

Index to
Series of Interviews with
Vice Admiral William R. Smedberg, III
U. S. Navy (Retired)

VOLUME I

ANDERSON, VADM Walter Stratton: p. 128; p. 132; p. 151;

ATHLETICS: Smedberg on importance of athletics in the fleet, p. 67-68;

AVIATION: and the fleet in the 1930s, p. 75 ff; Smedberg's interest in aviation, the deterrents, p. 81-4;

BADGER, Admiral Oscar C.: in command at Caso Bay, p. 195-6;

BERTIL - Prince of Sweden: p. 342-4;

BLANDY, Adm. Wm. H.P.: gunnery officer on the BB NEW MEXICO, p. 45;

BOUGAINVILLE: The DD HUDSON has a dangerous mission - to escort marine transports into Empress Augusta Bay with inadequate charts, p. 255 ff;

BRAINARD, VADM Roland M.: p. 147;

BRITISH INTELLIGENCE: an arrangement with U. S. representatives for the post war period, p. 317-8; wartime cooperation, p. 318-9;

BROWN, Capt. Wm.: Smedberg relieves him as Chief of Staff to Adm. Merrill, p. 264; p. 269-70;

CAPE ESPERANCE: Battle of, p. 220-2;

CASCO BAY: p. 234-5;

CHARLESTON NAVY YARD: Forrestal's attempt to close it, p. 354-5;

USS CHAUMONT: p. 57;

SS CITY OF BIRMINGHAM: torpedoed and sunk off Cape Hatteras, p. 207-8;

CLARK, Admiral John J. (Jocko): relieves Adm. Briscoe as Commander of the 7th fleet - his objection to beards, p. 444; uninterested in shore bombardment with 16" guns, p. 445-7; p. 448-9; flagship - the IOWA - but preferred to be with carriers, p. 454-6;

USS CLEVELAND: Skipper of the CLEVELAND apologizes for a bad bit of ship handling, p. 268;

CLIFFORD, The Hon. Clark: p. 330-2;

CLUVERIUS, Adm. Wat Tyler: p. 63;

COAST WATCHERS: p. 257-8; p. 260;

COMBAT INTELLIGENCE: see entries under FADM KING: Smedberg relieves Smith-Hutton, p. 281-3; King orders Smedberg to brief the Combined Chiefs on Leyte Gulf, p. 284-5; King interrupts briefing to correct Smedberg, p. 285-7; King asks Smedberg for an estimate when the Japanese might surrender, p. 289-91; the episode involving Forrestal, King and Smedberg on a weekly briefing of the press, p. 293 ff; Smedberg's press conference covering the surrender of Corregidor, p. 295 ff; Smedberg unaware of atomic bomb until it was dropped on Japan, p. 316; Smedberg part of intelligence committee that visits Britain to arrange post WW II exchange, p. 317-8;

COOKE, Admiral Charles M. (Saavy): advises Smedberg to wear the grey uniform designated by King, p. 286-7; p. 311;

CORREGIDOR: p. 295-6;

USS DAUNTLESS: flagship of COMINCH, p. 305-6;

DD DIVISION 31: Smedberg makes operational suggestions to Adm. Forrestal (Comdr. DD's Pac) because of dislocations caused by demobilization, p. 383 ff; Smedberg initiates a very active sports program to build moral, p. 384-7; the excitement of a new sonar, p. 388; the benefit from experience of WWII, p. 390-1;

DD FORCE - ATLANTIC: Smedberg becomes Chief of Staff to Commander DD Force - Admiral Wellborn, p. 462-3; discipline problems, p. 465-6; Atlantic mission, p. 467 ff;

DEMOBILIZATION: the demoralizing effects after WW II, p. 382;

DENNISON, Adm. Robert L.: p. 120;

USS DUNCAN: p. 188; p. 216; lost at the Battle of Cape Esperance, p. 220-2; p. 232;

EDISON, The Hon. Charles: p. 135;

EDWARDS, Admiral R. S.: Chief of Staff to Adm. King, p. 284; p. 286; p. 298-9; p. 311;

USS ENGLAND: p. 260-1; p. 319;

ESPIRITU SANTO: The LANSLOWNE's narrow escape from minefield at Espiritu Santo, p. 197 ff; p. 220;

FAY, Paul B.: his attitude towards the NROTC in several leading universities, p. 374-6;

FOLEY, Comdr. Frank: Executive Officer on the LANSLOWNE, p. 207; his quick action during torpedo attack in South Pacific, p. 212; p. 227-8;

FORRESTAL, The Hon. James: p. 118-9; p. 274; his insistence on Smedberg holding press briefings on naval events - while serving on staff of Admiral King, p. 293 ff; p. 297; p. he "borrows" Smedberg to brief a crowd in Denver, p. 302-3; Smedberg's concern about data in the Forrestal Diaries, p. 303; p. 304; his telephone conversation with Pres. Truman on formation of the Department of Defense, p. 313-5; Smedberg becomes his aide in May, 1946, p. 322 ff; his lack of home life, p. 324-7; Forrestal's poker game for President Truman, p. 328 ff; the round-the-world trip, p. 334 ff; China; p. 334-5; the Philippines, p. 335-6; Tokyo and Gen. MacArthur, p. 336; Bangkok, p. 337-8; Calcutta, p. 338-9; Stockholm, p. 341-2; objectives of the trip, p. 344-5; p. 347-8; his meeting with navy's ranking officers on future of naval aviation, p. 348-9; Congressional relations, p. 353 ff; his interest in a balanced navy, p. 360; his interest in the Naval Reserve, p. 361; p. 365-7; the misadventure in Japan when the secretary's party got lost in back country, p. 367-8; his faith and trust in naval aviators, p. 377-8; his interest in missiles - and his visit to White Sands to witness small rocket firing, p. 377-8; p. 432;

GANNON, RADM Sinclair: commandant of midshipmen, p. 14; p. 16;

GHORMLEY, VADM Robert L.: p. 135-6; p. 235-6;

GREENSLADE, VADM John Wills: p. 237-8;

GUANTANAMO: value of this base to the fleet for training purposes, p. 647-8 p. 472;

HALSEY, Fleet Admiral Wm. F. Jr.: p. 136; his reaction to Smedberg's account of the would-be mutiny on board the LANSLOWNE in Sydney harbor, p. 229-30; his manner of dealing with his command, p. 236-7; p. 243-4;

HART, Admiral Thos. C.: conducts Pearl Harbor investigation, p. 166; p. 168;

HAYLER, VADM Robert Ward: successor to Adm. Merrill in CTF 39 - Smedberg continues as his Chief of Staff, p. 276; his reaction to Adm. King's orders for detachment of Smedberg just before Battle of Leyte Gulf, p. 277 ff;

HILL, Admiral Harry W.: Superintendent of the Naval Academy, p. 396; p. 401; p. 404-5; p. 422;

HOLLOWAY, Admiral James L. Jr.: as Superintendent of Naval Academy picks his department heads very carefully; Smedberg named as head of Department of Electrical Engineering, p. 394; p. 396; p. 418-9;

HORNE, Adm. Frederick J.: p. 300-1;

USS HUDSON: p. 234; p. 248-9; the influence on additions to a new ship - objections of Buships, p. 250; the crew and advance training, p. 251-2; p. 253; lead ship in escorting the marines into Bougainville, p. 254 ff; p. 292;

HULL, The Hon. Cordell: U. S. Secretary of State - his strong response to Japanese request for easing of sanctions, p. 158-60; his telephone call to Stark on the 2nd or 3rd of December, 1941, p. 161;

INGERSOLL, Admiral Royal E.: p. 135-6;

INGLIS, RADM Thomas: F-2 on COMINCH staff, p. 306; p. 312 provided Combat Intelligence with information from ONI sources p. 312-3;

INITIATIVE: Smedberg's comments on its importance for the advancement of men in the Navy, p. 45-7;

USS IOWA: p. 234-5; Smedberg and the running of trials in San Francisco Bay, p. 270 ff; his orders to enter San Diego Harbor - his refusal to Admiral Sprague, p. 274-5; p. 415; Smedberg given command to take her out of mothballs and into the Korean conflict orders directly from CNO Sherman, p. 424; problems with obtaining trained men for 16" turrets, p. 426-7; p. 428-9; tribulations in San Francisco Bay and in San Diego, p. 430-3; her mission to bombard Korean coast - fire support to U. S. Marines, p. 434-5; various targets dealt with, p. 438-9-40; use of agents on shore, p. 442; p. 449-50; the hazardous run to Pusan Harbor, p. 456 ff; p. 460-1;

USS KEYES: flagship of Smedberg in DD Div. 31, p. 385;

KIDD, Admiral Isaac Campbell Jr.: aide to Smedberg when he was Superintendent of the Naval Academy, p. 320-1;

KIMMEL, RADM Husband E.: p. 50; his foresight and thoroughness as an officer, p. 51-2; p. 87; p. 105; p. 173; his bitter feeling towards Adm. Stark after Pearl Harbor, p. 181-3;

KING, Fleet Admiral Ernest: p. 76-7; p. 87; p. 100-1; p. 181; p. 238; p. 242; Smedberg delivers message to him about lack of spare parts for Halsey's planes, p. 243-4; p. 257; he calls Smedberg back to Washington just before Leyte Gulf, p. 279 ff; Smedberg's interview with King, p. 280-3; King orders Smedberg to brief Combined Chiefs on Leyte Gulf - with only one hour notice, p. 284; his reaction to Forrestal's insistence that there be weekly briefing of the press on naval events, p. 293 ff; p. 296 ff; p. 304-5; his staff set-up at headquarters, p. 305-6 King and the intelligence shared with the army, p. 306; King and intelligence shared with the British and the Russians, p. 308-9; his ability to trust those in whom he had confidence, p. 309-11; p. 315; Smedberg as Supt. of Naval Academy entertains members of King family after the Admiral's funeral in Annapolis, p. 319-322;

KISSINGER, The Hon. Henry: p. 161-2;

KNOX, The Hon. Frank: Secretary of the Navy, p. 135; p. 174-6; p. 181;

KOREA: BOMBARDMENT COMMAND: the function of the naval command, p. 453-4;

KURUSU, Saburo: Special Japanese emissary to the U. S. (1941), p. 162-3;

USS LANSDOWNE: p. 47; commissioned in Kearny, NJ, p. 188-90; shake down in Hudson River, p. 191-3; ordered to Casco Bay - transit of Cape Cod Canal, p. 193 ff; going through the minefield, p. 195-6; by intuition Smedberg avoids mined area later at Espiritu Santo, p. 197; the ship characteristics, p. 199; a mission to Guadalcanal with ammunition - narrow escape from torpedo attack, p. 200-2; firing of star shells in training off coast of Maine, p. 204-5; Cape Hatteras, p. 206-7; sinking of U.-153, escorts BB WASHINGTON to South Pacific, p. 209; news of Savo Island battle, p. 209-210; escort work in South Pacific, p. 211 ff; torpedoing of CV WASP, p. 211-12; she escorts PORTLAND to Sydney for repairs, p. 224-7; lack of food and supplies in South Pacific, p. 237-8; p. 239;

LAYTON, RADM Edwin T.: p. 166-7;

LEAHY, Fleet Admiral Wm.: Wellborn and Smedberg serve with him for some months in advance of Adm. Stark taking office as CNO, p. 123;

LEE, VADM Willis A. Jr.: Smedberg's estimate of him, p. 178-80; p. 210;

LEYTE GULF: Smedberg briefs the Combined Chiefs, p. 284-5;

LOCKWOOD, Admiral Charles: Naval Attache to London, p. 137;

LOWE, VADM Frank Loper (Frog): Commander Tenth Fleet - asks for intelligence data on subs in the Pacific - King refuses, p. 304-5;

MacARTHUR, General Douglas: p. 295-6; MacArthur and Forrestal, p. 336;

McCAIN, Admiral John Sydney: executive on the BB MEXICO, p. 38;

USS MAJARA: ammo ship - sunk by Japanese torpedo off Guadalcanal, p. 202;

MARSHALL, General George C.: he and Stark at the White House to urge moderation in our message to the Japanese on sanctions, p. 58-9; p. 164-5; p. 174;

USS McCALL: in same division with DD LANSDOWNE - rescues survivors from the DUNCAN, p. 220-1;

McNAMARA, Robert S.: Secretary of Defense - on the pay bill (1962), p. 356; his reaction to report of the special study commission on the pay bill, p. 357-8; Smedberg's testimony before the Congressional Committee, p. 357-9;

MERRILL, VADM Aaron S. (Tip): Requests Smedberg to serve as his Chief of Staff in the MONTPELLIER (1944), p. 263-4; p. 266-8; p. 276;

USS MINNEAPOLIS: torpedoed in the SLOT (Nov. 30) - escorted to Tulagi, p. 224; p. 230;

USS MISSOURI: p. 269-70; Smedberg takes a summer cruise with midshipmen; p. 411 ff;

USS MONTPELIER: flagship of Adm. Merrill, p. 263;

MORISON, RADM Samuel E.: p. 261;

MORREEL, RADM Ben: his reaction immediately after attack on Pearl Harbor, p. 172;

USS MOUNT VERNON: LANSDOWNE escorts her from New Jersey to Noumea, p. 229;

USS MULLANY: Smedberg transferred to her for cruise to Nicaragua, p. 40-1; extra fuel oil to aid in winning the competition, p. 42; p. 48; Nicaragua, p. 48; fleet problems, p. 48-50;

U. S. NAVAL ACADEMY: Smedberg's general attitude towards the Academy, p. 9; his difficulties with upper classmen, p. 10-11; demerits, p. 12 ff; comments on the classes at the Academy, p. 19; Trident scholars, p. 21-22; summer cruises, p. 23 ff; aviation summer, p. 32; Smedberg invited to teach French at the Academy, p. 56; ordered to Academy (in Superintendency of Admiral Holloway) as head of Dep. of Electrical Engineering, p. 393 ff; Smedberg makes great effort to have better qualified instructors, p. 395; Smedberg sits on various classes, p. 397-9; Smedberg on the football squad and tutoring, p. 399-420; Smedberg changes content of examinations, p. 402-3; Smedberg comments on the honor system, p. 404-5; in praise of the civilian faculty, p. 409-410; a summer cruise (1949), p. 411-412; Smedberg's emphasis on chapel, p. 415;

NAVAL COMMUNICATIONS: Smedberg studies applied communications at P.G. school, p. 94; discussion of state of communications prior to WWII, p. 92-5; Smedberg finds the field very limited and hard to get out of, p. 94; need for radio-telephone between ships, p. 96-100; post WW II agreement with the R.N. on exchange of information, p. 103-4; Smedberg's various tasks in field of communications on staff of Adm. Vernou, p. 104-6; in CruBatFor, p. 109-11; p. 116; Smedberg on communication on staff of Adm. Stark, p. 131-2; closely held secret of code breaking activities, p. 132-3;

NAVAL RESERVE: Forrestal's great interest, p. 361; Smedberg's example of a reserve captain who was dropped from the continued list and then put back by the Secretary of the Navy - the repercussions, p. 370 ff;

USS NEW MEXICO: first duty of Smedberg after graduation, p. 37 ff; story of Rickover and the fuel oil, p. 43; ensigns required to keep journals, p. 52-3;

NEWPORT, R. I.: Smedberg comments of Newport as a base for Destroyers, p. 472-3;

NEWS MEDIA AND THE NAVY: see entries under:
FADM KING; FORRESTAL, James.

NICARAGUA: p. 40; p. 48;

NIMITZ, Flt. Adm. Chester W.: his comments on Smedberg's handling of the IOWA in San Francisco Bay, p. 273; p. 315; p. 430-1;

NOMURA, Admiral Kiskisaburo: his secret meeting with Admiral Stark in November, 1941, p. 156-8, p. 162;

USS NORTHHAMPTON: fitting out the new ship (1930), p. 58-60; p. 65; p. 74; availability of ammunition in the 1930's, p. 88-9; p. 224;

NOYES, VADM Leigh: p. 213; p. 216;

NROTC: p. 374-7;

NULTON, Adm. Louis M.: Superintendent, Naval Academy, p. 16;

PEARL HARBOR: p. 66-7; the night before the attack in Washington, p. 163 ff;

PERSONNEL PROBLEMS IN THE NAVY: p. 117-120; spark plugs among the personnel, p. 129-30;

USS PORTLAND: LANSLOWNE escorts her with wooden bow to Australia for repairs, p. 224-5;

PRATT, RADM Richard R.: Smedberg selects him for duty on the DD LANSLOWNE, p. 189-90; p. 232-3; becomes Executive Officer on the DD HUDSON, p. 252-3; p. 265;

RADAR: p. 99-100; p. 102-103;

REEVES, Adm. Joseph Mason: his order to the fleet to go to sea at once, p. 63-65; p. 107-8;

RICHARDSON, Admiral J.O.: p. 146;

RICKOVER, Admiral Hyman G.: assistant engineer in BB New MEXICO, p. 43;

ROOSEVELT, The Hon. Franklin D.: President of the United States; p. 120-1; his practice of passing every addition to navy personnel, p. 124-5; his method of giving orders to Stark, p. 128-9; p. 142; p. 146-8; his reversal on the proposed message to the Japanese

(Nov. 1941) on lifting sanctions, p. 159; p. 164;

RYAN, Comdr. Thom. J.: Destroyer Squadron Commander in Solomons,
p. 219; p. 223-4;

SEBALD, The Hon. Wm. J.: p. 283-4; p. 287; p. 289-31; p. 296;

SELECTION BOARDS: p. 112-5;

SETTLE, VADM Thos. G. W.: (Tex): navy member of McNamara pay bill committee (1962), p. 357;

SHERMAN, Admiral Forrest: p. 348; p. 350;

SMEDBERG, Vice Admiral Wm. R. III: personal background, p. 1-3; attends Middlesex School, p. 4-5; destined for West Point he shifts at the last moment to the Naval Academy, p. 6-7; early years in various army posts, p. 8; attacks of asthma, p. 35-6;
marriage, p. 53-5; Flag Lieutenant to Admiral Stark, p. 123 ff; his five Legions of Merit, p.
301; the 'high naval spokesman', p. 295 and p.
301;

SMITH, Senator Margaret Chase: her interference in a reserve selection board matter, p. 372-4;

SMITH-HUTTON, Captain Henri: relieved as head of Combat Intelligence on staff of Adm. King by Smedberg,
p. 448; p. 455;

SOUCHEK, RADM Apollo: Carrier Division Commander, p. 448; p. 455;

USS SOUTH DAKOTA: p. 233-4;

SPENAVO - in London: his purpose, p. 136-7;

SPRAGUE, Adm. Thomas: orders Smedberg to berth the IOWA in San Diego Harbor - Smedberg demurs, p. 274-5; p. 432;

STARK, Adm. Harold R.: succeeds Adm. Vernou in Cruisers - retains Smedberg on his staff - p. 94; as CNO asks Smedberg to become flag lieutenant - Smedberg demurs but finally stays, p. 95; p. 99; p. 107-8;
p. 115; Smedberg's opinion of how Stark came to be selected as CNO, p. 120-3; Stark's need to get FDR approval for every personnel increase, p.
124; Flag Lieutenant, p. 123; p. 126; p. 127-8;
telephonic communications from FDR to Stark, p.
128-9; Stark's efforts to build up the navy, 1939-40, p. 141 ff; p. 144-5; impression made on him by the British raid on Italian fleet at Taranto, p. 149; his correspondence with senior admirals in long hand, p. 152; p. 153-5; Stark and his talk with Japanese Admiral Nomura, p. 156-7; p. 164-5; attempt to pin Pearl Harbor disaster on Stark, p. 165-6; p. 172; Kimmel entertains bitterness towards Stark, p. 181-2; p. 243; p. 247;

SWANSON, The Honorable Claude: Secretary of the Navy, p. 121-2; p. 134;

TAUSSIG, VADM Joseph K.: his speech on the immanence of war, p. 107-8; p. 143;

TAYLOR, VADM E. B. (Whitney): commissioning the USS DUNCAN, p. 188-9; rescued from DD sunk in Battle of Cape Esperance, p. 220; p. 232-3; p. 248-9;

THEBAUD, RADM Leo: Chief of Naval Intelligence, p. 305;

TRUMAN, The Hon. Harry S.: his telephone call to Forrestal in San Francisco on formation of Department of Defense, p. 313-4; his poker game at Forrestal residence, p. 328-9 ff;

TULAGI: LANSLOWNE ordered to patrol entrance to Tulagi the night of Battle of Cape Esperance, p. 223;

TURNER, Admiral Richmond Kelly: p. 127-8; p. 147; p. 150; sends Smedberg in DD LANSLOWNE with ammunition for marines on Guadalcanal, p. 199 ff;

VERNOU, VADM Walter N. (Wally): Smedberg on his staff in USS CONCORD, p. 42 ff; p. 59-60; p. 75-7; p. 85; illustrations of his training tactics p. 86-7; requests Smedberg on his staff as Commander, CruDiv 3, p. 92; promises Smedberg job as Executive of DD but his successor, Adm. Stark, would not let him go, p. 94; p. 104-5;

VINSON, The Hon. Carl: p. 143; p. 371;

WAR CORRESPONDENTS: p. 255-7;

USS WASHINGTON: p. 233;

USS WASP: torpedoed in South Pacific, p. 211-13; DD LANSLOWNE ordered to sink the WASP, p. 216-7; she sinks shortly before Japanese task force arrives on the scene, p. 219;

WAVES: Smedberg comments on the WAVES in COMINCH office, p. 287-8;

WELLBORN, VADM Charles: p. 99-100; p. 123-4; p. 128; p. 132; p.

145; p. 151; p. 153; p. 164; p. 392; Smedberg becomes Chief of Staff to Wellborn as Commander, DD Force, Atlantic, p. 462-3;

USS WISCONSIN: p. 450;

WONSAN HARBOR: p. 450-1;

ZUMWALT, Adm. Elmo R. Jr.: Smedberg expresses himself to Zumwalt on standards in dress and conduct, p. 73;

