers, p. 382-4.

SANGLEY POINT: p. 583-4.

USS SARATOGA: Sharp (July 1932) becomes division officer, p. 24-27; plane types on board, p. 29; the baseball team, p. 31-2.

SCHERGER, Air Chief Marshall Sir Frederick: Australian Military Advisor to SEATO, p. 260-1.

