

INDEX

to

Series of Interviews

with

Captain Glyn Jones, CHC, USN (Ret.)

ACKER, Capt. Frank: p. 273-4;

AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION: p. 373 ff; p. 380;

AMERICAN RED CROSS: p. 143-4;

ANDERSON, Admiral George: Commander, 6th Fleet, p. 287-8;

ARMED FORCES STAFF COLLEGE: Jones has tour of duty there (1956-7), p. 258-274; the Sunday morning Bible Class, p. 261-7; the softball team, p. 271-2;

BARROW, Lt. Gen. Robert: incident in Seoul involving the North Koreans, p. 172, p. 187;

BROWN, Major General W. C. (Big Foot), USMC: p. 132-3;

BURKE, Adm. Arleigh: becomes Com DesLant - instructs Jones to ask for additional chaplain billets, p. 247-9; p. 250; p. 255-7;

CAMP LE JEUNE: Jones assigned to 3rd Marine Division, p. 25; p. 29;

CAMP PENDLETON: chaplains trained there eventually in combat methods, p. 74, p. 105; the complex problems involved in preparation to send the first division to Korea, p. 163-4;

CAULDWELL, Col. Speed: trained his men in jungle warfare, p. 47-8;

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE: Jones and his effort in this area - at Mt. Hermon School, p. 160-2;

CHAPLAINS CORPS - DETAIL OFFICER: Jones takes up duties in Washington (1950), p. 205 ff; Jones raises question of rank structure in the Corps, p. 209-210; Jones raises question of Navy Relief Society and the Chaplain, p. 211-12; Jones objects to the Corps being under BuPers, p. 213; the request for detachment of insubordinate chaplain, p. 232-3;

CHAPLAIN'S SCHOOL - Norfolk, Virginia: Jones sent there for indoctrination, p. 23; Jones' physical fitness qualifies him for assignment to the Marine Corps, p.

24; the course of study at Norfolk, p. 25-6; on sermons, p. 96;

CHAPLAIN'S SCHOOL - Williamsburg, Va.: Jones assigned there after coming back to States in 1944, p. 71-3; problems with denominationalism, p. 75-6; new dimensions added to understanding of chaplain in combat, p. 77-8; p. 81 ff; Jones evaluates qualifications of a chaplain student for duty with marines, p. 88; what was done to prepare a chaplain for battle experience, p. 104-5; necessity to open school again with the Korean War, p. 205-6;

CHIANG kai-Chek and the KUOMINTANG: p. 120-1;

CHIEF OF CHAPLAINS: Jones' argument against the office being under BuPers, p. 213-4; private correspondence with Chief from chaplains in field, p. 304 ff; p. 324; Jones on the correct position of Chief, p. 306-9; the Chief and BuPers, p. 310 ff; disadvantage in the situation, p. 312 ff; the Chief and Congressional Committees, p. 313-4; p. 322-3;

CHIEF OF CHAPLAINS - OFFICE OF: Jones persuaded to remain on active duty - accepts assignment in Washington - lists 25 points he wanted action on there, p. 345 ff; Jones persuades Chief to send Annual Report to SecNav, p. 350;

CHIEF OF NAVAL PERSONNEL: Jones' argument against the Chief of Chaplains being under him, p. 306-10; prognosis for the future, p. 311-12; Adm. Semmes as Chief puts a chaplain in Chief of Chaplains office to oversee situation - forces resignation of Chaplain Dreith, p. 351-2; p. 354-5;

CHINA: Conditions in China, post WWII, p. 118-21;

CHARACTER EDUCATION: p. 160-2;

CHURCHILL, Sir Winston: p. 19;

CINCUSNAVEUR: Jones ordered to staff as chaplain in London (1959) with duty assignment to Naval Administrative Command, Naples, p. 274 ff; relations with the 6th Fleet, p. 287-8; p. 291; Jones reports to London from

Naples on permanent basis (1960), p. 297; becomes Fleet Chaplain, p. 298; manner of keeping Chief of Chaplains informed, p. 303-4; Jones hospitalized, p. 324 ff;

CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION: Jones' article in the Junior College Journal (Sept. 1952), p. 156; the program at Parris Island (1952), p. 156 ff; p. 219 ff;

CIVIL LIBERTIES: Jones' interest in this subject, p. 367;

COE, Chaplain Robert: lifelong friend - suggests Navy Chaplaincy to Jones, p. 21; studies at Harvard at same time as Jones, p. 123-4; p. 239;

COMDESLANT: Jones ordered to staff of RADM C. C. Hartman (1954), p. 240; program for lag leaders is strengthened, p. 240-1; Adm. Burke instructs Jones to write for additional chaplain billets, p. 247-9; Burke as CNO again presses for chaplain billets, p. 249;

COMPULSORY ATTENDANCE AT CHAPEL: p. 335; Jones begins to agitate at Naval Training Center, p. 335 ff; BuPers mentions effect upon the Naval Academy and the issue is joined, p. 338 ff;

CRAVEN, Chaplain John: becomes a great success in the Marine Corps, p. 86-7; p. 93;

DESTROYERMEN: a characterization, p. 246-7;

di GIACOMO, Father James: p. 161-3;

DRAFT, The: Jones' ideas on the subject, p. 363-5;

DREITH, RADM Floyd: Chief of Chaplains - wanted Jones to serve in Washington, p. 346-7; p. 352;

ECUMENICITY - and the Navy: p. 136;

FARELLI, Father: Italian priest in Naples who cared for scugnizzi, p. 282-3; p. 285;

FAULK, Capt. Raymond, CHC, USN: District Chaplain, San Diego, p. 331; Jones consults him on compulsory training, p. 337 ff; p. 348;

FILARIASIS: prevalence in Samoa, p. 48-50; U.S. had no great knowledge of it at outset of war, p. 50; disabling effect on the Eighth Marines when committed to combat, p. 50-51; p. 65; Jones stands up for his afflicted men at hospital in Noumea, p. 67-8; Jones gradually loses his infection on Guadalcanal, p. 71;

FITCH, Chaplain Bob: assigned to the WAVES at Hunter College, p. 78;

FITNESS REPORTS : p. 317-21;

FRASER, Admiral Sir Bruce: p. 116;

FREE PRESS IN AMERICA: p. 375 ff;

GUADALCANAL: p. 61 ff; p. 64;

HARTMAN, RADM C.C.: ComDesLant (1954), p. 240-1;

HARVARD UNIVERSITY: Jones has a year at Harvard U - mind enrichment, p. 122-4;

HASKINS, Col. Jack: p. 175-6;

HEMPHILL, Chaplain Eddie: p. 278;

HERSEY, Lt. Gen. Lewis B.: Director of Selective Service, p. 364; p. 366;

HOWE, Chaplain Harris: p. 205; wanted Jones to relieve him as detail officer in the office of Chief of Chaplains - tried to get him away from First Marine Division, p. 166-8; p. 195-6;

INCHON, Korea: 1st Marine Division briefed on proposed landing while en route to Japan, p. 170; Jones account of the landing, p. 171 ff;

INTERVENTIONALIST: Jones becomes an interventionalist in his convictions and preaching - 1940 - p. 14-17;

JACKSONVILLE, Florida: p. 39-40;

JOHNSON, VADM Felix: skipper of the transport PRESIDENT ADAMS,

p. 60-61;

JONES, Captain Glyn: personal background data, p. 1-5; sudden decision to enter ministry, p. 5-6; education for ministry, p. 7-8; first assignment, p. 8-10; marriage, p. 20-21; contacts malaria and filariasis, p. 65; p. 66-67; repatriated to U. S., p. 68 ff; San Diego Naval Hospital, p. 324 ff; retirement, p. 353-6; reflections on his career, p. 357 ff.;

KELLY, Chaplain Frank: a Roman Catholic - Reserve Chaplain - most successful in the Marine Corps, p. 88-89;

KELLY, RADM James: Deputy Chief under Chief of Chaplains Dreith, p. 347; p. 349-50; p. 352; p. 354-5;

HMS KING GEORGE V: stationed in Far East, p. 116;

KLAMATH FALLS, Oregon: location of hospital for treatment of filariasis, p. 70; p. 109-110;

KOBE, Japan: 1st Marines go there for trans-shipment to Inchon landing, p. 171;

KOJO, Korea: 1st Batt. of 1st Marines sent through Kojo, p. 184; attack by the North Korean division (the Diamond Hill Gang), p. 184-5; Jones' story of the Master Sergeant and his meeting with Jones first on Bougainville and then at Kojo, p. 185;

KRULAK, Lt. Gen. Victor H.: p. 179-80; his diversionary operation on Choiseul, p. 179-80;

LAY LEADERS: The Chaplain Corps at ComDesLant, p. 240-5; in the 6th Fleet, p. 290-1;

USS LOS ANGELES: Jones assigned to her in late 1945 - destination China, p. 111-112; demobilization, p. 113; addition of two hundred brig rats from Okinawa, p. 114 ff; coping with declining morale, p. 117-9;

SS LURLINE: p. 44;

LYONS, Chaplain Vaughan, p. 278;

MacARTHUR, General Douglas his plans for Inchon landing p. 170;
p. 174; p. 180;

U. S. MARINES - FIRST ENGINEER BATTALION: Jones departs for overseas with battalion - Lt. Col. Riley in command,
p. 43-44; training in jungle warfare on Samoa, p. 47-8; jungle diseases, p. 48; state on morale on Samoa,
p. 55; to Guadalcanal via New Zealand, p. 57 ff; Jones armed for landing on Bougainville, p. 63-4;

U. S. MARINE CORPS - CHAPLAIN: Jones on indoctrination, p. 27-8; the kind of authority a chaplain can exercise in Marine Corps, p. 34-5; as illustration - story of several marines and their jail sentence in Jacksonville, p. 35-8; a second illustration - the SeaBee still on Guadalcanal, p. 38-9; attitude of various marines towards the chaplain and his role, p. 40-1; tendency to conduct a very simple worship service, p.
41-2; comment on existence of fear as marines prepare for departure from U. S., p. 42-3; training on board LURLINE enroute to Samoa, p. 45; policy of arming chaplains because Jap snipers concentrated on men wearing Red Cross arm bands, p. 63-4; p. 181-3; Jones at Chaplain's School - asks to get back to Marine Corps, p. 73-4; contrasted with duty as a navy chaplain, p. 81 ff; what the marines look for in a chaplain, p. 84; examples of Navy Chaplains who achieved success in the Marine Corps and why, p. 86-7; necessary characteristics of the Marine Chaplain, p.
89-91 chaplain as a counsellor, p. 99-100; the ministry on the battlefield, p. 101-2; how a chaplain deals with fear, p. 103-5; leadership training and intellectual acumen, p. 105-8; Col, Puller and the hassle with BuPers over appointment of Jones as division Chaplain, p. 167-170; the chaplain in combat,
p. 97 ff; calling of reserve chaplains for Korean conflict, p. 205-7; Jones' work with junior chaplains at Parris Island, p. 218-9; Jones welcomes obligation at Parris Island to write fitness reports on juniors,
p. 229-30; incident at Parris Island involving an insubordinate R.C. Chaplain, p. 230 ff; p. 239;

U. S. MARINE CORPS DRILL INSTRUCTORS: p. 217-8; p. 223-5; p.
228; p. 235-6; p. 238;

U. S. MARINE CORPS EDUCATIONAL CENTER - QUANTICO; Jones reports

there Oct. 1953 - to produce source material for character education movement, p. 236-9;

- U. S. MARINE CORPS - FIRST DIVISION) Jones attached to First Division for duty in Korea, p. 162-3; many chaplain applications for duty with this division, p. 206-7;
- U. S. MARINE CORPS RECRUIT DEPOT - PARRIS ISLAND: Jones (rank of Commander) ordered there, p. 215 ff; Lt. Gen. Silverthorne, p. 216; Jones arranges to have chaplains farmed out to training battalions, p. 216-8; Citizenship Education program, p. 219-20; Jones' difficulties with an insubordinate chaplain, p. 230 ff;
- U. S. MARINE CORPS - SECOND DIVISION; Jones ordered to this Division (Aug. 1949), p. 145; Jones institutes discussions on moral leadership, p. 146; regimental baseball team, p. 147-8; Mrs. Jones' story of departure of Division for overseas, p. 191 ff;
- MORAL GUIDANCE COMMITTEE - at PARRIS ISLAND: p. 222 ff; the question of men confined to the brig, p. 225-7;
- MORAL LEADERSHIP TRAINING: in the 2nd Marines, p. 146; p. 149; how discussion was achieved, p. 149-56; p. 159; idea originally developed in the army, p. 159;
- MOUNTBATTEN, Admiral Lord Louis: p. 116;
- MT. HERMON SCHOOL: p. 363;
- NAPLES, Italy: Jones account of certain activities in Naples, p. 277; the chapel councils, p. 219; his relations with several orphanages, p. 283-4; visits to 6th fleet, p. 287-8;
- NAVAL ACADEMY CHAPLAINCY; p. 342-3;
- NAVAL AIR STATION - QUONSET POINT; Jones serves as Protestant Chaplain - problem with fraternal organizations, p. 126 ff; how naval fliers differ, p. 131 ff; Don Bryon and his clambakes, p. 135-6;
- NAVAL TRAINING CENTER, San Diego; Jones becomes senior chaplain (March, 1962) p. 332-3; Jones' efforts to get a new chapel, p. 335-7;

NAVY CHAPLAIN: Jones becomes a chaplain - March, 1942, p. 21; p. 23; the men who wanted only combat duty, p. 79-81; Navy Chaplain duty contrasted with that in the Marine Corps, p. 81 ff; the Chaplain in combat, p. 197 ff; calling up reserves for the Korean conflict, p. 205-7; need for a chaplain to stand by his convictions, p. 2089; rank structure in the Corps, p. 209 ff; p. 233; lay leader program at ComDesLant, p. 241; Jones' discussion of moral power of chaplain - in contrast to command power of inspection, etc., p. 289-90; the position of chaplains under BuPers, p. 310 ff; attitude of denominational churches, p. 314 ff; Fitness Reports, p. 317 ff; the Navy Chaplain in the modern world, p. 386-90;

NAVY RELIEF: at Quonset Point, p. 139-40; the changed situation of Naval Relief in WWII and afterwards, p. 140-1; Jones' new policy instruction - torpedoed by VADM Vincent Murphy, p. 141-2; p. 211-212;

NEWPORT (R.I.) CHAPLAINS SCHOOL: p. 363 ff;

NEW ZEALAND: the appeal of the islands to the U. S. Marines, p. 57-60;

NEYMAN, Chaplain Clinton: his efforts to develop a curriculum for training of clergy in the Chaplain's Corps, p. 26-7; p. 72-3; p. 77; p. 96-7;

NOREM, Captain Wesley, USMC: p. 359;

O'CONNOR, RADM John, CHC - Chief of Chaplains, p. 361;

O'LEARY, Chaplain Francis T.: Roman Catholic Chaplain at NAS, Quonset Point, p. 126 ff; p. 138; p. 193;

PARRIS ISLAND: see entry under CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION.

POWER: in the Church and society - Jones on the subject, p. 315 ff; p. 322-3;

PREACHING: Jones on value of, p. 96-9; preaching on the battlefield, p. 101-2; PROMOTIONS: Jones on promotions in the Chaplains Corps, p. 93-6; PULLER, Lt. Gen.

Lewis (Chesty): Jones served as his chaplain in First Marines, p. 132; p. 163 ff; his complete support of the chaplain to the First Marine Division, p. 163 ff; insurance for the marines, p. 164-5; p. 166; his help in retaining Jones as Chaplain to First Marines, p. 167-170; in Seoul, p. 178-9; p. 180; he sends relief to the marines at KOJO, p. 186-7;

RAFFERTY, Captain Pat: Baptist chaplain on Noumea, p. 68; p. 109-110;

RIBBON CREEK INCIDENT: p. 223-5;

ROOSEVELT, President F. D.: p. 17; p. 19;

ROTA, Spain: p. 294-5;

ROTRIDGE, RADM Cy, CHC: p. 353;;

RULE OF LAW: p. 371 ff;

SACRAMENT, The: on the battlefield, p. 102-3;

SALISBURY, RADM Stanley (Stan): Chief of Chaplains (1951) p. 211, p. 247;

SAMOA: First Engineers Battalion arrives, p. 46;

SAN DIEGO NAVAL HOSPITAL: Jones sent there as a patient, p. 324 ff; his interesting experiences, p. 326-30;

SEABEES: Jones' story of the Still they constructed on Guadalcanal, p. 38-9; a battalion with the 19th Marines, p. 38;

SECNAV; Jones argument that Chief of Chaplains should be under SecNav, p. 307-8; Jones induces Chief (1962) to send Annual Report direct to SecNav, p. 309-10;

SEMMEES, VADM Benedict J. Jr.: as Chief of BuPers forces resignation of Chief of Chaplains Dreith, p. 351-2; p. 354-5;

SEOUL, Korea: the taking of Seoul, p. 172 ff;

SILVERTHORNE, Lt. Gen. Merwin: USMC - in command at MCRD, Parris

Island (1952), p. 216 ff; p. 222; his conviction about the Moral Guidance Committee, p. 227; his attitude in case of the insubordinate chaplain, p. 232; p. 265;

U. S. SIXTH FLEET: Jones serves as Chief Chaplain to fleet in Naples, p. 287-8;

SMITH, Adm. H. Page: CincUSNavEur, (1959), p. 274; p. 297; p. 324;

SOVIK, Captain Ansgar: assigned with Jones to the Marine Corps, p. 24-5;

SULLIVAN, Chaplain Frank: A Jesuit who becomes Marine Corps Chaplain, p. 29-31; p. 45-6; his famous sermon, p. 56; p. 357;

THOMAS, Captain D.I.: Naval Training Center Commander, San Diego (1962) p. 332; Jones involves him in compulsory attendance requirements in BuPers Training Manual, p. 337 ff;

BuPers reacts, p. 338; p. 343-4;

VANDEGRIFT, General A.A.: his cordon defense, p. 54;

VICTORY, Brig. Gen. Randall: with the 2nd Marines - approves of Jones offering ethical instructions, p. 146;

WELLBORN, Vice Admiral Charles: Commandant of Armed Forces Staff College, p. 259; p. 272;

WONSAN, Korea: the 1st Marines land - deployed in semicircle around the city, p. 183-4; p. 188;

WOONSOCKET, Rhode Island: Jones becomes pastor of the First Baptist Church (1940), p. 12 ff; they want him back after the war is over, p. 22;

WORKMAN, RADM R.D. - Chief of Chaplains: p. 73-4; p. 86; p. 88; his ideal for the rounded chaplaincy, p. 92-3; p. 239;