

Index to
A series of interviews with Vice Admiral Robert S. Salzer
U. S. Navy (Retired)

USS ABBOT: Salzer takes command (1954), p. 154; p. 160 ff; mission to Korea, p. 165-6; return to Newport - winter conditions, p. 172-3; p. 178; a story about the stealing of brass burners from the ship during preparation for sea trials, p. 578;

ABRAMS, General Creighton W.: p. 80; p. 282-4; p. 545; Salzer speaks openly about the logistics situation he found in Vietnam - asks Abrams' permission to request from ADM Clarey a team to survey the situation, p. 545-6;
p. 555; incensed over Koreans taking brass equipment back to homeland, p. 577-8; agrees that problem of infiltration of supplies is not purely a navy problem,
p. 611-12; p. 626; his appreciation for the daring feats of the SEALS, p. 629-31; p. 634; Salzer leaves
Vietnam one day after Abrams, p. 638-39;

AIR CUSHION VEHICLES (PacV), p. 420 ff; experiences with them in the Delta - the newest amphibious vessel, the AALC,
p. 424 ff;

ALSOP, Joseph: correspondence in Vietnam, p. 559;

AMPHIBIOUS OPERATIONS AND COMMANDS: p. 269 ff; the Army involvement, p. 280-1;

ANDERSON, Admiral George W.: p. 206;

ARAMCO: p. 105;

ASSAULT SUPPORT PATROL BOAT (ASPB): the story of the ASPB, the destroyer of the rivers, p. 413 ff;

AUSTIN, VADM Bernard L.: p. 182-3;

BAGLEY, Admiral David: Chief of Naval Personnel, p. 606;

BARBADOS: p. 287-8;

BAY OF PIGS: p. 195-6;

USS BENEWAH: p. 329; p. 339;

USS BERKELEY: flagship for DD Div 192; p. 238;

BODY COUNT: the measure of success in Vietnam - see entries under: LT GEN JULIAN EWELL and NINTH INFANTRY DIVISION;

USS BRYCE CANYON - DD tender: p. 208; p. 214-17; remarks on the feasibility of maintaining tenders for ship repair work, p. 222-227;

BU PERS: Salzer returns to Washington (late 1968) and a job with Future Professional Manpower Requirements under ADM Duncan, p. 496; p. 499; p. 501-2;

BURKE, Admiral Arleigh A.: relieves ADM Hartman as ComDesLant, p. 179 ff; p. 195; p. 206-7; p. 228;

C-5A: see entries under: NAVAL WARFARE ANALYSIS;

CAMBODIA: p. 306; the U. S. action there and the results in the Delta, p. 624-5; the operational problem because of Cambodian/Vietnamese animosity, p. 624-5;

CARNEY, Admiral Robert B.: CincNelm, p. 149;

CASTRO, Fidel: p. 207;

USS CHARLES H. ROAN: Salzer becomes Exec (1951), p. 130; the story of her collision with the DD BROWNSON, p. 139-40; her special duties and her experiences with ADM Fahrion, p. 141 ff;

CHOU, Admiral of the Vietnamese Navy: very disturbed because Salzer brings out a survey team to examine logistics situation, p. 547-8; p. 553-4; p. 569; p. 691;

CIA: current intelligence assessment panel, p. 188; the Castro question - Salzer presents the questions that arose, p. 189; 195-6;

CINC US NAV EUR: Salzer goes to that staff in Frankfurt, p. 150 ff; Salzer gives a resume of the uncertain atmosphere in Europe in the early 1950s, p. 155-6;

CLAREY, ADM Bernard A.: As VCNO instigated the study of BuPers on Future Professional Manpower Requirements, p. 499; delays departure of Salzer from Washington to a West Coast assignment in order to work on a project of the National Security Council, p. 504; p. 532; Salzer asks him to send a team to Vietnam to survey the logistic problems, p. 546; p. 555; writes to CNO about the unfortunate remark of Zumwalt's black Equal Opportunity Advisor on loyalty to fellow blacks rather than the navy, p. 645-6; demands a readiness improvement program in the Pacific, p. 650-1;

U. S. COAST GUARD: unit at Okinawa, p. 69;
see entry under: MARKET TIME.

COM. AMPHIB. FORCE, PAC FLT (Sept. 1972), p. 643 ff; his method of inspecting his ships, p. 656 ff; he and Price work on tactical developments, p. 665; defense against missile boat attack, p. 665; continuity in the efforts of the Amphib Force is still maintained in the several commands, p. 666-7; cooperation with the army, p. 667 ff; the marines, p. 667-9; Salzer called to Washington for six weeks on Fleet Reorganization, p. 670 ff;

COMCRUDESFLT 3: Salzer takes command at Long Beach (1969), p. 517; misses out on the New Jersey as flagship because she is decommissioned, p. 517; comments on BB's and the modern fleet, p. 518-20; complexion of the command, p. 521; Salzer's heart attack, p. 534 ff; CNO puts him on a limited duty with ships in Long Beach, p. 525-6;

COMNAV EASTLANT: Salzer named as Assistant Chief of Staff for intelligence, p. 148 ff; goes to US CincEur, p. 150-1;

COM NAV FOR V: Zumwalt asks Salzer to take over from ADM King, p. 530; the stopover in Pearl Harbor for further briefings, p. 531 ff; problems encountered in the field of logistics, p. 542-ff; the survey team and the consequences, p. 547 ff; Zumwalt's visit, p. 552 ff; the drug problem that Salzer faced, p. 556 ff; MacV's hesitation about announcement on the stepped-up drug traffic, p. 558; use of helicopters for observation of Vietnamese patrols, p. 569; gets RADM Dowd to straighten out the supply problem in Vietnam, p. 570; ADM Chou makes Dowd VCNO of the Vietnamese Navy for Supply, p. 570; construction work in Vietnam under RADM Foster Leylor, p. 571-2; continuous problems with personnel because of the process of "drawing down" in Vietnam, p. 582-3; morale problems augmented by the press and the legal people stationed in Saigon to council the disaffected, p. 584-5; the demands on Salzer's leadership because of the diverse and limited number of units actually in combat, p. 585-6; Salzer's Admiral's Request Mast in Saigon, p. 586-94; Salzer's most pressing operational problem in the MARKET TIME operation, p. 597 ff; the 1972 decision on an early U. S. withdrawal, p. 626 ff; in the midst of phasing down in 1972 the North Vietnamese launched the East offensive across the DMZ, p. 634-6;

USS CORPUS CHRISTI: former seaplane tender - converted to helicopter repair facility - used by Army in Vietnam, p. 580-1;

DAVID, Colonel Bert: p. 350; 356; p. 365; p. 385; p. 396; p. 397; p. 402; p. 404; p. 432-4;

DESTROYER DIVISION 192: p. 230; problems with the Maddox, p. 233-4; Salzer serves as screen commander for the Midway group, p. 234; p. 235; the last hectic night in the China Sea, p. 238-9;

DIEM - Ngo Dinh: President of South Viet Nam, p. 307-8; his efforts to break the power of the religious sects, p. 308; p. 310; p. 605;

DOWD, RADM Wallace R.: Zumwalt sends him to Vietnam to assist Salzer with the supply tangle, p. 570; p. 572; p. 627-8;

DRUG EPIDEMIC - in Vietnam: p. 556 ff; Zumwalt's spot decision on an amnesty program, p. 561-2; Salzer's one stipulation on amnesty - a matter of leadership involved, p. 563-4;

DULLES, Allan: director of CIA, p. 183-4;

DUNCAN, Admiral Charles D.: p. 244; p. 273; p. 278; p. 377-8; p. 499; p. 501-3; p. 504; p. 513-4;

EDUCATION: Salzer's philosophy on the subject for the U. S. Navy, p. 513 ff;

EISENHOWER, The Hon. Dwight: p. 193-4;

EWELL, Lt. Gen. Julian Johnson: takes command of 9th Infantry Division in Vietnam (1968), p. 408; p. 429-31; his mission assignment makes for difficulties, p. 431 ff; his obsession with "body count" as a yardstick of success, p. 433-4;

FAHRION, ADM Frank George: (Spike), p. 141-2; becomes Comdr. Amphib. Force, Atlantic, p. 143; his standards, p. 144-5;

FELT, Admiral H. D.: A task force commander in the South China sea, p. 168; his call sign is JEHOVAH, p. 168; Salzer's recollections of him, p. 169-70; p. 259-60; p. 207;

FLEET REORGANIZATION: result of SecDef's request to cut overhead, Salzer ordered to Washington, p. 670; decides to talk with the CNO/VCNO only in drawing up the reorganization - makes the job more manageable, p. 671; Salzer returns to WesPac but is called back to implement the plan - a year earlier than previously agreed, p. 682 ff;

FLEET TRAINING: in Narragansett Bay - p. 116 ff;

FRANKEL, RADM Samuel: p. 126; head of intelligence school, p. 126; an estimate of Admiral Frankel, p. 137; comes as deputy to Gen. Collins on the intelligence staff of JCS, p. 186;

FULLER, Lt. Gen. Marvin Don: p. 356;

USS FULMER: p. 26-7;

GREEN BERETS: see entries under: RIVERINE WARFARE - PANAMA TRAINING.

USS GUADALUPE: Salzer is ordered to her as Executive Officer, p. 101 ff; her bad state of repair and morale when Salzer joins her off Naha, p. 102; her mission to transport Arabian oil from Persian Gulf to the 7th fleet, p. 104-5; Ceylon, Singapore, China, p. 106-8; a new skipper in San Pedro, p. 108 ff; Salzer gets relieved in February 1948, p. 112;

HARBOR PROTECTION: p. 632; Salzer prepares a manual on experience in Vietnam; p. 632-3; gets the Coastal Defense Laboratory to put out a publication on the subject, p. 633;

HARTMAN, RADM C. C.: as ComDesLant - Salzer praises his leadership, p. 178-9;

HOOPER, VADM Edwin B.: Com Serv Pac - his insistence on complete control of all logistic forces, p. 336-8;

INDUSTRIAL COLLEGE OF THE ARMED FORCES: Salzer attends as a student (July 1959), p. 196-203;

INFILTRATION: see entries under: MARKET TIME.

INTELLIGENCE SCHOOL: p. 120 ff; the language requirement, Salzer is catapulted into Russian study, p. 122-6; the Korean War and the demands upon the school, p. 128-9; p. 132-3;

JCS: Salzer joins Layton's staff in intelligence, p. 180 ff; he is designated to be cognizant of forces in the mid-East and Africa, p. 181 ff; prelude to the Suez crisis, p. 186-7; development of current intelligence assessment panel under a CIA man, p. 188; comments on status of JCS under Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy, p. 193 ff;

KAMIKAZI: p. 48; p. 58-59; p. 65-6; at Okinawa, p. 70-72;

KENNEDY, The Hon. John F.: p. 193-4; p. 196;

KIDD, Admiral Isaac C., Jr.: as Com First Flt - decides to conduct "no notice" inspections of ships, p. 522-3; gives Salzer an assignment (while on limited duty) to appraise the readiness of his mine forces, p. 526; p. 530; Salzer gives a resume of their study, p. 535 ff;

KIEN HOA PROVINCE - Vietnam: efforts of Gen. Ewell to carry out a pacification program, p. 435 ff; p. 441 ff;

KISSINGER, The Hon. Henry: National Security Advisor - originates a NSC study on comparative navies, p. 504; p. 510;

KITCHEN CABINET EAST: p. 548; Salzer determines that the system must be controlled when he came as ComNavFor V, p. 549;

KOREANS in Vietnam: p. 639;

LAYTON, RADM Ed: p. 123; p. 131; p. 137-8; asks for Salzer on JCS staff, p. 178; p. 180; p. 182; p. 186;

LEADERSHIP: Salzer's remarks about Vietnamese leadership; U. S. faulty approach to Vietnamization, etc., p. 616 ff;

LEWIS, Major General Millard, USAF: Salzer works for him on CincNavEur staff in Frankfurt, p. 151 ff;

LEYLOR, RADM Foster: in charge of all construction in Vietnam, p. 571;

LEYTE GULF: LST 24 part of landing force at Leyte, p. 55-56; the problem of the kamikazi, p. 48 ff;

LOGISTICS PLANS: (Op-40) in CNO organization: Salzer detailed there after Industrial College, p. 204-6;

LST 624: p. 50 ff; Salzer commissions her in New Orleans, p. 51; sent to MacArthur forces in S.W. Pacific, p. 54; Leyte, p. 55 ff; Nasugbu, p. 61 ff; Okinawa, p. 70; a kamikaze hit, p. 71-72; she becomes smoke-screen ship for balance of the battle for Okinawa, p. 74-6; back to Ulithi under escort, p. 81; landing in Japan after surrender, p. 88-89; Okinawa and the typhoon, p. 90-92; back to Japan and duty under ADM Struble, p. 92;

MAC V Staff: p. 323-5; p. 327; obsession with the body count, p. 347; p. 352-3; p. 355; p. 372; p. 381-2; p. 388; p. 397; p. 398; their concept of the situation when Tet offensive came, p. 399-ff; p. 407; p. 489; see other entries: VIETNAMESE NAVY.

USS MADDOX: p. 231-4; p. 259;

MANPOWER AND PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT: after retirement Salzer called to do a study, p. 709 ff;

U.S. MARINES: in Venezuela, p. 287; in Barbados, p. 287-8; St. Thomas, p. 288 ; p. 327-8; many other entries:
RIVERINE WARFARE
NINTH INFANTRY DIVISION
VIETNAM
LT. GEN. JULIAN EWELL
OPERATION SEALORDS ADMIRAL
ELMO ZUMWALT COM AMPHIB

FORCE, PAC FLT.
PHIB RON 4
AMPHIB. OPERATIONS AND COMMANDS

MARKET TIME: p. 316-7; p. 597 ff; use of Zumwalt's Ops Analysis shop for water patrols, p. 599; the deplorable state of the inshore patrol when Salzer became involved, p. 607 ff;

MAYAGUEZ AFFAIR: p. 696-700;

McNamara, Robert Strange: p. 194; p. 251; p. 255; p. 434;

MICHAEL, Col. Robert L., Jr.: Marine Landing Force Commander with Phib Ron 4, p. 288-9;

MINESWEEPING: p. 26-7; p. 30-34; his later convalescent period and the study he made (1969-70) on mine warfare, p. 35-6; Salzer describes the "brute force" method, p. 93-4; use of small sweeps in the Delta area of Vietnam, p. 348;

MINE WARFARE: capabilities of the PacFlt - a study made by Salzer, p. 535 ff; the use of helicopters for mine sweeping, p. 540;

MOBILE RIVERINE FORCE: see entries under: RIVERINE WARFARE.

MOCAY: Kien Hoa province, p. 441-2;

MOORER, Adm. Thomas H.: p. 236; p. 343; his advocacy of destructor mines for interdiction of supplies, p. 480; his order on haircuts, etc. goes unnoticed - cited by Zumwalt later as a precedent for some of his orders, p. 529;

MY THO: Northern Delta city - under siege in the Tet offensive, p. 403-5;

NASUGBU, Philippines: landing at, p. 61-64;

NAVAL COMMAND: Salzer comments on responsibilities and needed qualifications, p. 43; further problems of command, p. 83-4; comments on use of liquor - attitude towards enlisted, etc., p. 86;

NAVAL WARFARE ANALYSIS: the navy takes up systems analysis - Salzer becomes member of the team under J. Victor Smith, p. 241 ff; the study of VSTOL combat aircraft, p. 247-8; relations with the OSD analysts, p. 250-1; the FDL ship concept, p. 250 ff;

NEWPORT, R.I.: see entries under: USS Abbot.

NINTH INFANTRY DIVISION: p. 328; p. 332-5; Westmoreland orders construction of a base camp in the Delta, p. 335-6; p. 346; p. 397; p. 407; the Commander kept insisting the Riverine Task Forces go up to defend Saigon in the Tet Offensive, p. 408; a new commander in the person of Lt. Gen. Julian Ewell, p. 408; the Division moved down to the Delta from BEARCAT with headquarters in Dong Tam, p. 409; a discussion of the command relationships with the coming of Gen. Ewell, p. 429 ff;

NITZE, The Hon. Paul: p. 256-7;

NOW, Capt. George: becomes commander of CTF 117 when Salzer takes over SEALORDS (Oct. 1968) - Salzer gives him administrative control over CTF 116 also, p. 482-3;

NROTC - at Yale: Salzer belongs for a period, p. 14-18;

OKINAWA: p. 68;

OP-40 (Logistics Plans): see entry under LOGISTICS.

PEET, VADM Raymond Edward: p. 256-7;

PETROSS, Captain Lynn C.: skipper of the USS GUADALUPE, p. 108- 10; p. 113;

PHIB RON 4: Salzer takes command (Feb. 1966), p. 268 ff; comments on the status of amphibious forces in that time, p. 268- 71; the Caribbean assignment, p. 276-7; the philosophy of Caribbean hurricanes, p. 279-80;

PHILLIPS-EXETER: Salzer enrolled from age 12 to 16, p. 5-7; language requirements, p. 8-9;

POW's: attitudes on the POWs in North Vietnam and those captured by the Viet Cong, p. 635-7;

PRICE, RADM Arthur: Salzer has him named as Deputy for Operations, ComNavFor V, p. 533-4; p. 547; becomes Comdr. Amphib. Grp, Eastern Pac under Salzer, p. 663-5; p. 683; p. 689;

RACH RUONG RIVER BATTLE: p. 351-5;

RACIAL MATTERS IN THE U. S. NAVY: p. 564-6; Zumwalt's system of Minority Affairs Representatives, p. 567; p. 644 ff;

RADFORD, Admiral Arthur: p. 182; chairman of the JCS, p. 183; briefing Radford after his retirement as Chairman, p. 184-5; p. 191;

RICKOVER, Adm. Hyman: enraged by the NSC study on comparative navies as undertaken by Sonenshein and Salzer, p. 505;

RIVERINE WARFARE: Salzer becomes interested in opportunities for training in Panama while taking Marines of Phib Ron 4 for jungle warfare school, p. 289-90; p. 292-3; Panama training exercises lacked good communications and air assistance, p. 293; Salzer reports in Saigon (1967) - background information on how the U.S. river forces came into being, p. 302 ff; Salzer maintains a riverine force is not suitable for pacification, p. 325-7; the command arrangement developed by Salzer with Adm. Hooper (ComSer-Pac), p. 336-7; T.F. 117 was the operational designation, p. 338; by summer 1967 the basic elements of the Mobile Riverine Force were formed, p. 338-9; Viet Cong stopped by U. S. use of heavily armed boats in Delta, p. 340; they quickly recover with use of B-40 rockets, p. 341 ff; the Rach Rong River battle, p. 351 ff; p. 358 ff; the problem with tides in rivers of the Delta, p. 363-4; the planning of operations, p. 365 ff; also 382-3; problems of discipline, p. 370 ff; leadership, p. 375; p. 382; COMMUNICATIONS AND CODES, p. 394-5; A LESSON FROM THE TET OFFENSIVE, p. 410-11; Westmoreland's plans (1967-8) for a fast build-up of the Mobile Riverine Force with bases aboard ships, p. 412; the coming of Gen. Ewell to the 9th Infantry Division, p. 429 ff; Salzer goes along with Ewell's effort to pacify Kien Hoa Province (1968), p. 435-6; also p. 440; enemy tactics in mounting an ambush on the Delta rivers, p. 445 ff; exploiting the element of surprise, p. 471-3; Salzer indoctrinates Zumwalt on riverine warfare - his determination to interdict the flow of supplies to the enemy, p. 476-80; Salzer says that at this point (1968) the U.S. forces had fought the Viet Cong to more than a standstill, p. 494-5;

ROUGH, RADM Chick: Zumwalt's officer in charge of drugs, etc., in Vietnam, p. 560; insists on extension of the amnesty program, Salzer's compromise, p. 563;

RUNG SAT: (Forest of Assassins), p. 312; p. 332; p. 339; p. 347-8; p. 349;

SAIGON: Salzer's view of the atmosphere engendered by the city, p. 325; other entries under: RIVERINE WARFARE

SALZER, VADM Robert S.: family background, p. 1 ff; education - Exeter Academy and Yale, p. 5-7; graduation with Phi Beta Kappa - a navy commission, p. 19-20; assignment in Washington, p. 20-23; his early command of YMS-347, p. 40-1; in 1946 mustered out of navy on point system, p. 98; the business world - a transfer back to regular navy from reserves, p. 100-1; his mother's death (1946) and problems with his father, p. 112; his engagement while in Intelligence School, p. 122-23; selection for commander, p. 148; while in Op-40 Salzer goes to night school at GWU - MBA degree, p. 213-4; his orders to Vietnam and riverine warfare (1967), p. 297-8; a colorful ceremony, p. 346-7, Salzer's attempt to retire, p. 490-3; selected for Rear Admiral, p. 503-4; his heart attack (1969), p. 523-4; three stars, p. 643; an European trip to compensate Jane for her long stay at Clark Field, p. 643-4; question of command assignments and eventual retirement, p. 704 ff;

SEABEES: their role in construction work in Vietnam, p. 574; the "ActoRad" program, p. 574;

SEALORDS OPERATION: (SE Asia Lake-Ocean-River-Delta Strategy), p. 481 ff; Salzer's concept of this project, p. 484 ff; the use of MARKET TIME units (Swift boats) for raids on base areas, p. 487;

SEALS: p. 629; Salzer's comments on their particular interests, p. 629-31; Salzer proposed to send SEALS to Vietnam to help in the last throes of the evacuation, p. 689-90;

SMITH, VADM J. Victor: p. 241; p. 247; p. 250;

SONENSHEIN, RADM Nathan: becomes project manager for the FDL program - chooses Salzer as his deputy, p. 252-3; p. 254; p. 504; assigned a National Security Council Study with Salzer, p. 505 ff;

SOUTH EAST ASIA AUGMENT: name given a special river assault flotilla of the Army's Ninth Infantry Division, p. 328-9; the support ship's assembled for the purpose, p. 328-9; USS Benewah becomes flagship, p. 329; the first commander was Wade Wells, p. 329-30; their first task in the Rung Sat area, p. 332; the command relations, p. 332-3; Salzer arrives to relieve Wells, p. 346;

SOVIET STRATEGY: Salzer comments on, p. 209-210;

STENNIS, The Hon. John: U. S. Senator - stops the program for the FDL, p. 255-6;

USS SUMMIT: p. 38; Salzer becomes captain (1943), p. 30; loss of the DD Sturtevant in minefield laid by USS Summit, p. 30;

SUPPLIES: p. 575-6; Koreans take supplies - anger Gen. Abrams, p. 577-8; also see entries under:

COM NAV FOR V
DOWD, RADM WALLACE R.
ADMIRAL ELMO ZUMWALT

SURFACE WARFARE OFFICER'S SCHOOL: p. 702-4;

SWIFT BOATS: see entries under:
RIVERINE WARFARE SEALORDS OPERATION

TASK FORCE 117: (U.S. Navy-Vietnam) p. 356; p. 382;

TET OFFENSIVE: (1968) p. 397 ff; the complete lack of understanding by the high command on the real situation in the Delta before the offensive, p. 400-1; Salzer's concept of the lesson learned from the offensive, p. 410; p. 700-1;

THIEU, President Nguyen Van: p. 640;

II FIELD FORCES VICTOR FOR VIETNAM: see entries under:

LT. GEN. JULIAN EWELL
NINTH INFANTRY DIVISION

TRIEBEL, RADM C. O.: head of Op. 40 (1960), p. 207;

TURNER, Admiral Stansfield: p. 133-4; gets assignment as Cine SOUTH, p. 707;

USS TURNER JOY - DD: p. 259;

VETH, RADM Kenneth L.: p. 336; p. 382; p. 400; relieved by Adm. Zumwalt (Sept. 1968), p. 473-5; p.
491;

VIET CONG: see numerous references under:
RIVERINE WARFARE

VIET CONG INFILTRATION: see entries under MARKET TIME - also VIETNAMESE NAVY.

VIETNAM: Salzer's comments on a more effective strategy, p. 79-80; p. 167; Salzer discussion of Pentagon concerns over various courses of action at time of Tonkin Gulf incident, p. 258-267; the lesson of Malaya and guerrilla warfare, p. 261-2; the attitude of the Whiz Kids, p. 262; p. 266; French rule in Vietnam, p. 302 ff; a survey of Vietnamese history, p. 304 ff; Salzer discusses certain weapons that were not suitable for use in the Delta area, p. 450 ff; the 50-caliber machine gun, p. 451 ff; the enemy's fortified positions, p. 454; the 40 mm cannon and the 195 mm howitzer - the most valuable, p. 456-7; the menace of floating mines and swimmer/sappers, p. 466- 67; Salzer's surprise upon returning to the U.S. (1968) at lack of rationality in viewpoints on Vietnam, p. 497-9; Salzer takes back original control of the Vietnamese forces over logistics for a reorganization
- and then hopefully to turn control back again, p.
572-3; a contrast between north and south Vietnamese forces, p. 603-4; Salzer's theory as to the great difference in people, p. 603-7; p. 615-6; Salzer discusses lack of motivation and ascribes it to lack of leadership - also to fault of the U. S. at the beginning of our involvement, p. 616-7; failure of Vietnamese to use properly and maintain the boats and the river bases we had built, p. 620-2; Salzer pays much attention to base defenses because small units of

U. S. personnel were on duty there, p. 622-3; the final collapse and evacuation, p. 688 ff;

VIETNAMESE ARMY: problems with the army in connection with SEALORDS, p. 483; the commanding general (NGHI) of the 21st Division backs out of an operation at last minute and operation had to be cancelled, p. 488-9; p. 492; lack of cooperation with Gen. Abrams on infiltration matters in the "secret" coastal zones, p. 612; p. 688;

VIETNAMESE FORCES: a discussion of the strategic use of native forces, p. 320-2; p. 379-80; South Vietnamese and Viet Cong - how do you distinguish between the two, p. 385-6; p. 470- 1; see also entries under: RIVERINE WARFARE

VIETNAMESE NAVY: p. 312-13; CNO - Adm. Kang thrown out of office in a mutiny (1966) but came back in 1974, p. 312; inability of the navy to stop Viet Cong infiltration of Delta area, p. 315-20; p. 380; Salzer's estimate of the effectiveness of the Vietnamese units, p. 442-3; p. 544; p. 688-9;

VIETNAMIZATION: began under Adm. Veth, p. 491; the 1972 decision on early withdrawal from Vietnam, 626-7; Salzer not optimistic on effectiveness of the program as he departs from Vietnam, p. 638-9; comments on the political errors in the total program, p. 639-41;

VSTOL: p. 247-9;

WEISNER, Adm. Maurice F. (Micky): raised objections to various provisions of the fleet reorganization plan, p. 681-2;

WELLS, Wade: first commander of the SE Asia Augment, the Army's Ninth Infantry Division, p. 328-9; p. 326; p. 339; p. 342; p. 345; relieved by Salzer (fall, of 1967) - goes back to ComPhib Pac to put together another increment of river forces, p. 346-7;

WESTMORELAND, General Wm. C.: p. 325; p. 335-6; p. 346; p. 400; p. 411-12; p. 474;

WHITMIRE, RADM Donald B.: in command of naval forces in Vietnam at time of final debacle, p. 689-90; p. 694-5;

WRIGHT, Admiral Jerauld: as CincNelm, p. 157-8;

YALE UNIVERSITY: p. 12 ff;

YMS-347: Salzer serves as skipper (July 1943) of this newly commissioned ship, p. 37 ff;

ZUMWALT, Admiral Elmo: p. 179; p. 377-8; p. 382; p. 424; comes to Vietnam to relieve Adm. Veth as ComNavForViet, p. 373 ff; after briefing on riverine warfare he calls a conference to develop SEALORDS - basically an interdiction strategy, p. 481 ff; offers Salzer command of SEALORDS, p. 481-2; p. 490; p. 495; calls Salzer back to Washington for consultation on Vietnam, p. 525; Zumwalt and the Z grams, p. 527-29; Zumwalt names Salzer as ComNav For V, p. 530 ff; sends Art Price as Deputy to Salzer, p. 513; his friendship with Adm. Chou, head of the Vietnamese Navy, p. 548; his kitchen cabinet in Vietnam, p. 548 ff; his trip to Vietnam to talk with Salzer and inspect the situation, p. 552 ff; makes a spot decision on drug amnesty, p. 560-1; sends Adm. Dowd to Vietnam to help Salzer with supplies, p. 570; Zumwalt on direct complaints from seaman, p. 590; his "helping hand" program for Vietnamese military, p. 623-4; more on his Equal Opportunity program, p. 645; Zumwalt on uniform relaxations, hair, etc., p. 649-50; Salzer says the Z-grams came too fast, p. 651; Zumwalt addresses Flag Officers in Washington - the repercussions - Salzer's involvement on the West Coast, p. 652-4; his San Francisco speech, p. 654-5; Zumwalt on the retention rate in the navy, p. 662; calls Salzer back to implement the fleet reorganization plan he had proposed, p. 677-8; p. 688; offers Salzer the 3rd fleet, p. 706-7;